

the night sweats my timen was often After lingermiany weeks butter, and was om. But I was l emaciated, and wi about. Even gate tired me, me any strength. ng miserably one day told me he had received Mother Seigel's answered that I nt to Mr. Lang-Haddenham, for to improve. I d the food caused ued taking the nth's time all the h and weakness was able to work ill. Since then with good health. who may be ght to hear filing you should (Signed) ife of Mr. Morris Haddenham, 1894." I won't kry to of this most inlet a great Engwho says: "Some re helplessly ill of many organic but knew that he whole trouble acids, and other digestion or dys-forrying and fret-mechanism,) they ge to face the in plain language, mity. The truth is, of it. Her lungs ight. The view was an un-Her disease was y, and the asthma it, and vanished ctory for common Seigel's Syrup.

you must not le that way. It s it. is chewed h! What's them nine—that you're then?—Cincinnati od restaurant in this tached to it?" d out and get you man's BEST FOR TABLE USE BEST FOR DAIRY USE QUALITY . . . N, CLINTON, ONT.

and the seizure of a plano and house-hold goods covered by a hire receipt agreement made upon the sale of the articles. The goods were removed by defendants, whilst it is alleged the writ was in force and the sheriff in possession. On the trial the plaintiff as attaching creditor recovered judg-ment, but the majority of the appeal court reversed this decision. Harris, Q. C., for respondent. On the conclusion of the arguments judgment was re-served. of the arguments judgment was re-served. The appeal in Mukahy v. Archibald was next heard. The appellant, a married woman, brought the action against the high cheriff of Halifax county for damages and to recover a cargo of frozen herring in bulk aboard the schooner Ocean Belle seized by the sheriff as being the property of the master of the schooner. Appellant, who is owner of the schooner, also claims the cargo as consignee under the bill of lading and recovered judg-ment in the trial court. The full court reversed this judgment and held that the consignment was a transfer by the master to the plaintiff, which was yold under the statue of frauds, 13th Elizabeth, chapter five, and that the cargo belonged to the execution debtor against whom the sheriff levied. Harris, Q. C., for the appel-lant; McLinnis for respondent. On the conclusion of arguments judgment served. <text><text><text><text>

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

ich is used in towing lumber down

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>