BY E. A. W.

At the edge of the woods, by a cabin brown, A little girl stands in the ram. Wondering eyes from a tattered shawl Peering out at the train—
The wonderful, wonderful train.

What looks, little girl, from your questioning eyes?

Is it gladness or pain,
That you are not of the great strange world,
Rushing by in the train? Yet, stay, little girl! By your cabin brown, Sweet and pure falls the rain On the heads of the daisy and violet low, But it blackens and smirches the train, The wonderful wonderful train.

Stay! For, sometime, if you wish it or no, A little girl never again, You must be a part of the great, strange world, And rush away in the train— The wonderful, wonderful train.

DUBLIN.

On a keeper named Flood entering the cage of a red deer in the Dublin Zoologi-cal Gardens on November 2d, the animal fiercely attacked him, and inflicting such injuries on him that on being taken out of the cage and conveyed to Stephen's Hospital he was found to be dead.

At the meeting of the Land League in Dublin on November 4th Mr. Farnell thanked the Freeman's Journal for suggesting a defence fund, but advised that no gentlemar on the Dublin jury list should subscribe, as that might be made an objection to them. He understood the Government would endeavor to keep the case from coming before a lury until Jancase from coming before a lury until January, so as to prevent their attending to their duties in Parliament, but he would give them no excuse by any delay in the preliminaries. He d scussed at length the law of conspiracy, contending that the Government was guilty of gross inconsistency, in smuch as they passed an Act to prevent law of conspiracy from being applied to combinations of workmen, while they now endeavored to enforce a law they admitted to be unjust against the combination of tenant farmers and those who advised them. A committee was aphabalance of £6. This he refused to do,

On Nov. 3d, as Mr. Charles S. Dudgeon, J.P., was returning on foot to Longford from a farm near Condra, he was fired at from a ditch by a man who quickly made off. Mr. Dudgeon was accompanied by his bailiff's son, and had a revolver, of which, however, he made no use. He was not wounded, but his face was blackened by powder.

Tobin was dispossessed was but slightly in excess of the rent which Tobin undertook to pay in 1848 and did pay until it was reduced by the late agent on the estate, whom the solicitor for the respondent represented as having sacrificed the respondent's interests in doings so. The Land Judge held that Tobin was jus-tified in declining to pay the increased rent in the absence of some compensation, such as being secured in the farm at that rent, and he allowed Tobin the maximum compensation prescribed by the Act of Parliament in cases of disturbance.

KERRY.

On Nov. 4th, about 11 o'clock, numbers of men were observed assembling in the vicinity of Ballymacelligott, in the county of Kerry. They were armed with revolvers, rifles, spades and pitchforks, and appeared to be under the command of a appeared to be under the command of a leader. They were put through military evolutions, and they afterwards visited several tenants in the locality, obliging them, under threats of violence, to promise that they would not pay more than Griffith's valuation. In every case the party, who numbered over one hundred the party of the party.

the district who went into Limerick, on Nov. 3d, to pay their rents, offered the Government valuation, and this being refused left without paying anything.

An eviction took place on November 5th near New Pallas, in this county, the holding being on portion of the Erasmus Smith property. The tenant evicted was Smith property. The tenant evicted was a respectable farmer. Lately his cattle were attacked with distemper, and the loss occasioned by this circumstance rendered him unable to pay his rent. An armed force of fifty police were present. The eviction was witnessed by a large number of people, but no disturbance took place.

CLARE.

Carrigabolt as well as Cooraclare and Kilmurry, will soon have its branch of the Land League. The Carrigaholt men are bent on a big organization. The movement set on foot by the Clare

Land League with regard to paying no higher rents than Griffith's valuation, is assuming serious proportions. Three hundred tenants on Lord Beaconfield's Clare property went to Limerick on Nov. 5th and tendered to the agent, Mr. J. W. Scott, rents equal to Griffith's valuation. Mr. Scott declined to accept the amount to the state of the serious contraction. stating that he had no authority to do so, and the tenants expressing their determination not to pay a farthing over the Gov-ernment valuation, went off with their money in their pockets.

Mrs. Matilda Strong, an English lady, has and is giving such a reduction in rent as was never known in Ireland, though her lands are let at reason ble rents. Any tenant who owes a vear's rent she forgives half a year's rent, or gives a year's rent for a half year's cash. Her generous and kind agent, Leonard S. MaManus, Esq., is giving the tenants time to pay, up to Christmas.

WESTMEATH. A few weeks since a land meeting was held at Kilbrennan, Westmeath to protest against the eviction of Hugh Garr, who alleged he was charged rent for more acreage than his farm contained, and was moreover charged too much. Resolutions were adopted protesting against the landlord's conduct, and a pledge was asked that no one would take the land. Every effort to get a bidder failed, and eventually Garr's terms, a reduction of 9s per fored Looby £100 and permission to sellan abatement of 10 per cent. Those who ally Garr's terms, a reduction of 9s per acre, were accepted.

Several tenants tendered their rents on November 1st to Mr. C. P. Coote, of Bearforest, near Mallow. Being of opinion Galway, for the purpose of establishing a forest, near Mallow. Being of opinion that their present rents are excessive, they offered to give him the amount of Griffith's valuation, which offer the landlord declined to accept, the consequence being that the tenants went home without paying a single fraction of rent.

The meeting was, in point of numbers, the largest that has yet been held in the county Galway. A large procession of ladies attended, and the Portumna and Killeenadeena brass bands were present. At two o'clock the chair A popular meeting was held at Clenville, Fermoy, on Octobert 31st, it being solely organized by an evicted tenant named Joseph Sheehy, who has lately got a situation as a draper's assistant in Cork. a situation as a draper's assistant in Cork.

A Government reporter and several constables were present taking notes. About 500 persons assembled on the bounds of the farm from which he alleged he was evicted for the non-payment of one year's rent, which was exorbitant, as he said he was paying 12s. 6d. per acre for a sterile tract not worth more than 3s. Sheehy was the only man whe addressed the meeting, with the exception of a sheemaker. The following resolution was adopted:—"That we hold no communication with any man who takes a farm from which a farmer has been evicted through rack rent." The place from which Sheehy was last March evicted is still untenanted. Sheely was last March evicted is still untenanted.

One of the evictions on the Kenmare estate, near Bantry, to which altusion was made at the land meeting lately held in that town, was before the Land Court at Skibbereen on November 2d, on a claim brought by the evicted tenant, Tobin, for distributions of the state of the face of our fellow-countrymen all were the civilized world, and is a burning stigma of reproach to our British rulers. Rev. R. H. CRAIG, Princeton, N. J. says: Last summer when I was in Can-ada, I cought a bad cold in my throat. It became so bad that often in the middle of my sermon my throat and tongue would become so dry I could hardly speak. My tongue was covered with a white parched crust, and my throat was much inflamed crust, and my throat was much inflamed. An old lady of my congregation advised me to use the Shoshonees Remedy, which she was using. The first dose relieved me, and in a few days my throat was nearly well. I discontinued the use of it, but my throat not being entirely well became worse again. I procured another supply, and am happy to say that my throat isen-tirely well, and the white crust has entirely disappeared. I wish that every minister who suffers from sore throat would try the Great Shoshonees Remedy.

PECTORFAL. in the foundation of all pulmonary diseases, affording prompt relief and rapid cures, and is adapted to patients of any age or either sex. Being very palarable, the youngest children take it readily. In ordinary Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Inducenza, Ciergyanan's Sore Throat, Asthma, Croup, and Catarin, the effects of Ayen's Chemey Preportal are magical, and multitudes are annually preserved from serious illness by its timely and faithful use. It should be kept at hand in every household for the protection it affords in sudden attacks. In Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other remedy so efficacions, soothing, and helpful.

Low prices are inducements to try some of the many mixtures, or syrups, made of cheap and ineffective ingredients, now ofcred, which, as they contain no strative on dines, can afford only temporary relief, and are sure to deceive and disapoint the parient. Diseases of the throat and lungs demand active and effective treatment; and it is dangerous experimenting with unknown and cheap medicines, from the great liability that these diseases may, while so trifled with, become deeply seated or incurable. Use AYEA'S CHEMINY PECTORAL, and you may confidently expect the best results. It is a standard medical preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is as scheap as its careful preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is as scheap as its careful preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is as cheap as its careful preparation, of known and proceed the composition, prescribe it in their practice.
