POOR DOCUMENT

<page-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

The Land Company: and whated the weight op range of the transfer of the product of the product op report of the product op report of the product op report of the product op range of the

whether it is within half a mile or not, but I know this, that where this new wharf was built is in front of one of the finest hotels upon the St. John river. The gentleman who is the proprietor had not been a friend of ours, so far as I know; we had not been influenced by any feel-ings for him, so far as the government was concerned, but it was represented river. I said if that was so I would have to hold myself free to take any action necessary in regard to the matter, and withdrew from any connection with it. In conclusion the attorney general thanked the audience for their magnif-cent reception and attentive hearing. The meeting closed with three hearty cheers for the government candidates, but the opposition had not spirit enough left to offer cheers for their men and none concerned, but it was repre were given. $100,000 MEMORIAL BUILDING AT McGILL.

Laura Morrison, with the other officers, the executive committee. Rev. W. C. Matthews delivered an address on How Superintend-ents Can Help the Teachers, which was full of practical suggestions. This was followed by an earnest address by Field-Secretary Rev. A. Lucas on Opportunities and Encour-agements of Sunday School Teachers. It was decided to hold the provincial Sun-day school convention, which will meet here next autumn, in St. John's church. The St. Cécilian orthestifa gave a very fine musical and literary entertainment in the exhibition hall of St. Michael's Academy last evening. There was a 'large audience, and the frequent applause was meried. Mrs. Harris returned to Moncton Thursday, after a visit of two months to her daughter, Mrs. E. Jarvis, Queen street. Another very pleasant dance was given in the Elkin building Thursday evening. A large number, were present and the affair was a grand success. Miss Mabel Schwartz, of Moncton, is the guest of Mrs. W. Johnson. The members of the Mission Band of St. Andrew's church had a sleigh drive this after on street the Masten Band of St. Andrew's church had a sleigh drive this aftermoon, after which they were entertain-ed at the Manse by their pastor, Rev. D. Henderson. Oreat interest is being taken in the political arconseling and the greet mement in the political arconseling and the greet mement the text is very

HOPEWELL HILL.

Henderson. Great interest is being taken in the political campaign, and the government ticket is very sanguine of success.

denow, George streef, called out all interviewers and the damage was algobie for the such as the such

RIVERSIDE.

were conveyed to Albert, where the serv

In the course of the school law Scotia would be such that a tea not be employed in any section held a normal school diploma. Mr. Clarke, who is at present the Methodist church at Londonn Sunday in town. He was forme and several from this town have promised to assist him. G. H. Williams, who has been on the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada in Halifar for some time, has recently been sent to the head office in Montreal. Mr. Williams was formerly on the bank staff in Truro. The ping-pong hockey players of this town had a most delightful trip to Ambersf has week, where they met the lady hockey list of that place in a most interesting match. There is to be a return match in the Met-ropolitan rink on Friday evening of this week.

There is to be a return instant in the metropolitan rink on Friday evening of this week.
Miss Nora. Blanchard, Jubilee Cottaga, Park street, has returned from an extended visit with friends in Kentville.
A. E. McCurdy, of Musquodoboit, passed through Truro en rouse to Winnipeg.
H. R. Forshner and his sister, Miss Annis E. Wallace, of Wallace, spent a few days in town this week.
Miss Mary E. McGuire, of this town, was married in St. Joseph's church, Halifax, on the 16th inst. to Daniel Sullivan, of that city. The bridesmaid was Miss Minnie Me-Donald and the groomsman E. Doody.
Blair McLaughlin, 'Amberst, was in town this week on his way to Debert, his old home, to see his mother, who is seriously 11.
A serious accident occurred. at Quoddy recently. James Hartiling, of that place, while working in the works, had the misfortune to cut his foot very badly. He was quite weakened from loss of blood, but with the ald of friends was able to reach his home.

An interesting and instructive meeting was held in the hall of the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Clark-son, Mrs. McKenzie and Miss Layton gave addresses on the missionary loan exhibition, recently held in Halifax. son, Mrs. McKenzie and Miss Layton gare addresses on the missionary loan exhibition, recently held in Halifax. T. B. Kidner, of the Truro Manuel Train-ing School, is to read a paper on Some As-pects of Technical Education at the annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Mining Society. The masquerade carnival held in the Met-ropolitan rink on Wednesday was one of the best ever held in Truro. Some of the cos-tumes were exceedingly pretty and showed great taste and ingentity on the part. of those who prepared them. One of the pre-tiest was that worn by Mrs. F. B. Schurs-man, who represented wirter. One of the newest features was the costume worn by the "Daughters of the Regiment." The death occurred on Wednesday of Mrs. Adelaide McKinnon, Outram street. The funeral will take place from the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Miss Romans, of Londonderry, is visiting friends in town. Doctor Clift, formerly of, Truro, now. of New York, his returned from P. E. Helson where he has been giving special treatment to an influential Clifts of Charloptedra. . Truro, N. S., Feb. 21-(Special)+The Great Beit gold mine, Monrit Unické, one of the best properties in the province, has been year for $200,000. The company meanture has leased the property for a year and will test it during that time. The United States company will begin operations April 1. The Great Belt is owned by a company with $500,000 capital, chiefly Halifax men. The annual point competition of Truro duriners and noint competition of Truro duriners and noint competition of Truro duriners who have won laurels for Truro did not get out of the tesns. . A girls' hockey team from Amherst played ing 6 to 1. The line un for Amherst was: Annie Hill-coat, Gertie Hillcoat (Capt.), Elsie McSwain, Frances Delahunt, Kate Ambrose, Winnig Mumford and Doe Morse. . The line un for Amherst was: Annie Hill-coat, Gertie Hillcoat (Capt.), Elsie McSwain, Frances Delahunt, Kate Ambrose, Winnig Mumford and Doe Morse. . . The Jones, Dorophas Mooraman, Masis Heen-ironed by Mis, (Dr.) Riverside, Albert Co., Feb. 19.—The funeral of the late O. McClelan took place Thurs-day afternoon and notwithstanding the in-clement weather was largely attended. The remains were conveyed to the Methodist clement weather was largely attended. The remains were conveyed to the Methodist church, Albert, where the services were conducted by the pastor, Rev, J. K. King, assisted by Rev. Mr. Davidson.
The pall-bearers were Charles Urquhart, Willard Fillmore, Coleman Starratt, Samuel Smith, Leonard Colpits and Hilyard Peck, employee of the deceased. Interment at the Hogewell cemetry.
The funeral of Caroline M. S. Hoar, eldest daughter of Haliburton Hoar, Lower Cape, Albert Co., took place on Wednesday afternod. The body was conveyed to the church at Waterside. A. Co., where the services were conducted by Rev. F. D. Davidson. She was 16 years of age and had been operated upon for appendicitis about four weeks ago. Her desth was quite unexpected. Interment at the emetry. Waterside.
Miss Lucy Hunter is visiting friends at Hogewell Cape.
Ma at Riverside. All Higher And Albert, last evening. It was addressed by the candidates, Messrs. Gross and Rommell, Albert, last evening. It was addressed by the candidates, Messrs. Gross and Michael Kelley, the blind temperance order.

agreed to make a sale of it: "We will not agree to this transaction unless you hand over to some of our political friends a portion of the land." We had no right under Heaven to do that, because the lease had been complied with in every particular. Mr. Mott was making this demand in the interests of a client of his. He withdrew his support and issued a card to the electors of Restiguuche and said: "On this Muskoka Deal the peo-ple will rise in their might and condemn the government." He said: "The whole people of the North Shore will rise against this." He was soon in the field nst this." He was soon in the field against this." He was soon in the field with Mr. Culligan as his colleague. But that gentleman, a/man of superior intelligence and large business interests. has retired and I have just received a telegram from the Hon. Mr. LaBillois, chief commissioner of public works, which says that Mr. Mott was nominated alone. (Cheers) (Cheers).

Now, gentlemen, ought it not to have great weight with you that up in the county of Restigouche, where Mr. Shives is well known, where he has built a mill capable of cutting 25,000,000 feet a year,

(Cheen):
 New, genilance. ought is not to have a grant weight with you full to be a fact weight with you full to be a fact that M. Mot could get a grant weight with you full to grant and grant all generation of the power and the days all generation. The power and the days all generation of the powe administration. I do not say Mr. Sproul would make such a good worker as talker. But, friends, what I wonder at and I may say this much very fairly because Mr. Sproul has gone out of his way to make an un-just attack upon me-when I listen to this man speaking to you with his great aloquance, and when I atmember when he stood here 28 or 30 years ago, at the time be raa against my late partner. Mr. Crawford, speaking with the same elo-quence, I wonder what is the matter with Mr. Sproul that he stands, so far as ad-vancement is concerned, just where he did then? It is not his want of ability as a tälker, certainly.

a talker, certainly. Now, gentlemen, I have not said a harsh word with regard to any of our oppon-ents; they may call me a public plunderer

Every Expenditure Sanctioned by the Opposition. My friend, Mr. Scovil, referred to the frot that every item of the expenditure is gone over by the committee of public is gone over by the committee of public accounts. Every item of proposed expendi-ture is submitted to a vote of the legisla-ture, and while these gentlemen talk of the large expenditure, I say to you today, and I say it without fear of contridiction, that if you turn over the pages of the journal from beginning to end, you will not find a single case in which Mr. Hazen, the leader of the opposition, has voted against any item of expenditure proposed by the government; not one. Now, when Mr. Scovil was speaking of the unanimous report of the committee of public accounts being to the effect that the government had given all possible in-formation to the committee and express-ing no dissatisfaction with the expendiutbred. He says your localities are pet localities; they are favored localities; we have done for you what we would not do for other parts of the county. Gentle nen, I deny it; the bonus for creamerie Dr. Pugsley Stands for the People.

and cheese factories is open to every sec-tion of the province and of the county; and it does not speak well either for the Gentlemen, the question is not what I knowledge, or desire of Mr. Sproul to do Now, gentlemen, I have not said a harsh word with regard to any of our oppon-ents; they may call me a public plunderer as much as they tike. I have enjoyed too long the confidence of the people of this county. (Cry of "you're going back again.") Nes, there is no doubt we are going back again. I can afford to ignore the attacks of these men who have been unsuccessful, Montreal, Feb. 23-(Special)-Next year will mark the 75th anniversary of the commencement of lectures at McGill University. To mark the occasion the graduates have undertaken to erect a $100,-000 memorial building on the college grounds.

Moison's Bank Capital Stock Increase. Montreal, Feb. 23-(Special)-The share-nolders of Molson's Bank at the annual meeting today gave the directors author-ity to increase the capital stock from $2,500,000 to $5,000,000.

What is CASTORI

Castoria is for Infants and Children. Castoria is a il, Paregoric, Drops harmless substitute for Castor and Soothing Syrups. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' up by Millions of Mothers. Castoria distroys Worms and allays Fererish-ness. Castoria cures Diarrhea and Vind Colic. Castoria relieves Teething Troubles, and constipation and Flatulency. Castoria assimilates the Food regulates the Stomach and Bowels of Infants and Chil ren, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is e Children's Panacea-The Mother's Frien

Castoria. astoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for " Castoria so well adapted to children and it as superior to any pre-Mothers have repeatedly told me that I rec of its good effect upon their children. scription rn to me ARCHER, M. D. Brooklyn, N. Y

TT MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CIT

daughter of the late James Boone. Her husband and two children survive. George Jordan, farmer, of Queensbury, died Saturday, aged 80 years. Besides a widow he leaves three daughters and three sons. These are Mrs. Mark Short, of Jerusalem, Queens county; Mrs. A. McElroy and Mrs. Moses Moores, of Woodstock; Samuel, Hiram and Alfred Jordan, all at Queensbury. One brotber, William Jordan, and one sister, Mrs. Joseph Burden, reside at Lower Queens-bury, and one sister, Mrs. Dickie, at Woodstock.

CHATHAM.

Chatham, Feb. 21-The Chatham parish Sunday school convention was held in St. John's church on Tuesday. There were two very profitable sessions, after devotional exer-elses, led by the pastor of the church, Rev. J. M. McLean, there were two very interest-ing conferences, one on "Some of the needs of the Sunday school and how these can best be met;" the other on "Sunday school extension, and how this can best be accom-plished." After devotional exercises in the evening, the following officers were appoint-ed: A. F. Bentley, president; W. S. Loggie, vice-president; S. McLoon, scoretary-treas-urer; and Miss Annie Londoun and Miss SUBSEX. Sussex, N. B., Feb. 23-The 27th anniver-sary of the organization of the Free Baptist church was well attended. The addresses given by Rev. Mr. Daggett, Rev. Mr. Currie and Rev. Mr. Gough were good and force-fully delivered. The singing was much en-joyed. Rev. Mr. Nobles gave a sketch of the church's history, which showed grand success. For the past 10 years Mr. Nobles has been pástor, and during that time more than 100 have been added to the membership. An expenditure of $,000 for buildings and improvements has been made, an averinge of 500 yearly, and in the meantime the church has each year increased its support to its own local work. The church is now free rom debt. Mrs. James Hallett and her daughter, Miss wy. Stockton and Mrs. Joseph Lamb secured the first prizes, and the booby prize was captured by Mrs. T. C. Hrown.

SUSSEX.

GAGETOWN.

Gagetown, Feb. 20.—The death of Miss Ellen DeVeber, aged 77 years, occurred at the resi-dence of John Hope on Wednesday even-ing at 10 o'clock. The end was unexpected, elthough she had been suffering with pneu-monia the last few days. Deceased was the daughter of the late Henry DeVeber and sis-ter of Isaac DeVeber, formerly of this town. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. John Law and Henry DeVeber, niece and nephew of the deceased, in their sore bereavement. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of John Hope, Main street. H. P. Hall, who has been a resident of Gagetown for the last 12 years, will leave in a few weeks for the Northwest. His family will follow in the fall. Mrs. Bulyee, who met with a sed accident on. New Year's day, is slowly improving.

WHITE HEAD.

White Head, Grand Manan, Feb. 18—The smallpor scare occasioned by the arrival of Messrs. Robinson and Cossaboom from Chip-man, is over. They were released from quar-antine some days ago. The easterly gale that raged yesterday did considerable damage to lobster traps. Lobsters still bring a good price, as the re-sult of lively competition among the buyers. Mrs. Thos. Denton left here last week to take up her residence at Weymouth (N. S.) where Mr. Denton is engaged in the canning business.

business. At last reports from Chipman, Owen Frankland and Percy Johnston had escaped smallpox. Much anxiety is felt for them, es a number of cases have broken out in their boarding house. Mrs. W. B. Trecartin left last week for a short visit to Norton. Mr. Trecartin is en-gaged in bridge building in that vicinity.

TRURO.

Truro, Feb. 20.-The mercury keeps away down and the weather is almost as cold as tinues good, although the cold is too in-tense to allow much pleasure driving to be done. It was 16 below zero last night. Protessor Robertson, representing Sir Wil-liam McDonald, rave a most thereesting ad-dress to the students at the Normal School and the town teachers in the assembly hall of the Normal School hulding on Monday alterneor reast the Normal School and the town teachers in the platform and

The Amherst girls have gone to Sydney to play a girl team there. They are chap-eroned by Mrs. (Dr.) Morse.

HALIFAX.

<section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text>

DIGBY. Digby, Feb. 23-(Special)-Henry Titus, red 91, Digby's oldest citizen, died this morning. He was born at Rossway. Digby county. He leaves one brother, imothy Titus, of Digby, and one sis-ter, Mrs. Louise Burns, of Halifax. De-eased was. in his early days, a farmer at Rossway; later a merchant at Clements-port, and for 20 years one of Digby's leading business men. He retired from business some years ago. Mrs. Titus died many years ago. They had no family. family.

Brigantine James Daley is drifting with the ice in St. Mary's Bay, and is in a dangerous position tonight.

