

Sixth Witness for Prosecution

Martino Bernardus Banderij O't Santstraat 150 Nijmegen Holland sworn states:

On 14 Feb 45 I had soldiers bulletted with me but I do not remember whether there was one or two. One was Sgt Hector Paulouly. ^{Sgt 1930} ^{has the bill rang, my son opened the door. started for the}
~~was~~ a soldier entered the house and ~~went~~ to the Sgt's room, I was in the living room, when the soldier was part way up the stairs my son asked him where he was going, the soldier answered, to the Sgt room, the soldier said the Sgt had sent him and I allowed the soldier to proceed, my son also went up stairs, my son came downstairs and asked for a pencil and paper and when I was going them to him I heard the sound of a ~~bullet~~ ^{shot} ~~of something~~ striking a bottle, my son Martin ^{started} ~~went~~ up stairs again, and met the soldier coming down, I heard a conversation between my son and the soldier, I was sitting in the living room and approx 15 min later I heard someone trying to open the front door, this is possible by a chain on the latch, my son ^{left the living room} ~~opened~~ the door, and the same soldier was there and asked for a pencil and paper I recognized the soldier by his voice at this time, my son came into the living room and again asked for pencil and paper, I went to the hall door to see what was going on, I saw the soldier writing.
