ADDRESS REV. R. DOUGLAS FRASER,
CONFEDERATION LIFE BUILDING, TORONTO

"His Name Shall Be in Their Foreheads"

"How will God write it, papa?" asked little Eve.

"Write what?" asked her father, looking up from his reading.

"See what it says," said she, resting the book on his knee, and pointing. Then she read out: "'And His name shall be in their foreheads.' It's out of the Bible," added she; "and I know it means God, because of that big 'H.' How will He write it, papa?"

Her father put down his book and took her on his knee, saying:

"Some things write themselves. When you look at grandfather's silver hair," said he, "what do you see written there? That he is an old, old gentleman, don't you? Who wrote it there?"

"It wrote itself," said Eve.

Father nodded. "Right," said he. "Now, when I look in your mouth, what do I see written there? I see this little girl is not a baby now, for she has all her teeth, and can eat crusts. That has been writing itself ever since the first tooth that you cut, when your mother had to carry you about all night because it pained you so."

Eve laughed. "What a funny sort of writing," said she.

"When little girls get cross and disobedient," her father went on, "where does it write itself? Look in the glass next time you are naughty."

"I know," said little Eve; "in their faces, doesn't it?"

"And if they are good?" said papa.

"In their faces, too. Is that what the text means?"

"That is what it means," said father. "Because if we go on being naughty all our lives, it writes itself upon our faces so that nothing can rub it out. But if we let God make us good, through trusting in His dear Son Jesus Christ, our Saviour, the angels will read upon our foreheads that we are God's; and so His name shall be on our foreheads."
