Bight of Flaking in New Brunswick.

The Court of New Brunswick in April last which, although it has attracted comparatively little notice, is of great importance to those anglers who have leased rivers in this Province from the Dominion Government, for the purpose of fishing with the rod. The master came up in the form of an action of trespass brought by the plantiff, Judge Steadman, against Mr. C.

A. Robertson, the gravamen of the action being that white he plaintiff was engaged in fishing for almon with rod and fly in the South West Miramichi River, on land owned by the News Sootia and New Brunswick Land Company, he was assaulted by the defendant and by another man, the Warden of the River, acting under defendant sorders, and his rod, line and reel taken from him. In justification of this assault the defendant pleaded in effect, that he held that portion of the river in which the plaintiff was shing to made the part of the lass of the propose of fishing in non-tidal waters in this Province, and that the hald a right in protection of his fishing river of hard waters of the same three reasons and the part from the last January, 1874, for the purpose of fishing in non-tidal waters in this Province, and that the hald a right in protection of his fishing rights under the lease from the Minister of Marine and Fisheries of Canads for a period of nine years from the last January, 1874, for the purpose of fishing in non-tidal waters in this Province, and that the hald a right in protection of his fishing rights under the lease from the Minister of Marine and Fisheries to grant the right of fishing in non-tidal waters in this Province, and that this might be tested at the trial before Judge Wetnore, a verdict was extended to the country which the South West Trianswick Land Company, it was able vargued to the fishery; that the ception of the river in which the plaintiff was the right of fishing in non-tidal waters in this Province, and that this might be test the land bounding on the river is the property of the Dominion. As all the ungranted land in New Brunswick, is the Guilty of Drunkenness, Hypocrisy, Improper and Injudicious Conduct—The Report and Verdict in Full—The Evidence withheld from the Public,

The Dutcher Investigating Committee which has been investigating the charges We may state that Mr. Justice Fisher's against Mr. George M. Dutcher, for drunkenness, immoral conduct and hypocrisy, concluded its labors last evening one, was concurred in by Justices Weldon The evidence taken in the case was vol minous, and much of it the committee as fully as he should desire to do, and there- for publication in a newspaper, which deem of such character as would be un fore that he was unable to concur in the would go into the families of our citizens judgment, at the same time he did not and be read indiscriminately by the memwish to be considered as dissenting from bers thereof, and the comm ed not to make the evidence unblic unl taken no part in the case. It may be it becomes necessary for them to do so. All the affidavits and the evidence taken before the committee have been carefully preserved for future reference, should it be needed in explanation of the verdict Company was peculiar in this, that it arrived at by the committee.

The Secretary, R. C. Fraim, Esq., was authorized to give a copy of the report to them in the Crown, but the Court held each of the city papers. that even if this were so, which they did Before arriving at the verdict the comnot assent to, it would not help the defendant, as the right of fishing did not depend on the ownership of the bed of the stream, but on the ownership of the river's bank.

Betore arriving at the verdict the committee took some documentary evidence, and then agreed upon the following as their report and decision:

REPORT.

In other words, it was held that the Final report of the committee appointed the on the ownership of the bed of the stream, but on the ownership of the river's bank. In other words, it was held that the riparian proprietor has the exclusive right of fishing in a non-tidal river. This proposition was supported by the very highest authority in recent appeal cases in the House of Lords, which is, as Mr. Justice Fisher observed, "The highest Court of Appeal in the Empire." Having proceeded of so far, the next question to be considered was whether there was anything in the "British North America Act, 1867" to change this Common Law right of the subject to fish in a river opposite his own land.

Previous to the Union each Province emacted laws for the regulation of its fisheries, and these laws were in force at the time of the Union. The Union Act, gave the Parliament of Canada the right to legislate in regard to "sea coast and inland fisheries," but to the 'rovinial Legislatures the right to make laws with reference to "property and civil righta." Judge Fisher holds that the power of Parliament to legislate with regard to the fisheries, as given in the Union Act, must be held to be the same jower enjoyed by the Provincial Legislatures before the Union to provide for the protection and regulation of the fisheries, and does not authorize Parliament to touch rights of property in the fisheries, and does not authorize Parliament to touch rights of property in the fisheries, and does not authorize Parliament to touch rights of property in the fisheries, and does not authorize Parliament to touch rights of property in the fisheries of Canada, in the same way as they had been formerly dealt with the Portice of the province of the reparation and protection of the fisheries of Canada, in the same way as they had been formerly dealt with the Portice of fishing did not already exist by law. This the Judge observes was "subteantially what the old Provincial law did." When the old Provincial law did." Wh and licenses where the exclusive right of fishing did not already exist by law. This the Judge observes was "substantially what the old Provincial law did." Wherever the right to the fish had been sequired by an individual there was no authority to lease. When the stream was in the Crown the license could issue. Now, with few exceptions in this Province, the water streams are retreams.

In the case below.

We have endeavored to perform our duty faithfully, and from the sworn evidence presented to us, we are fully concerned that George M. Dutcher is guilty of drunkenness in the city of New York on March 26, 1879 and that he is also guilty of hypocrisy, and that he has acted improperly and injudiciously.

Yours, very respectfully, HENRY F. PICKELS, R. C. FRAIM,

R. C. FRAIM, JAMES P. HAYES, JOHN GREEN, ALLEN GAWTHROP, are in the Crown for the benefit of the people of New Brunswick, and the exclupeople of New Brunswicz, and the excursive right of fishing is an incident to the property in the soil." Judge Fisher, therefore, holds that neither the British North America Act, nor 31st Vic. Cap. 60, authorizes the issuing of a license by
