camped within one hundred yards of the road ready to start on two trains, whose engines were kept fired up, with some twelve field pieces on a platform. At Dumfries there was a considerable number of troops, and five thousand were expected to be at that point on Saturday last. It is about three miles from the Potomac. At Strasburg on Saturday, 250 men arrived from Ken tucky, and 450 more were expected from that State on Sunday. At Williamsport a troop of cavalry guarded the ferry, and were moving up and down the river to prevent a surprise at Har per's Ferry. There were at least five thousand troops stationed on the heights around Harper's Ferry, with artillery commanding the railroad and the gorge leading to the Ferry. One observe

The Southern Commissioners had arrived in England. In the House of Lords on the 29th ult., Lord Wodehouse stated, in reply to a question, that Government recognized no right or obligation to interfere in the conflict unhappily commenced in America, either diplomatically or etherwise. The English papers continue to discuss American affairs, the entire London press, excepting the Times sympathising warmly with loyal States, and anticipating an easy triumph for the government.

Civil war in America continues the principal subject of discussion in newspapers.

Times speculates on probability of the Great Eastern being taken up by the American Government for war purposes. Underwriters ask higher rates of insurance on British vessels from American ports, say twenty to twenty-five shillings from New Ordenis, ten to fifteen from New York; one to two per cent. extra demanded of American vessels from Indir, China, &c., &c. War risks on American vessels detained in Southern ports advanced from five to to ruguineas. Times says that majority on tes duty, less than expected. Daily News considers it decisive, and guarantee for safety of the budget.
