

En tout et partout,
In all things.

Après tout.
After all, upon the whole.

Plus d'une fois,
Many a time.

Tout ce que nous avons,
All that we have.

Nous voici,
Here we are.

Les voici qui viennent.
Here they come.

Les voilà qui partent.
There they are starting.

Cet homme a raison,
This man is right.

Cet homme a tort,
This man is wrong.

CHAPTER VI

ADVERBS

An adverb should be placed near the word it modifies. Generally, it follows the verb in its simple tenses, and is placed between the auxiliary and the verb in compound tenses.

Ex. : Ils ont bien parlé,
They have well spoken.
He works slowly,
Il travaille lentement.
