a corporation
sole, &c.

57. The Warden shall be a corporation sole known by the name of the "Warden of the Penitentiary," (designating the place as named in this Act, or named in any proclamation establishing it as a penitentiary), and by that name he and his successors shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be surd, may plead and be pleaded unto in any of Her Majesty's Courts.

Contracts,
&c., to be in his name.

58. All dealings and transactions on account of any penitentiary, and all contracts for goods, wares, or merchandise necessary for maintaining and carrying on the institution, or for the sale of goods prepared or manufactured in or by the institution, shall be entered into and carried out in the corporate name of the Warden; and all personal property belonging to the same shall be held in the corporate name of the Warden for behoof of Her Majesty.

Real property
how vested
and managed.

59. The real property of every penitentiary, as well as all the other property thereto belonging shall remain vested in Her Majesty, but the Warden and his successors in office shall have the custody and care thereof under the provisions of this Act; and all such property, real and personal, shall be exempt from all taxes.

Construction
and repairs of buildings to be Public Works.

60. From the time this Act takes effect the construction and repairs of buildings and other works in the penitentiaries shall take place under the control of the Department of Public Works.
