AROUND THE CITY

GARDENS TONIGHT
Don't forget the ever popular Saturday night at the Yestonian Gardens.

RETURNS FROM TORONTO
Rev. J. A. MacKellan arrived home yesterday from Toronto, where he attended the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Synod.

HERE FOR INSPECTION.
A lot of the cast iron pipe which was offered to the city by a firm in London, Ontario, has arrived in the city for inspection by the city officials. It is now at the water and sewerage department yard in Leinster street.

SPEED KINGS FINED.
Traffic Officer Robt. Crawford had five respondents before Magistrate Dalton, Renfrew, yesterday charged with over-speeding their buzz cars on the Rothery boulevard. A fine of $5 was imposed in each case.

POWER BOAT CLUB
The Power Boat Club-house has recently been re-painted, and as a result now looks very dandy. Most of the boats are off the blocks and have also been painted. Marble Cove is now presenting a very prosperous appearance.

ENJOYED HIS VISIT.
Commissioner Jones reports having had a pleasant and profitable trip to Halifax. He and G. G. Hare, city engineer, were shown a model for cleaning catch basins and the city incinerator. They also were shown over the hydro development at St. Mary's Bay.

RUNAWAY CHILDREN.
Two children, a boy of three and a girl of four, wandered away from their homes on British street yesterday morning. They were halted by Officer Duffy at the head of King street and taken to central, where later their mothers found them.

DELAY OVER FINANCES.
Commissioner Jones said yesterday the delay in the placing of the new fire hydrants in Beacomfield was due to lack of finance, and he wanted to consult the city solicitor before taking any further action. It is hoped to have the matter straightened out in a day or two.

INFORMATION WANTED.
A prominent Montreal organization has applied to the St. John Board of Trade for material for a magazine article covering historical data respecting the port of St. John. The depth of water, capacity of freight sheds are. The information has been forwarded.

HARNESS BROKEN.
A team belonging to Purdy and Green was coming down Main street yesterday afternoon about 4 p.m. when a heavy load of lime, one of the neck-broke broke throwing a horse to the ground, and the other horse in his haste to get away from the wagon broke up the harness considerably, but was quieted down and the sloven towed into Elm street.

CARD OF THANKS.
Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reid of Upland wish to thank the friends through The Standard for the pleasant surprise given them Tuesday, June 7, in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary; also for the many beautiful presents they received, including linen, cut glass, china and tinware. After lunch the merry crowd left for their homes.

Carleton Lodge K.P. Officially Visited

Grand Chancellor Cochran Highly Compliments Work of Domain's "Baby Lodge."

D. M. Cochran, Grand Chancellor of the Maritime Domain, Knights of Pythias, made an official visit to Carleton Tower Lodge, K. P. No. 31 last evening. He was supported by various grand lodge officers, among whom were Past Supreme Representatives Stewart and Moulton, and Deputy Grand Chancellor Gardner. The ranks of Page and Esquire were conferred by the degree team upon two candidates. After the work the Grand Chancellor highly complimented the lodge on the efficiency of their work. He said Carleton Tower Lodge was the baby lodge of the Domain, but their work was equal to that of the oldest. Other grand lodge officers spoke in a complimentary way of the work done.

After the lodge work a social hour was enjoyed by those present.

May Widen Street At Highway Bridge

Property Owners on Two Streets Ask for Pavement Under Improvement Act.

The Commissioner of Public Works was given authority to cut away a portion of the rock at the western end of Strait Shore road to widen the street at the turn from the highway bridge and a number of matters were laid over until the Monday meeting for action, at the meeting of the Common Council in committee yesterday morning.

Commissioner Thornton said he had been asked to make provision to allow of a widening of the street at the intersection of the highway bridge and the turn from the highway bridge. It was decided to let the by-law governing this matter lie on the table until next Monday to give any person interested a chance to be heard.

Commissioner Thornton said he had received complaints about the condition of the sidewalk at the premises of the Purdy Ice Cream Co. Commissioner Frink said he had received a letter from the Purdy people offering to pay for a cement sidewalk if the city would lay it. Action was delayed until Monday, when the commissioner will bring in a report on the cost of the work.

Commissioner Frink reported that he had taken up with Hon. Mr. Ventot the matter of basing a portion of the rock at the western end of Chassey street, and the latter had written that he had to object to the city doing this work, provided the houses were not damaged. The matter was left in the hands of the commissioner, with power to act as he thought best.

Petitions from the residents of German street, between Queen and Harding, and from the residents of Dufferin Row, asking the city to pave these portions of the streets under the local improvement act, were presented by Commissioner Frink, and on his motion referred to himself and the road engineer for a report on Monday.

Overseas Openings For Canadian Trade

Board of Trade is Advised of Possibilities Which Might Interest Business Men.

The directors of the Commercial Intelligence Department, Ottawa, advise the local Board of Trade that an official of the Canadian trade commissioner's office recently interviewed at premises of British importers regarding the possibility of the city extending their trade with this country, and as a result of such interview he has forwarded to the board here a list of names of British firms who would like to buy in Canada such goods as canned salmon, wheat, flour, dairy produce, wood pulp, heavy hardware, machinery and metal fittings for railway cars. These enquiries will appear in the weekly bulletin of June 12. The address of these enquiries will be cheerfully supplied by the Board of Trade.

Wants Contracts Placed.
The Canadian Founders and Metal Trade Association, in a letter to the St. John Board of Trade, points out the necessity for Canadian contractors placing any contracts they may have pending with some responsible Canadian firm at once. The association makes this request in the name of Canada and Canadian industry, so as to assist in the immediate resumption of business.

The board has been advised from London that Mr. Ben H. Morgan, chairman of council of the British Empire Producers' Organization, will leave London for Canada on June 22 to confer with the bodies which the organization represents, and generally to discuss with the producing interests measures that will ensure for Canadian products a larger market in Great Britain and for Canadian industrial products for the Mother Country.

Mr. Morgan hopes to have the pleasure of visiting St. John. The board has addressed him a letter, expressing a desire to have him visit here and a willingness to co-operate with him in his plans for the extension of trade between Canada and the motherland.

Holland Wants Our Trade.
The Trans-Atlantic and British Mercantile Service at Rotterdam, Holland, in a letter to the Board of Trade, expresses a strong desire to assist in the extension of Canadian trade with Holland.

The overseas department of the British Standard Exporter has requested the board to co-operate with it in making public the names of our prominent business and manufacturing firms.

INSPECTORS MADE LIQUOR RAID

Found Three Bottles and Part Can of Alcohol Under Floor of Beer Shop.

In the police court yesterday afternoon Clarence Stillwell pleaded guilty to the charge of having liquor in his possession other than his private dwelling. He was defended by G. H. V. Byles, K.C., and the prosecution was conducted by W. M. Ryan. The sub-inspectors testified that when they entered the store on the corner of British and Prince William streets at noon yesterday, the defendant and a man named Danaher were behind the counter, and Stillwell poured the contents of a glass into the sink and the contents smelt strongly of intoxicating liquor. The inspectors then made search and found under a loose board in the floor which led to a cellar, three bottles of liquor and a gallon tin containing alcohol; also a funnel.

The case was adjourned until Monday afternoon at three o'clock.

Checker Players Will Back Latimer

Local Followers of Game Ready to Accept Challenge from McClymont.

The report of a checker match between two St. John men, appearing in an issue of the Standard of last week, which stated the winner would play J. H. Latimer, of this city, "the acknowledged champion of New Brunswick," has brought forth some protests from other sections of the Province where there are checker players regarded as champions. The friends of Frank McClymont, of Woodstock, are worked up over the claim made for Latimer, and are willing to back their man in a match with Mr. Latimer for any amount from $100 to $1000.

Game Played for Pleasure

The checker game enthusiasts of St. John, as one of them stated today, play the game for the love of it. There has never been a contest for the purpose of determining the Championship of the Province. The St. John Checker Club hopes to hold a tournament in August, when this much mooted question may be settled. Outside players, who think they can deliver the goods, will only be too welcome to participate in the matches.

Would Stake Latimer

Players here have always kept the game clean and played for the pleasure of it, and there were never stakes up in any of their competitions. Mr. Latimer has expressed a willingness to meet Mr. McClymont and prefers to play for the pleasure and glory of the game. If the supporters of the latter are insistent upon playing for stakes, Latimer's admirers say they could probably arrange to cover any amount the friends of the Woodstock man would care to bet.

The checker players of the city do not intend to let the Woodstock dog go unchallenged, and are ready to put the skill of the first fruit to the Temple with great ceremony, hence the name Shabbat meaning weeks, or "rest" is known by its Greek name "Pentecost" the fiftieth.

Union Executive Rejects Proposal

Turns Down Suggestion Put up for Basis of Settlement With Power Company.

The settlement of difficulties that have arisen between the N. B. Power Co. and the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway and Electric Workers did not look promising last night. After a meeting of the union's executive, it was reported the proposition put up by the power company as a basis for the bringing together of the two bodies to the dispute had been rejected by that body. It was the contention of the executive, as reported, that there had been no proposition put up in writing and they must decline to consider any verbal proposition.

General Manager Thomson of the N. B. Power Company says he was asked yesterday to put his proposition in writing for the executive. He says he has made no proposition. He attended the mayor's conference out of courtesy to the mayor, and the suggestions were made by the mayor and did not come from the manager of the N. B. Power Company.

The personnel of the Arbitration Court, requested by the workers, had not been completed last night, in so far as the union was able to learn. The opinion held by labor men is that the deliberation of the court will not settle the disputed question as the Power Company is not a party petitioning for that court.

All Moves in Abeyance

Manager Thomson announced yesterday that he could not proceed with the carrying out of his original plans, as no changes can be made of the status now existing between the company and employees as to working conditions, while the Arbitration Court is alive.

It was intimated by Manager Thomson that after the court had rendered its findings, which will not bind the company in any way the condition on which the present employees might have their jobs would not be in place or inviting as were the conditions for re-employment as first set forth.

Observe Signing of Magna Charta

Canadian Club Arranging for Public Meeting on King St. and Invite Co-operation.

The Canadian Club are arranging to have the anniversary of the signing of the Magna Charta, which will take place next Wednesday, the 15th, observed in an appropriate manner in the city.

It is hoped to have a number of public speakers deliver addresses on King Square appropriate to the occasion that evening, and to have a band perform also. Citizens will be requested to fly their flags that day, and the attention of the school children will be called to the occasion.

The Canadian Club is extending an invitation to the Women's Canadian Club, the Daughters of the Empire, Knights of Columbus, the St. Andrew's and St. George's Societies, and all such organizations to co-operate with them in securing a proper observance of the day.

The clergy of the city churches will also be requested to refer to the occasion on the Sunday following the anniversary.

CAR DEMURRAGE RATES.
The Board of Railway Commissioners will meet in Ottawa on June 21 to consider the matter of the reduction of car demurrage charges to the normal rate of $1 a car a day.

Shad Fishing Time Extended

Hon. R. W. Wigmore Wires That Season Will be Kept Open Until July 31.

A wire was received yesterday from Hon. R. W. Wigmore stating that the time for shad fishing had been extended until July 31st. This will be good news for the fishermen, as the time previously given for closing was June 14.

While no large or even fair catches of shad have been made in the harbor upriver fishermen have done remarkably well and a large quantity of shad came down river on the boats yesterday. The shad has apparently slighted the harbor fishermen and passed right up river.

Now with the extension of time for fishing those engaged will not have to store their nets away next week as they believed would be necessary.

Shabbat Or The Feast of Weeks

Ancient Festival Celebrated by Jews Sunday and Monday—Rabbi Press Will Speak.

On Sunday and Monday the 12th and 13th of June respectively, the Jews celebrate the ancient festival "Shabbat," or the Feast of Weeks. In ancient Palestine the Israelites made three pilgrimages to the Holy Temple in Jerusalem on the three major festivals mentioned in the Bible, viz: Passover, Shabbat and Sukot.

Originally this festival was celebrated as the first harvest festival. They counted seven weeks from Passover till Shabbat, and on the fiftieth day they carried the first fruit to the Temple with great ceremony, hence the name Shabbat meaning weeks, or "rest" is known by its Greek name "Pentecost" the fiftieth.

Revelation

After the destruction of the Temple the festival assumed a different meaning, and up to the present day, it is being celebrated as The Season of the Giving of the Law. On that day Moses received the Ten Commandments from the Lord on Mount Sinai, but it is not natural that the Jews should claim these eternal truths to the world.

The great moral force of the Bible is solemnly emphasized on this occasion in the Synagogue. The Decalogue is recited from the Scroll with special solemnity, the whole congregation rising.

It is also chosen as a fitting occasion for the confirmation of the Jewish youth. The Synagogues and homes are solemnly dedicated to the study of the law on this day. The Decalogue is recited from the Scroll with special solemnity, the whole congregation rising.

The book of Ruth, which so beautifully depicts this season in ancient Israel, and also because of the noble character of Ruth in choosing the God of Israel as her God, is read also in the Synagogues.

Rabbi Dr. C. A. Press will speak Sunday and Monday at eleven o'clock in the Synagogue on the subject: "Heritage," being an exposition of ancient and modern Hebrew culture.

On the Sunday following, June 13th, the religious school will close for the season with an appropriate programme by the children.

Pocket Peddlers In Sorry Plight

Unable to Secure Liquor Supply from Warehouses and Are Up Against It.

Members of the Bungesters' Union, those gents who conduct the pocket peddling trade, are in a sorry plight. Their source of supply is being closed to them and they know not where to turn for future stocks.

The manager of one of the bonded liquor houses recently opened in the city, says he has been visited this week by twenty of the clan who wanted to arrange to secure liquor from him to supply their trade. He informed them there was nothing doing, as the stock of liquor in bond was not for sale in the Province of New Brunswick.

The manager was informed by the petitioner for favors that it had been easy to secure their supply up to now; but with the commission taking over supplies for distribution throughout the province, they were being deprived of their "casks in a desert land."

The bold statement of the "hip pocket" men, with which they had heretofore been able to secure liquor caused the manager of the liquor warehouse to have some indignations as to whether or not prohibition did prohibit.

To Pitch Tents On East End Grounds

Through the efforts of Mayor Schofield and Commissioner Thornton arrangements were made last night whereby St. John's Floto Circus, which is in this city on Monday and Tuesday, will establish their tented city on the East End grounds. Commissioner Thornton announced last evening that the management of the circus will entertain the children from the Orphan's Homes and the orphaned soldiers at the afternoon performance.

INSTANCE WHERE DREAM CAME TRUE

A few nights ago a lady, who is in St. John visiting friends, had her slumbers greatly disturbed by a horrible dream, the chief feature being the pathetic cries for help, apparently coming from her young child, whom she left at home. So real was the dream that the lady awakened and it was some time after before she could get to sleep again. The dream so impressed her that in the morning she sent a telegram to her home asking if anything had happened, and she immediately received a reply that the child had been taken to the hospital during the night her home had been nearly totally destroyed by fire and her child, along with the rest of the family, had fortunately escaped.
