THE RIGHT HONOURABLE MACKENZIE KING, PRIME MINISTER OF CANADA,
HOUSE OF COMMONS,
OTTAWA.

PERSONAL

Dear Mr. King:

I should have written to you before,
but I have been engaged in the Cobourg Assizes, and have been unusually busy.

Arthur King is getting along very well. He was to our house a week ago Sunday, and last week he was over to the Huycke's. He has been suffering somewhat from a slight touch of influenza, and was not as busy as he would like to be. However, he says his health generally is good, and he is enjoying his work.

Last night he had a little bridge party and invited a number of his friends to the Kawartha Club, so I think he is enjoying himself, and is quite contented and happy.

With kind regards, I remain,

YOURS FAITHFULLY,

G. N. Gordon
