half the night—of course such people as Farmer do not see this. And as for his auto, why most any farmer can afford one nowadays, only those that do poor farming can't. Why do we not see that healthy looking class of people in the city that we have in the country? Will leave the answer to you. Now if any of your readers care to write me I will try to answer all letters. Bouncing Billy.

Prosperity v. Poverty

Duff, Sask., Dec. 16, 1912.

Dear Editor: I have been a constant reader of The Western Home Monthly for six years, and always look forward to its coming with the eagerness of a child, and being of the same opinion as S. X. Lad that dancing, smoking, and card playing were getting to be rather of a bore, and that we should look around for new topics to discuss, and seeing that the letters were mostly from young people I thought the topic suggested by him quite a timely one to discuss. "Shall marriage wait for prosperity, or shall love laugh at poverty." Now for myself, and perhaps I might say any other liberal minded young person, I would say they should weigh these two questions well in their mind before they take the important step in life. Are they doing all in their power to make each other happy before taking these vows, and tying the knot with the tongue which cannot be undone with the teeth. I think it is selfish of a fellow to win the love and esteem of a girl, and then ask her to try and be contented in a little lumber shack about fourteen by sixteen feet, and into the same place she must combine parlor, dining-room and kitchen, and try and make herself think that she is really happy and contented. Would it not be just as well if the struggling sweetheart were to wait another year or two until he got a little better fixed? I fancy I hear some of the boys cry out, "What and let another one win her." Now I do not profess to be full of wisdom, but don't you think, boys, that you would be far better without the young lady who is so easily won over. I earnestly believe if you find the right one that she would be quite willing to wait a little longer while you made a happy little home. For myself, I wish to make my wife a companion and not a daily drudge as some of them appear to be. In my travels up and down the country I have seen so many young women who have undertaken to brave the hardships of the first year or two on the farm with their husbands, only to find that when they are quite comfortable they have got out of the social circle and are contented to stay at home hard working as ever, with their freshness and pretty ways all gone, and such a sight should, I think, make us all careful. Now, pardon me, I do not wish to be misunderstood, I do not mean all for I know young men today who thank their wives for braving the hardships of this country. But this is the point boys. Is the game worth the candle? I myself am content to wait until I can give my future wife a little comfort and some of the worldly goods, for I am a great believer in that old saying, "When poverty comes in at the door love flies out of the window." I will sign myself, The Crank.

Canada all the Time

Grand Forks, B. C., Dec. 13, 1912.

Dear Mr. Editor: Here is another girl wanting to join your Correspondence column. This is my first month of your paper, and I like it very much. I am Scotch and have been in this country about two years. I think Canada is a marvellous country. It does not require a particularly vivid imagination nor a long residence for anyone to find that out. Look at her large mountains, vast forests, magnificent lakes, miles and miles of wheat fields, her illimitable sources of wealth and industry. She has her traditions and is proud of her sons. Under her flag all nationalities live and work peacefully side by side. Surely a lesson to those scare-mongers who are eternally trying to

MOTHERHOOD SUGGESTIONS

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

$3.50 Recipe FREE For Weak Men.

Send Name and Address Today— You Can Have it Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together. I think I owe it to my fellow men to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest acting restorative, up-building, SPCT-TOUCHING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4215 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain, ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $3.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this but I send it entirely free.
