

THE WAY—THE PLACE—THE PEOPLE

ing the inquisitive that Sunshine-Shadder, the home of their birth, snuggled inland some thirty miles from Kinglyville, where once each year the roots, fruits and vegetables of the hillside were taken for worthy exhibition.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
'This is my own, my native land.'"