Go Out. Montreal, April 16.—At a mass mee ing of carpenters of this city, which yesterday, 1,405 voted at morning against accepting the offer of twenty cents an hour made by the masters. Four hundred and five of them refused to vote and 30 were in favor of accepting the The vote practically means abut the matter will have to be first referred to the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. The decision will affect about 2,000 men. The carpenters demand 22 1-2 men. The carpenters demand 22 1-cents an hour. It means a tie-up of many important business blocks i course of erection, such as the ne-Board of Trade building.

ANOTHER NEW STEAMER. C.P.R. Purchases the Elder-Dempster Co.'s Monmouth.

Montreal, April 16. - Sir Thoma Shaughnessy has announced that the C.P.R. had purchased another steamer, the Monmouth, from the Elder-Dempster Line, making fifteen in all. The Monmouth was built at Middleboro'-on-Tyne in 1900. She is Middleboro'-on-Tyne in 1900. She is 375 feet long, has a 48-foot beam, and 25-foot hold, and a gross tonnage of 4,078 tons, or 2,569 tons net. She is quite well known here and is considered among the first of her class. Sir Thomas denied the rumor that the C. P. R. would engage in the steamship business between Canada and South Africa. The purchase of the Elder-Dempster steamers, he said, did steamship business between Canada and South Africa. The purchase of the Elder-Dempster steamers, he said, did not affect the South African contracts of that company, because the steamers transferred to the C.P.R. did not include the ones engaged in trade with that country.

A BRUTAL MURDER. German Ensign Will Now be Court-

Martialed. Berlin, April 16.-A court-martial has been ordered to try Ensign Hussner of the German navy, who on Good Friday killed Artilleryman Hartmann at Essen. Hartmann was a former schoolmate of Hussner, and the latter avers that the artilleryman attempted gross familiarity in trying to shake hands, after he, Hussner, had arrested Hartmann for the informality of his salute. Then, Hussner adds, Hartmann started to run, and the ensign thrust him through the back with his sword, afterwards saying: "When I draw my sword blood must flow." Hussner has written to Hartmann's mother, saying it was hard that his "duty as a Prussian officer" required him to act as he did. In Hussner's notebook were the names of several privates who had been reported by the ensign for not saluting him as respectfully as he desired. tempted gross familiarity in trying to

PEOPLING THE EMPIRE.

A Colony Within a Colony—British Farm-ing Men for Canada—The Land

an interesting project is about to carried into execution at the in-unce of the Canadian Government, to thousand English farmers and nominion within the next few weeks to settle in the District of Saskatoon, in the Northwest Territory. They are to pay their own passages, and the Canadian Government does the rest, Each family is to receive a free grant of 160 acres, and not only are they to be granted special familities, but they are guaranteed protection by the Government, who will secure them from the approach. ment of any other nationality. The effect will be an English colony, within a colony, upon whose preserves no foreigner will be permitted to settle save by special arrange-of a periodical exodus of this racter. The Old Country has the men and women to spare; our terri-tories beyond the seas are badly needing them. In Canada is a ter-ritory three and three-quarter million square miles in area, rich in minerals, with soil of extraordinary richness, with mighty lakes and riv-ers abounding in fish. Writers with an eye to the picturesque have made a point of depicting this fair land as the home of snow and frost. As a fact there is no finer climate. And yet with all its advantages there are to-day fewer than five and a half million people. Of these 3,190,000 are British born or of British descent: 2,130,000 European other than English, with two millions of that number of French extraction; and 99,000 blacks, etc.

A Government's Matrimonial Agency. Australia, with its 2,970,906 quare miles, is 26 times the size of Great Britain and Ireland, yet it has a population of 3,818,728. Of these there are 200,000 blacks, Asiatics, etc., and the remainder British extraction. New Zealand with its 104,471 square miles, has but 830,758 people. The United Kingdom, with its pattry 121,115 square miles, has 41,456,953 people crowded together, for the main part in the towns.

Englishmen to go out to this part of the Empire. Sir Horace Tozer, Agent-General for Queensland, has conducted the biggest matrimonial agency on earth in order to get agency on earth in order to get young women out to this state to settle down and marry. He has sent out thousands of young women who have found good homes and hus-bands there. It cost Queensland three million pounds to do three million pounds to do it, but she is getting her reward in a num-erous, settled and prosperous popu-

Australia's "No Admission." But many and vexatious restric-tions are imposed, making difficult the task of peopling our colonies. The objection raised by the trades unions to the entry of additional craftsmen is most unfair. Only the other day we had what promises to pecome an historic instance of six hatters detained at the coast, un-able to enter Australia until the courts had decided that their labor was of such a skilled character as to be obviously beneficial to the state. The colonies want healthy men and women, and for this party and that to deliberately place obstacles in the way of immigration, which the whole policy of the Empire is to encourage, is preposterous and inexcus

To what lengths prejudice and vexatious opposition may be carried is shown by the fact that when Prince Ranjitsinhji, the famous Cambridge and Sussex cricketer, visited Austra-lia with the English cricket team, a special act had to be passed to en-able him to be admitted. All whom he met during his tour impressed upon the Frince of Wales the dire need of the colonies for more fiesh and blood from the Old Country, and blood from the Old Country, and the Prince handed on his message to the nation at home. Let the rest of the colonies prove themselves as ready to help and to receive as Canada is, in the case already cited, and the men and women will not be lacking.—London Black and White.

A Curio in the Wood.

Mr. Fred O. Loft, accountant at the Toronto Asylum, and formerly of the Six Nations, called at Premier Ross' office recently with some curi-Ross' office recently with some curi-os made from the wood of the first lilac tree planted in America. The lilac was planted in 1762 by Sir William Johnston, the founder of Johnston, N. Y. During last sum-mer a resident of Johnston present-ed Mr. W. L. Lott of the Six Na-tions with a piece of the tree, and a portion of this his brother offered to the Government to be made into a portion of this his brother offered to the Government to be made into a gavel or something of the kind for use in the Legislature. In sawing the wood, Mr. Loft happened on a cross-section, the outlines of which bore a resemblance to the features of the former owner, Sir William Johnston, and by some artificial touching up a most striking likeness of the old baronet has been obtained.

Mr. Loft is an Indian, and his native name is Onandaga. When presented to the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, it was as Onandaga he persisted in being known, saying he would be presented as such, or not at all.

The home is just exactly what you will make it. You cannot neglect it and pass unquestioned through the pearly gates. You must answer for your stewardship and for the souls you give to the earth, says a writer in American Homes. Your children should live to call you thrice blessed. Happy indeed are those who grow old with a knowledge of having done the best in their homes they could possibly do for each other's happiness. Home Is What You Make It.
