"We pass the path that each man trod
In life, or will be dim with words,
What lies in life for human souls
In endless age? It runs with God."

ADDRESS OF REV. FRANCIS L. BURMAN

It is a very pleasant duty and privilege to present... lations and those of Victoria to the University... this auspicious occasion. I have not, like the... had the advantage of personal association... with the great men whose lives are to my... from my early boyhood their names have... they have been in every generation. In fact... have almost an epitome of Canadian... century. Some of these men occupied a large... of the first half of the century; some... its central years and the influence of some... almost to its last days.

Here too we have the representatives of... fields of University learning. Few men of... country were better fitted to represent the... scientific research than the late Prof. Croft... of Divinity is represented by the... of Toronto.
