Dr. Rossvally, converted Jew, attracted very large congregations to hear his discourses in the M.E.Church on Sunday last. The lectures of Jewish Rights and Ceremonies, delivered by him on Monday and Tuesday ovening, also drew together very good audiences. The Dr's. conversion from Judaeism and the subsequent persecutions it brought upon him, as told by himself, elicited much sympathy from his hearers. His lectures on the rights and ceremonies of the Jews were highly interesting. Before and after each of the lectures the Dr. and his daughter cutertained his audience by singing a number of sacred melodies in the Hebrew, German and English languages.

Missionary services held in Christ Church on Sunday last were well attended. Special missionary sermons were preached morning and evening by Rev. W. F. Campbell, missionary agent of the Diocese, the discourses being highly instructive.

Mr. Campbell made a very able appeal in behalf of the Missionary Diocese of Algoma, and also of the Church in the Northwest. The Rev. gentleman impressed upon his hearers in earnest and eloquent words the claims which these immense domestic mission fields had upon the Church in the older settled parts of Canada. Liberal collections were taken up at the close of each service.

Dr. Rossvally will also be present, and will sing in the Hebrew language.

First Alarm.—Quite a little excitement was caused on Wednesday through an alarm of fire being sounded and a dense mass of black smoke being observed rising from the rear of one of the principal blocks in town. A large kettle of tar, which was being metted for pitching the roof of Mr. J. A. Hacking's drug store, was the cause of the disturbance. The tar having accidentally caught fire, the burning stuff spread over the ground for some distance, sending up a great cloud of smoke. It was extinguished, however, without any other consequence than the loss of about a barrel of tar.
