OPENED INQUEST INTO DEATH OF JOHN CASEY, EX-SOLDIER

"Fought for his country, but nobody would take him in," declared Soldiers of the 26th—Told police to take Casey to the hospital—Dr. Dunlop testified death was caused by alcoholic poisoning.

An inquest into the death of John Casey, the ex-soldier who died in a cell in the police station Saturday night, was begun before Coroner Roberts last evening. Dr. F. Dunlop, who conducted a post mortem, said Casey's death was caused by alcoholic poisoning, the treatment for which was flushing stomach and stimulating circulation. The evidence showed that Casey was in a bad physical condition. The soldiers who were with him on Saturday declared Casey was very sick, and that they had tried to get him into several hotels. "Casey fought for his country, but nobody would take him in," because he was frothing at the mouth and they thought he was drunk," said one soldier.

Two soldiers said they advised the police to get Casey into a house and send for a doctor, or take him to the hospital.

The court adjourned at midnight and will meet again on Friday night to take further evidence.

Capt. George Keefe testified to being called Saturday afternoon by one of the N. B. O.'s who told him Casey wanted to see him. He found Casey in the alley off Charlotte street near Remaine Gardens. He was being held up by two privates. Witness gave one of the privates money and told him to take Casey to a hotel. It struck him that Casey was very sick as well as drunk. Casey's physical condition when in the hospital was very bad. Donald MacCrae, private in the 26th, didn't know Casey very well. On Saturday he met Casey with Privates O'Keefe, Russell and Whittle, in the alley off Charlotte street. Casey seemed to be all in; he was frothing at the mouth.

Capt. Keefe gave them money, and told them to take Casey to a hotel, but never saw him the worse for drink. When witness first met the party Private O'Keefe asked if he had any money, but he said "No." O'Keefe said: "Well, here's poor Casey; he's lost all his money."

A juror—What did they want the money for?

Witness—To fix Casey up.

C. B. Allan said Casey had no connection whatever with the Patriotic Fund.

Served in South Africa.

Sergeant Major R. S. Edwards knew Casey since October. Casey was a full corporal for about two weeks after the 26th was organized. He was a good soldier so far as soldiering went. Witness never saw Casey real drunk, but he was sometimes in the guard room. Casey was a South African veteran, having the King's and Queen's ribbons.

Gulford D. Sweeney said when he saw Casey on North street he thought he was either drunk or in a fit. Five soldiers were standing around, smoking cigarettes.

A police officer came along and said: "Boys, what's the matter with this man?"

The soldier said Casey had an attack of tonsillitis.

The police officer said: "Well, what are you going to do with him?"

The soldier said: "You'll have to open up a boarding place for him."

The officer said the man looked as if he was drunk, but the soldiers said he had had nothing to drink except what they had given him.

Witness thought Casey looked as if he would die. The officer suggested that the soldiers get a coach and take Casey to the armory.

Witness said this was a good idea, and one soldier offered to beat in his face.

While the witness was on the scene the soldiers would not let the police take Casey away. Two of the soldiers were under the influence of liquor.

Wm. G. Ruddy saw Casey lying on the street, and stopped the police took him away. They handled him carefully.

John Armstrong saw Casey supported by a soldier, and thought the man looked pretty sick. He saw the police carrying him away. While witness was there the soldiers were orderly.

Michael J. Walsh was in the 26th Battalion with Casey. He did not see Casey on Saturday afternoon.

Coroner—Mind you're on your oath. Witness—I certainly don't recall seeing Casey on Saturday.

Private Peter Russell swore he saw Michael Walsh with Casey on Charlotte street Saturday afternoon. Walsh and Casey came up and asked for a drink. Casey said he was choking and went over to the fountain for a drink. Witness gave Casey a bottle of lager, and Casey said: "You've saved my life." Casey asked him to look at his throat; it was all black. Casey said he had had nothing to eat for three days, but we were all broke.

They called Capt. Keefe, who said Casey was in a bad way, gave them money, and told them to find a place for him. After Capt. Keefe left Casey began to froth at the mouth. They tried several hotels on King Square, but the proprietors would not let him in, thinking him drunk. I said: He's a

GRAND ORANGE LODGE OPENS ITS SESSIONS IN SEX; GOOD ATTENDANCE

CONSERVATIVE CLUB OF CARDWELL PARISH HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Policy of Premier Borden and Gov't heartily endorsed—Good work of County representatives in Legislature approved.

Penobscia, N. B., Mar. 14—The members of the Cardwell Liberal-Conservative Club held their annual meeting in the Conservative hall at this place Saturday morning, the 13th inst., the president, Abram Branscombe, in the chair. There was a large attendance. Never in the history of the Conservative party have Cardwell Conservatives been prouder of the grand old party, and its great leaders, as they are in this great history-making time.

The election of officers resulted in the former ones re-elected, viz. Abram Branscombe, president; Irvine H. Dunfield, vice-president; Harry A. Wallace, secretary-treasurer. The committee elected were John W. Gifford, Edgar Wallace, J. Herbert Morrey.

A message was ordered to be sent to Sir Robert Borden, extending to him the good wishes of the Conservatives of this parish, and also strongly endorsing the splendid work that he and his government is now doing in defence of our beloved Canada and the Empire. Messages were also ordered to be sent to George Fowler, M. P. and to the M. L. A.'s of Kings county, appreciating their splendid and effective work. Confidence was also expressed in that "General" of the club members reported that they intended to use "squids" the coming season.

The club is in splendid shape and in Mr. Branscombe we have a most efficient president. For a long number of years he represented Havelock parish at the county council and for a term was the wardens of the county. Much credit is due Mr. Branscombe for the splendid service he has given to Kings county.

man who fought for his country, and nobody will take him in. Then they took Casey down to Smythe street, but couldn't get a place there.

When a policeman came along and said he would send him to the hospital, they took Casey down to the police station. Witness said they did not want him to go to jail. Witness said to the policeman: "If you know your duty you'll take the man to a hospital and not to jail."

Witness judged Casey had been drinking before he met him that afternoon.

Advice to Police.

Private Edmund Whittle saw Walsh in company with Casey Saturday afternoon at about 5 o'clock. Before Casey was arrested witness told the police Casey was sick and should be put in some house and have a doctor.

Private James O'Keefe testified that he received money from Capt. Keefe to put Casey in a house and get a doctor. Witness said neither he nor the two soldiers with him should be drinking. His evidence was the same as the other soldiers.

Henry Graham said he saw Casey being supported by three soldiers about 6.30. Two police officers carried Casey to the ambulance.

Witness did not know if the soldiers had been drinking.

Alcoholic Poisoning.

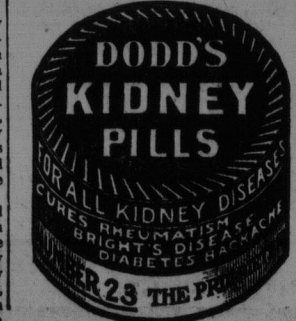

Dr. F. T. Dunlop testified to being called to the police station, examining a man in the cells, and finding him dead. He made a post mortem. Examination of heart showed fatty degeneration of the muscles. Blood vessels of the stomach were red and congested.

Dr. Dunlop set the cause of the man's death as alcoholic poisoning. To Foreman Craigie the doctor said he thought the man should have been watched. He could not say whether the man's life could have been saved if a doctor had been called earlier.

Michael Walsh, recalled, said he could not remember seeing Casey on Saturday. He had been drinking with Casey nearly all the week. Casey stopped at his house on Wednesday and Thursday nights. Casey stopped at a bum lodging house Tuesday night and said he had been robbed. If he had seen Casey on Saturday he would have taken him home. Witness admitted he had been drinking on Saturday.

Deputy Chief Jenkins said under Chief Clark prisoners were visited at intervals. Officer in charge was supposed to exercise his judgment, and call a physician if a man was ill. The police have received instruction in first aid. Cells were damp and cold; there was room for big improvement. Chief Simpson will be called to testify about government of police cells since he took charge.

Court adjourned.

Grand Master W. B. Wallace and Grand Secretary Neil J. Morrison, in annual communications show year of progress and harmony in all departments of Order—Tribute of appreciation paid to Hon. J. D. Hazen—Order has made gains in past twelve months—The Empire war and Patriotic Funds—Interesting statistics.

Sussex, Mar. 16—Hotel accommodation was taxed and private houses called into requisition to house the members in attendance at the annual meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge of the province of New Brunswick, which opened here this afternoon. In the vicinity of 100 members were present at the opening session and this number was considerably augmented on the arrival of the evening trains. Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., grand master, presided at the sessions which are being held in the Odd Fellows' hall. The afternoon session was devoted to the appointment of standing committees and was presided over by the grand master. The annual address of the grand master was submitted and showed a year of successful harmonious work. The grand-master's address was handed over to the committee appointed to deal with it and the report of the grand secretary was received.

At the evening session Mayor F. W. Wallace of Sussex delivered an address of welcome and congratulatory handed the keys of the town over to the brethren. Grand Master Wallace replied in fitting vein.

Mrs. John Thompson, worthy mistress of Harmony Lodge No. 146 L. O. B. A. also read an address of welcome on behalf of the ladies' organization and Past Grand Master A. D. Thomas of Fredericton replied.

W. A. McFarlane, county master of King's East County Lodge read an address on behalf of that body and Rev. W. McI. Matthews, provincial grand chaplain replied.

A. E. Pearson, worshipful companion in command of Kings County Chapter appeared before the Grand Master and read a forecast to C. H. Perry, worshipful master of Admiral Nelson Lodge No. 124, Sussex, under whose auspices the grand lodge was meeting.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the election of grand lodge officers which will take place on Wednesday evening. It is the opinion that Grand Master Wallace will be re-elected.

Members of grand lodge were out of their reputation of an article in the press of tonight's St. John Times purporting to be a forecast or summary of the grand master's address. The members claim that the article is incorrect in every particular.

The Grand Master's Address.

Dr. W. B. Wallace, Grand Master, in his annual address conveyed greetings to the members of Grand Lodge, and referred to prominent members who had passed away during the year. On the death of the Imperial Grand Master, the Earl of Erne, he voiced the grief of the Grand Lodge and of the members of the Order in this jurisdiction. He referred to the death of our capable and worthy Grand Secretary, I have my imperfections, and know I am not as strenuous a grand master as some of my predecessors, but I do my duty to the association and to support its principles. In conclusion let me say, that the Grand Orange Association is the bulwark of civil and religious liberty in the great British Empire, and we should never forget our duty to God, our King and our country."

Grand Secretary's Report.

Grand Secretary N. J. Morrison in opening his report referred to the pleasure it gave him to have the Grand Lodge meet in Sussex. He was first initiated into the order in the year three years ago and of all who then were members of Admiral Nelson Lodge No. 124, only two, Thomas Coggin and George S. Dryden, were now actively identified with the order.

The present session was the 72nd annual of the Grand Lodge. He paid a tribute to the members of the order who had gone to the front and expressed the hope that they would return to their homes and take up their duties in the order.

Reviewing the work of the year, he said: "The first part of the year showed great gains in adding to our membership, but on the declaration of war early in August our people became so engrossed in it that it was difficult to get them to pay any attention to anything else. Then, again, many of the men who would be likely candidates for our order joined the colors, moved away from home, causing a lull in Orange work as well as in all other business. Notwithstanding all this a large percentage of our lodges made splendid gains. Our systems of propagation in force for some years back was changed this year. Instead of depending on the county masters in a number of the outlying portions to recruit for our order, the executive decided to use their very limited means in paying for a regular organizer to work in those districts that showed losses during the past few years. The Grand Master has very fully reported on this phase of the work of the executive. I find in the counties the organizer visited a very great improvement in the work of the lodges as shown by prompt returns and additions to membership, and would recommend that the same plan be adopted for this year with an increased grant so that all the outlying portions of the province can be covered."

The Grand Secretary's summary of the year's work showed as follows: Five new primary and one county lodge instituted as follows: Gloucester Star No. 160, L. O. L., at Glenangle, Gloucester County; Ulster Volunteers, L. O. L., No. 60, at Albert, Albert County; St. George L. O. L., No. 161, at St. George, Charlotte Co.; Mohawk L. O. L., No. 162, at L'Etete, Charlotte Co.; Ulster L. O. L., No. 163, at Salmon River, St. John Co.; Gloucester County Lodge, The Grand Secretary then proceeded to give particulars regarding the organization of these lodges. Their return of members was given as follows: Gloucester Star, 26; Ulster Volunteers, 21; St. George, 18; Mohawk, 46; Ulster, 25. Gloucester County Lodge had been organized by Brother David Hipwell and others and was in flourishing condition.

Ulster L. O. L., No. 165, Albert County; Dorchester L. O. L., No. 126, Westmorland County; Wiggins L. O. L., No. 74, Carleton County, had been reconstituted during the year. Other semi-dormant had been revived by the organizer and are now showing renewed activity in the work.

Referring to new halls built during the year the Grand Secretary said that while considerable activity had been manifested in that branch of the work, he had not received returns which would enable him to give accurate figures of the number of halls built. Mohawk L. O. L., at L'Etete had, however, built a creditable hall. Equal Rights L. O. L., No. 32 at Nashwaakias, York County, had dedicated a splendid new hall in November last, the Grand Master and Grand Secretary being present at the ceremonies. He understood that other halls were in course of construction.

Returns had been received from the following lodges, classified by counties:

Albert—8 primary, 1 county lodge, 1 Royal Chapter.

Westmorland—15 primary, 1 county, 1 R. S. Chapter.

York—16 primary, 1 county, 1 R. S. Chapter.

These returns show 142 primary lodges, 1 district, 17 county lodges and 13 R. S. Chapters returned to date.

The returns show the following statistics of the year's work: Initiated, 471; reinstated, 129; joined by certificate, 104; withdrawn by certificate, 106; suspended, 361; expelled, 2; died, 62; leaving a total net gain of 369 members with sixteen lodges yet to hear from.

The Grand Secretary paid special tribute to the work of Clark Wallace Lodge, No. 72, Midland Junction, in initiating 76 members during the year. This record had never before been attained in New Brunswick and he recommended that Grand Lodge take special cognizance of it. Havelock L. O. L., No. 27, St. John, was still the banner lodge with 157 members.

Grand officers at some length reported on dormant lodges and lodges which had neglected to make returns and recommended that Grand Lodge call the attention of delinquent lodges to their duty in this respect.

He had been authorized to secure a vault in one of the St. John banks to store books and papers the property of Grand Lodge, but had been unable to make desired arrangements.

He again urged all members to support the Orange Sentinel as the organ of the order.

July 12th, the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne, had been generally observed. The largest celebration was at Sussex where a large procession was held. After the parade the Grand Master, Mayor McKay of Sussex, Rev. Bros. Currie, Denison and others delivered brief addresses dealing with the day we celebrate. Reports from other celebrations also told of success.

There were 62 deaths during the year. The most prominent members who died were Hon. Robert Maxwell and J. Edward N. Holder. The late Brother Maxwell was a Past Senior Deputy Grand Master and held many other offices in the Grand Lodge. He was a man of rare ability and a good living Orangeman.

Brother Holder in his younger days was also a prominent Orangeman and it was largely due to him that today there is a full report of the early history. In concluding his report the Grand Secretary referred to the harmony existing in the order, evidenced by the fact that during the year there had been nothing in the shape of an appeal or other contentious document placed in his hands. He also acknowledged assistance received from other Grand Officers and expressed the hope that the session of Grand Lodge would prove pleasant and profitable.

A SIMPLE WAY TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Prevent Falling Hair and End Itching Scalp.

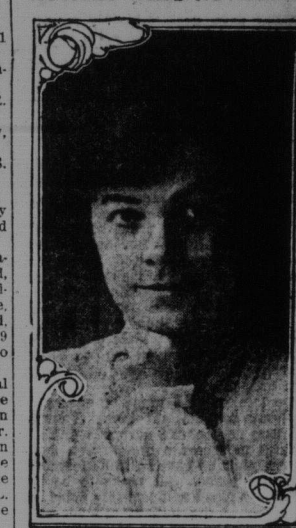

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it itchy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

ACTRESS WEDS NOVELIST.

Announcement of the marriage in New York of Samuel Hopkins Adams, novelist, magazine and newspaper writer, and Miss Jane Peyton, actress, came as a surprise to all except their intimate friends. This is Miss Peyton's fourth marriage. Her first husband was Dr. Robert Curtis Brown, of Milwaukee; her second, Arthur Cecil Gordon Weld, musical director, who was killed last autumn in an automobile accident, and her third, Guy Bates Post, actor. The latter marriage was annulled last February.

UNSTRUNG, UNSTEADY SHAKY NERVES

MAY BE TONED UP BY USING MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

Mrs. John Harper, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for the heart and nervous system. I was confined to a grocery store for twelve years, and had to give up business, as I became terribly run down and nervous, and had heart trouble, and I am sure I am gaining very fast now. I feel that nothing did me any good until I tried your Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am positive they will cure me. The nerves of one hand would tremble and then seem to go numb so that I could not write or sew. Now my hand is quite steady, as you can see by my handwriting. This is a big change which delights me so much for I thought all was done that could be done. I was about to give up in despair when I tried this last remedy, and even after I had only taken half a box the change started to come."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will restore the enfeebled, nervous, exhausted, overworked system to full constitutional power.
