

EXHIBIT No. 4.

I do not like war and if you do not retreat and refuse an interview, the question remaining the same the prisoners,

EXHIBIT No. 5.

St. Antony, March 21st., 1885.

To Major Crozier,

Commandant of the police force at Carlton and Battleford.

Major.—The councillors of the provisional government of the Saskatchewan have the honor to communicate to you the following conditions of surrender; you will be required to give up completely the situation which the Canadian Government have placed you in, at Carlton and Battleford, together with all government properties.

In case of acceptance you and your men will be set free on your parole of honor to keep the peace. And those who will chose to leave the country will be furnished with teams and provisions to reach Qu'Appelle.

—In case of non-acceptance, we intend to attack you when to morrow the Lord's day is over; and to commence without delay a war of extermination upon all those who have shown themselves hostile to our rights.

Messrs Charles and Maxime Lépine are the gentlemen with whom you will have to treat.

Major, we respect you. Let the cause of humanity be a consolation to you for the reverses which the governmental misconduct has brought upon you.

Exovede.

St. Antony, March 21st., 1885.

To Messrs Charles Nolin and Maxime Lépine

Gentlemen.—If Major Crozier accedes to the conditions of surrender, let him use the following formula and no other; "Because I love my neighbour as myself for the sake of God, and to prevent bloodshed and principally the war of extermination which threatens the country, I agree to the above conditions of surrender."

If the Major writes this formula and signs it, inform him we will receive him and his men, monday.

Yours, LOUIS DAVID RIEL,
Exovede.
