ings. It has been said that owing to the present war

it is everyone's duty to exercise as much care as possible to cut down the present fire waste in the cities of Canada, and save the dollars, which would be wasted. It is even more urgent that care should be taken have closed their home on Lake St. Francis and are by those who go out shooting this autumn, as each year a large number of men are killed or seriously wounded, and with the present waste of life owing to should add to this toll seems unpardonable.

One who has had many years' experience in hunting in Canada, has given a few hints in how such accidents could be prevented which at his request are published below:

1. Never have your gun loaded except when you think you will require to, it takes very little time to insert a cartridge, and though it may be argued that fewer deer would be killed if this rule were followed, of the Guarantee Company of North America to relate it is also certain that fewer men would be killed. . . . place the late Mr. W. Wainwright.

bottom of a boat, as some one is liable to kick it, and discharge the contents, which in the case of a shotgun is sure to injure one or all of those in the boat. Already there have been several accidents of this kind

Mr. Clive Dobell and family will return to the early part of next month from their summer the early part of next month from their summer the party separates, about where each member has gone, as this would prevent hundreds of accidents 3. MAKING C.P.R. GOOD DELIVERY.

New York, September 28.—The London office of the Canadian Pacific Railway has issued a notice to the effect that holders of Canadian Pacific shares in alien enemies names, which have been exhibited at the company's office, can have their shares sent by the company's steamers to America to have them trans to new names.

The new proclamation as to trading with the enemy prohibits transactions in securities with an alien enemy and in the event of a re-opening of the Stock Exchange before the close of the war shares enemies names might not be regarded as good delivery.

LESS RESTRICTIONS ON TRADING.

Philadelphia, September 28.—Orders for bonds are in the market a little below quotations of July 30th. Considerable business was done on Saturday. The committee authorized sales from 1 to 2 points off and it is believed there will be less restriction on trading in the near future.

(Exclusive Leased Wire to The Journal of Commerce.) igo, September 28.—Arthur Hawkhurst, insur nce manager of Marshall Field and Company, reviews the foreign insurance situation as follows:-Are the foreign fire insurance companies financially good. This question has been asked me numberless times, within the last two months. My reply has invariably been "Yes, absolutely so, as far as any indemnity is concerned." Those foreign companies that are members of the Chicago Board of Under-McCullous street on the Chicago Board of the Chicago Board of Under-McCullous street on the Chicago Board of Under-McCu writers are in my judgment absolutely as sound now, as far as their American policyholders are concerned as they were previous to the war and no one questioned their soundness before that began. All that the policyholders in the United States have really a right to the funds that each company has deposited without State Insurance Departments, trusdeposited without State Insurance Departments, trustees and their representatives in this country—notwithstanding the fact that a high loss paying power lies behind these funds. This has been demonstrate. lies behind these funds. This has been demonstrated by the great conflagrations that we have known of, ed by the great conflagrations that we have known of, notably the one in San Francisco, when the home office of these same foreign companies sent to the United States over $500,000,000 to pay losses with so that their funds already in American hands (and solution) and the present time amount to about $150,000. 000) would not be called upon or distributed. This i face of the failure of some of our own supposedly large and safe con mpanies which agnominously gave up the ghost, paying their policyholders only a one-half the amounts due them.
So I say, if England, France and Germany are bat-
