

BILL.

An Act to render certain effects liable to seizure under Execution, against goods and chattels in Upper Canada.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the Reign of Her Majesty, intituled, "An Act to amend and consolidate the several Acts now in force regulating the Practice of Division Courts in Upper Canada, and to extend the jurisdiction thereof." money, bank notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or securities for money, may be taken and seized on execution against goods and chattels: And whereas it is desirable to extend the same privileges to other Courts of Law in Upper Canada: Be it therefore enacted, &c.

Preamble.
13 & 14 Vict.
c. 53.

That upon any execution, issued out of any County Court, or Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, or Common Pleas in Upper Canada, against goods and chattels, the officer executing the same may seize and take in execution, money, bank notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or securities for money belonging to any person against whom any execution shall have issued as aforesaid.

Money and securities may be taken in execution.

II. And be it enacted, That the person seizing the effects mentioned in this Act, (not being money or bank bills,) and not actually obtaining possession of the same, shall give the defendant, or leave at his usual place of abode, a notice in the following form:

Notice to be given.

"In the (name the County).
