

OTTAWA.

Sculptural Competition of Designs
Two Monuments.

1. Competitive designs are invited for two monuments, one to the memory of the late Honorable George Brown and the other to the memory of the late Honorable Thomas D'Arcy McGee.

2. Each monument is not, when completed and in position, to cost more than ten thousand dollars, including pedestal from the level of the ground.

3. The competition is open only to artists resident in Canada, and artists of Canadian birth residing

4. The site will be at a point in the Government property at Ottawa, to be hereafter decided.

5. Designs shall be in the form of sketch-models, in plaster, made at a uniform scale of one and one-half inches to the foot. A description of the design shall accompany each model. No name, motto or other distinctive device is to be attached to the models or description. The competitor shall send his name in a sealed envelope without distinctive mark thereon.

6. The author of the best designs will be awarded the commission of the work, the second best $500.00 and the third best $300.00.

7. The models and all communications regarding the matter shall be addressed to

Advisory Art Council,
Care of Department of Public Works, Ottawa, Canada.

The designs must be delivered before the 1st day of February, 1910. They will be kept from elsewhere.

In view until the award has been made. All expenses of delivering the sketch-models and accompanying descriptions shall be paid by the competitors. Sketch-models will, after the award, at the expense of the department, be returned upon the request of the competitors, but at the risk of the competitors.

Notice of the award will be sent to each competitor.

The award will only be binding provided the successful competitor is prepared to furnish satisfactory evidence, with security if demanded, that he can execute the work for the sum mentioned above.

Synopsis of Canadian North-
West.
HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

ANY even-numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or sister of an intending homesteader.

DUTIES — (1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. He may also do so by living with father or mother, on certain conditions. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself, must notify the agent for the district of such intention.
