

GIRL DIVES UNDECEASED TO SAVE BROTHER

Kept Him Afloat in Water and After Rescue Carried Him on Shoulders to Their Home.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Elizabeth Fisher, twelve years old, plunged through a hole in the ice in Fishkill creek this afternoon, clutching her little brother in one hand and while the swift current carried them under the ice she thumped with her other hand upon the solid ice above them. Through remarkable heroism she saved the life of the child. Tonight in her home at Upper Howell she is threatened with pneumonia, but happy.

With her brother Malcolm, six years old, Elizabeth started across the fields to the home of a relative. It was necessary to cross Fishkill creek, a swift stream. The stream was covered with ice except at the bends, where the swirling waters had prevented the ice from forming.

The ice was a treat for Malcolm and he started to slide on it. In one long slide he was unable to check himself and he plunged into the water at a bend. Elizabeth did not hesitate a second. She did not stop to remove her coat or her shoes, but leaped into the water just as she saw the current carry her little brother under the ice.

The girl went after him. A dozen feet under the ice she caught him. She said she never thought of closing her eyes in the water, so anxious was she to get hold of her brother. Passing one hand about him she began to pound the sheet of ice above them, hoping to break it, but it was too solid for her strength.

The swift current carried them on down stream, and twenty or thirty feet away was the next bend. The ice there was broken and Elizabeth brought her brother to the surface. The current threw them against the bank and the girl struggled out, drawing her brother with her.

No one was in sight and Elizabeth started back across the fields toward her home, carrying Malcolm on her shoulders. Her clothes were freezing with the water and occasionally she had to put Malcolm down to rest. When she reached her home she was almost exhausted.

Malcolm was quickly revived and tonight is all right, but the exposure and exertion may result seriously for Elizabeth.

FRENCH BARON STARTS SUIT AGAINST MEMBERS OF A JOCKEY CLUB

Paris, Jan. 25.—The Matin announces that Robert Le Vasseur has begun proceedings against seven of the most prominent members of the exclusive jockey club by having them summoned to appear before the Correctional Court.

The proceedings arose out of an incident which occurred in the card room of the club in 1910. Baron Le Vasseur was accused of cheating, but the incident was settled and was considered closed.

The charges, however, have been repeated several times since by M. Du Breuil De Saint Germain, who refused to accept the Baron's challenge to a duel. The latter appealed to a jury of honor, declaring that Saint Germain was bound to fight or withdraw his charge. The jury disagreed, and the parties then attacked each other in the newspapers.

ALASKA RAILWAY BILL GOES THROUGH

Seattle, Wn., Jan. 24.—As soon as news of the passage today of the Alaskan Railway bill by the senate was received in Seattle, bombs were thrown into the air and a band and wagons bearing banners paraded through the business streets. The banners announced that the senate had passed the bill and that a great celebration was being prepared to take place after President Wilson had signed the bill, which has yet to go through the house. Alaska also is preparing such a celebration as never was known there before.

When left to itself, eczema, as a rule, runs on indefinitely. Even with careful treatment it is often obstinate in resisting curative measures. The cause is often difficult to find, but you can readily obtain relief from the dreadful itching by the application of Dr. Chase's Ointment. This treatment cleanses the skin and soon sets up a process of healing which leads to complete cure.

Patient and persistent treatment is necessary in severe cases, but as you can readily see the improvement from day to day as Dr. Chase's Ointment is applied you will be encouraged to keep on until you have driven out the disease and restored natural, healthy skin.

Attention to the general health is advisable in order that the cure may be lasting, but you can depend on Dr. Chase's Ointment to stop the itching and heal the skin. So well does it accomplish this that many cures it brings about are almost like miracles. Put it to the test and you will be surprised and delighted with the results.

WOMAN IN $100,000 LOVE BALM ACTION WHO IS SUING A CITY

Mrs. Emma Johnson, who Received Medal from Mayor of Paterson, N. J., in Cell as Fortune Teller.

New York, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Emma Johnson, a philanthropist and one of the best known women in Pennsylvania, was arrested last night in her home, at No. 28 Hamburg avenue, Paterson, N. J., on a charge of telling fortunes, which is prohibited by a state law. She was unable to furnish the cash bail of $250 demanded, or refused to do so, and spent the night in a cell in police headquarters.

When the children of Paterson heard of Mrs. Johnson's arrest last night many of them called at her cell, some with flowers and others with what delicacies they could offer. She had been a friend of children for many years, providing playgrounds throughout the city, seeing that they were permitted to use roller skates on the sidewalks and giving large quantities of clothing and food to the children of poor families.

In the campaign of the police against fortune tellers and "voodoo doctors," in which many persons of prominent families were arrested in the rooms of these persons, Mrs. Johnson fell into a trap set by the police. She asserts that she is innocent, but two detectives swore that she told their fortunes and accepted money for doing so.

At Police Headquarters Mrs. Johnson exhibited a letter purporting to have been sent by Queen Victoria commending her for her work among the children of Paterson. Mayor McBride formally presented a gold medal to Mrs. Johnson recently in recognition of her philanthropic work.

When the detectives made a raid upon the home of Lydia Conner, a negro, charged with fortune telling, at No. 54 Fair street, they also arrested sixteen white persons, and among them were many women connected with prominent families. Among them was Miss Christina Tania of No. 46 Fairview avenue, Prospect Park, who sings in the choir of the First Presbyterian Church of Paterson. Another was Mrs. Minnie Gerry, wife of a wealthy and prominent contractor. Others arrested were Hester Peterson, Elizabeth McAuley, Emma Schofield, Anna Smith, Jessie McAlley, Julia Dawson, Elizabeth Boncamp, Herbert Herberner, Jessie Van Dien, August Slaco, Henry Carter, John Smith, John Van Dien, Minnie Gerry, Margaret Brown, Edward Conover and Adeline Duke.

The negroes were fined $100 and the others $25 each.

HOW SHACKLETON PROPOSES TO DRAG HIS SLEDGES ACROSS ANTARCTIC

How Shackleton proposes to drag his sledges across the Antarctic.

Mr. Ernest Shackleton's plans for his new expedition to the Antarctic are arousing the keenest interest in exploratory circles and among the public in general. The above drawing shows the new ideas of Antarctic traction, which are now engaging the leader's attention. The heavily loaded sledges are to be drawn across the ice, if the experiments prove successful, by means of air propelled sleighs, taking the form of wingless aeroplanes. Ahead of the main party will go the taxi-aeroplane with clipped wings, which will bear its own load of food.

Paris, Jan. 25.—Within eighteen months western Europe will have direct railroad communication with Greece by means of a projected new line connecting the Piræus, Athens and Larissa railroad with the Oriental railroad. The contract for the construction of this line was signed today by the Greek minister at Paris and the French contractors in the presence of the Greek premier, M. Theodoris Vassiliou. The journey between Paris and Athens will thus be reduced to sixty hours.

SUFFRAGISTS TO BLACKEN FACES AS MINSTRELS

Mrs. Martha Tagg, head of the press department of the union, in charge of the minstrel show, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs, business manager of The Suffragist, the weekly official publication of the Congressional Union.

The American suffragettes' idea of attracting attention to the cause of woman suffrage will be exemplified on the afternoon of February 20 at the Columbia Theatre in Washington. The means will be a real minstrel performance with some of the devotees, if not all, in "really and truly" black-face make-up, and possibly some trousers.

The show will be given under the auspices of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, and the proceeds will be used in promoting the campaign for the passage of the federal amendment for woman suffrage.

SIR JAMES' RECOVERY IS NOW PROBABLE

Doctors Very Optimistic in View of Steady Improvement Shown During Past Couple of Days.

Toronto, Jan. 25.—It now seems probable that Sir James Whitney will completely recover from his illness. Dr. Alexander McPhedran tonight said the prime minister had passed a very satisfactory day, and when asked whether his patient would ultimately regain his health, stated that Sir James was making very good progress and that the outlook was exceedingly hopeful.

Dr. C. K. Clarke also was quite hopeful. "The condition of Sir James is very favorable," he said. "The premier is taking nourishment well, and altogether he is very much improved in health. Of course," he added, "we still regard Sir James as a sick man."

Both doctors said that the patient was much better today than at any time since he was brought home from New York, and that he was not nearly so restless as he had been.

Dr. R. A. Pyne, too, was pleased at the improvement in the patient's condition.

SHOOTS WOMAN AS DINERS LOOK ON

Finds One-time Wife Bride of Another, and After Killing Her Takes His Own Life.

Honolulu, Jan. 22.—In the presence of a roomful of diners at the Seaside Hotel last night, a man known by the name of Woodward, who arrived in Hawaii yesterday on board the steamship Sonoma, of San Francisco, shot and killed his one-time wife and then committed suicide.

The woman had married Charles A. Stewart, of San Francisco, last Saturday. She came recently from San Francisco and was married under the name of Margaret Phypers. Immediately after the ceremony, Stewart left for Hilo.

Mrs. Stewart remained at the hotel after she had taken a seat in the dining room. Woodward, whose name is believed to be A. W. Wagner, entered. He walked up to Mrs. Stewart's table and, after a few words passed between them, he drew a revolver and began firing. Both died almost instantly.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 23.—Charles A. Stewart is the representative in Hilo of a commission house of this city. His employers here expressed surprise that he was married, but thought it might have been the culmination of a love romance. He left them for Hawaii on December 30.

A. W. Wagner formerly lived in this city, but about a year ago he moved to Oakland, Cal.
