general rejoicing that the course of the Allies has won. Could not a letter be written quoting from one of Sir Welby's speeches, explaining his stand?

Do not let him resign in any case. We must still ask him to try & save the situation, even at the cost of greater sacrifices.
And the fear of disintegration will soon make themselves felt, he will at once all have healing power yours always

Dear Mr. Mackenzie King

So Canada does not know the day of her visitation!

The result — the way that that result
is misunderstood here,
fills us with grief.
