Thomson & Co., insurance office. Both Miss Bullock and Mr. Church are very popular among the younger society set, and congratulations are being widely extended.

The Eclectic Club met at the residence, Wellington Row, of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley. The evening subject was "Dickens," and was greatly enjoyed.

The members of the Women's Canadian Club are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the lecture to be given by Mrs. T. J. Bowker, of Boston on "Home Making," in the Assembly Rooms this evening. Invitations were sent to members of the Men's Canadian Club to attend the address.

On Monday evening a Lenten concert and piano recital was given in Centenary church hall to a strictly select and appreciative audience. Two solos, a duet, a ladies' trio and two quartettes were finely rendered, but the encore to Mr. Pidgeon's solo, and the duet by Mrs. Crockett and Mr. Brown, were worthy of special mention. Two choruses by the choir, Hauptmann's Hear Us, O Saviour, and Sullivan's Saviour Thy Children Keep, were taken with great excellence, the former in the intricate harmony and the latter in its delicious pianissimo and varied shadings of tone. This was one of the pieces sung by the Sheffield Choir, and the rendition by our local choir was a close second. The piano music given on the New Chickering Concert Grand was simply delightful. Mrs. Barnes gave her usual correct and brilliant interpretation of Chopin's music, playing three of his shorter pieces and the splendid ballade in A flat, excelling herself in her encore number, the famous Kamenoi Ostrow of Ruben stein. Miss Biedermann played Rachmaninoff's magnificent prelude in C sharp minor, in her strongly emphatic and stirring style, responding with a modern Russian composition, which displayed even more clearly her brilliant technique. The very young Miss Gertrude Harvey rendered Chamisso's Air de Ballet with wonderful vigor and brightness. Miss Alice Hea played the accompaniments to the vocal numbers with great distinction.
