

branch lines from the Intercolonial would bear us to Richibucto, Buctouche, Shediac, and southward to Albert County, to the beautiful villages of Hopewell Hill, Riverside and Albert, within sound of Fundy's roaring tides.

Turning to the west from Moncton, soon the fertile valley of the Kennebecasis opens to the view. Past well-tilled farms, the homes of Loyalist ancestor