MANY PERSONS KILLED IN WISCONSIN STORMS

Lives Lost in a Series of Tragedies in the United States Yesterday.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., July 4. — The flood in the railroad wheat lands in the lower part of Kern County caused by the breaking of the Buena Vista Lake levee continued to spread today. Coincident with breaking of the levee yesterday were two large fires in the grain fields of Miller and Lux, nearly twenty miles from the lake.

Two sections of grain were destroyed aggregating between 15,000 and 20,000 sacks. Supplodon has been aroused from the fact that the fires and the levee break occurred simultaneously.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, July 4. — Twelve men were killed and five injured today by an explosion of giant powder. The seven men with others were riding to a picnic up the river and had four pounds of the explosive in the boat to be used in celebrating the fourth. The survivors say that one of those killed threw a cigarette on the top of the can containing the powder, the explosion following instantly.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 4. — It is now believed at least 17 lives were lost in the storms which swept Western Wisconsin last night. Numerous other persons were injured and much damage to farm property and to dwelling houses was reported. According to reports received here, Oakdale, on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul R. R., near Camp Douglas, was wiped out. Four persons are said to have been killed there. At Grand Rapids, Wis., there are said to be five dead, but communication has not been established with that place.

BOSTON, Mass., July 4. — The body of Miss Martha L. Howe, aged 32, was found at the bottom of an air-shaft at a Back Bay apartment hotel today. Miss Howe, who rooms alone in a suite on the sixth floor, is believed to have opened her window which communicated with the air shaft, to secure fresh air, and leaped too far out of the window, falling to her death.

CLINTON, Mass., July 4. — Gaetano Carluce and Philip Gregorini, Italians, each about 25 years of age, were killed late today by a passenger train on the Boston and Maine R. R. at Shepans Crossing, about one and a half miles west of Clinton station. The men were driving in a carriage, and apparently drove into the train, the carriage striking the carriage and killing them instantly.

ATLANTIC SQUADRON NOT TO STAY ON THE PACIFIC

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 4. — Interest was added to an otherwise featureless Fourth of July at Oyster Bay, by the official announcement of the future cruising plans of the Atlantic battleship fleet, issued to correct what appeared to be a persistent erroneous impression that the fleet had been ordered to take up permanent quarters in the Pacific. The statement was issued by Secretary Loeb upon his return from his daily session with President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill. It completely disclaims that the movement of the fleet is in any way dictated by international considerations.

President Roosevelt saw no official callers today, although he transacted the customary amount of routine business. His celebration of Independence Day took place in the evening, when with his family, relatives and a number of other friends, he watched a pyrotechnic display on Sagamore Hill.

Yesterday afternoon Officers Crawford and Marshall were called into Win. Watson's house in a yard off Brussels street to prevent Watson beating his wife.

NEWS OF NEWCASTLE

NEWCASTLE, N. B., July 3. — The following are the new officers of Newcastle Division: W. P. Mrs. Henry Ingram; W. A. J. D. McNutt; R. S. James McMurray; A. R. S. Miss Renae McQuarrie; F. S. T. A.
