nts' Cathedral, by the Rev na, fourth daughter of aking Tips" will assist you . MALONE, 93 Pembroke St. E YOUR MONEY-This can ore safely and quickly by ederation Life Bldg., Toronto.

te for family price list. 28-11-1v.

ERIFF'S SALE

ill be sold at Public Auction esday, the 29th day of De-A. D. 1909, at 12 o'clock noon f Saint John, all the estate and interest of John F. and parcel of land situate lysaint John aforesaid and des follows, fronting forty (40) e south west side of Coburg extending back therefron wardly preserving the same hty-five (85) feet and known ap or plan of the city City on office of the Common Clerk mber twenty-five (25.) ne having been levied on and of the Saint John County ainst the said John F. Mor-OBERT R. RITCHIE, of the City and County of 22-10-2mos.

AS FAR AS IT COULD

ntirely indifferent to public the attitude of the American pany may be taken as a criletter-book of the company introduced today at the he company for violation of onopoly law. In one letter, Shoonmaker expressed himwspapers are beginning to and there have been several interviews but have denied ied way. I send you a newspping showing Jerome's atti-etter says:

cution in the case rested topt for some odds and ends of to be submitted later. Me the deferise will be argued preparatory to the opening de of the case, wedding took place this at 9 o'clock, at the residence David Hutchinson, 41 Douglas when Amos H. McKim, of Queens County, was united ge to Miss Leona M. Thome, s' Cove, King's County. The was performed by Mr. Hutthe presence of a few nd relatives of the contractles. The young couple were d. At the conclusion of the

SHOULD PERMIT BUDGET TO PASS HE

HAS A BIRTHDAY "Give Country 6 Months of Its Intolerable Impositions'

Rosebery Declares This Sixty-one Years of Age Today—and Still Would be a Winning Policy

> Peers Now Risking Very Existence of the House of Lords

> Warns Lords in One of Finest Speeches He Ever Delivered

Lord Salisbury resumed the debate with a speech supporting Lord Lans-Nov. 24, 1848. At the early age of 16 bishop of Canterbury had said that the bishops would stand aside from Deserted Wife Lands on Her years Mr. Fielding began newspaper work and passed through the various the discussion as the occasion was one of strict party character. Lord Rose came managing editor of the "Mornbery followed in a long speech, giving ing Chronicle" of Halifax. At the pro-vincial general election of 1882 Mr. the Lords plain warning of the danger of the path they were treading. He Fielding was elected member for Halifax county. In 1884 he became premier party and speak from my sense of the Finance in the Laurier cabinst and was elected to the House for Shelawful gravity of the situation. This is the greatest political moment in the lifetime of any man born since 1832." Lord Rosebery admitted that by the had practical control of the House of Commons, it was not possible that the Commons should send up a budget which the House of Lords should go to OF CONSUMPTION that the only possible circumstance justifying the Lords in exercising such Barclay Sound. The distance in all will be about 600 miles and the road is to

To Man Who Makes Discovery - Yale months experience of its intolerable weman known as his wife. NEW HAVEN, Conn. Nov. 25. - A prize of $100,000 is awaiting the person Yale University is the custodian of peal to the country on an unreformed ment should supplement the federal this prize and the physicians attached The projected lines subsidized by the Dominion Government are the KootenCentral from Elcho to Golden; this prize and the physicians attached to the Yale medical school are to act as trustees. The doner of the Prize wishes to remain unknown. He is an aluminus of Yale and is supposed second chamber mixed up with such other issues as would be raised. an aluminus of Yale and is supposed to be a New York man. He places menaces now used are used by men few restrictions on his gift and it is open to any scientist or physician the world over. His principal reason for Their efforts are revolutionary in essence, if not in fact." at without some form of referendum. but with actual benefit to both. taxation without representation, it again."

Lord Rosebery contended that the resolution comes to a vote. budget taxed the Lords freely and The prolongation of the debate in abundantly without their having a the House of Lords into next week is Wife Injured and House Was Wrecked word to say or a vote in the matter. due to the fact that there is no ma-After referring to the budget as havgust Lesowski, a homesteader, put two sticks of dynamite in the stove to thaw for use in digging a well. His wife saw smoke coming from the over and opened the door. The dynamite terday. Tons of rock fell from the river exploded and pieces of steel struck bank burying the scenic railway Mrs. Lesowski and nearly blinded her-She was taken to Lethbridge hospital to before the debris could be cleared and will probably recover. The house glowing eloquence pro

OPPOSITIO

MET ON STREET CAR-MAN WHO LEFT HER

Missing Spouse

"I am quite dissociated from any He Had Skipped From England-Now Under Arrest in Toronto-Ten Years for Manslaugh'er.

TORONTO, Nov. 25-A chance encounter on a street car between Charles E. King and the wife he had left in the length of rejecting. He considered England five or six years ago, led to the arrest of King yesterday afternoon on a charge of non-support. Aca dormant power would be the direct cording to the police King deserted his authority and condonation of the na- wife and three daughters and came tion itself. Such a circumstrace to Canada. His wife, although having might arise if a budget were presented no knowledge of the whereabouts of which lowered the defences of the her husband, came to this country and country to a point which the nation secured a position as a companion to considered dangerous. He doubted a Toronto society woman. About a whether they were choosing the best week ago while they were on a street battlefield. They were playing for too car, the wife was astonished to see heavy a stake and were risking the King seated at the other end of the very existence of the House of Lords. car. His wife reported the matter to A winning policy, continued the the morality department. Yesterday speaker, would be to allow the budget King was taken into custody. King, bills to pass and give the country six it is alleged, has been living with a impositions, loss of capital and em- PORT ARTHUR, Ont., Nov. 25—A ployment. They would then achieve sentence of ten years has been imposwhen they next approached the polls, ed on Peter Helieski, who pleaded a victory that would surprise themselves. He looked with considerable the assizes here when he admitted apprehension to the result on an ap- having kiled his son-in-law in a fight at Fort William. "I do not speak of menaces," he what bewildered. There was an imadded. "The House of Lords has lived mediate exodus of peers to discuss the mediate exodus of peers to discuss the situation in the lobbies, and although on menaces ever since I can remember and it is still thriving. But the debate continued until midnight the remainder of the speeches took bent on having a single chamber. rather the form of an anti-climax. Lord Milner spoke of the abnormal Dealing with the question of the reform of the House of Lords, which all the proposed new taxes were bad mannar the budget was driving cap-Lord Rosebery has long advocated, he and unnecessary. All the money re-expressed the conviction that no final quired, he contended, might have been adjustment of the differences between | quired, he contended, might have been the two houses could ever be arrived out injury to business and employment He denounced the budget in the strongest terms and said that one maxim burned into them by bitter experience was that there should be no will have. It is known already that a considerable section of the Unionis "Disregard for that maxim," said he, peers have held grave doubts as to the "lost us the United States of America, expedience of Lord Lansdowne's course and we are not likey to offical against and there is almost certain to be a large number of abstentions when the ing spread over the country like a fog chamber to a close, all the peers who want of confidence and want of credit, express a desire to speak having a full the worst diseases which could affect right to do so. commercial nations, he uttered a sol- it was announced tonight that the emn warning that the pressure of House of Commons will adjourn tomorgreat armaments was eating out the row until December 1, when Mr. Asheart and hurrying Europe towards quith, the Prime Minister, will make SACKAI Expressing regret that he could not policy of the government in view of as information received here goes

Result of By-elections in Nova Scotia Yesterday

Hon. A. K. McLean Wins Sweeping Victory in Lunenburg

Liberal Victory in Cumberland--Hants Goes Opposition

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 24-in one of the greatest political victories ever won in Nova Scotia, Hon. A. K. Mac-Lean, Attorney General, was elected by 505 majority over J. W. Margeson, Conservative, in the bye-election Lunenburg Co. today. The opposition made a dead set on MacLean, but he was triumphantly returned as a supporter of the Murray government, who had left in such good spirits to his majority being one of the largest ever got in the county. J. H. Living-stone, Lib, in Cumberland, also won a catch the train for home three weeks ago, and Mr. Read, senior, is now inandsome victory in a three cornered fight, defeating T. S. Rogers, Con., by over 300 majority. A. Landry, labor candidate, lost his deposit. Albert Parsons, Con., was elected by 7 majority over W. M. Christie in Hants Co., holding this seat held by in Nominingue Saturday and said he he late C. S. Wilcox, leader of the

In Victoria County, A. A. Buchanan, Lib., was elected by acclamation, thus leaving the standing of the parties in the House as before, although the personnel of the government side has been strengthened while the Opposition are without their leader.

THOUGHT THEY HAD READ IN MONTREAL

But Clues Led to Easiern Townships SUSSEX PACKING CO'S Farmer on a Good Time—Search is Continued.

MONTREAL, Nov. 25.—The mystery of the disappearance of Herbert Read looks as if it would remain a mystery. This morning the police thought they had a clue as a number of people identified a photo which was shown hem as that of a man who was staying at the Russell House having a good time. When the man was run down it was found that he was an Laure Townships laimer souding the earnings from the sale of his crops. There has not been found the slightest trace of Read since he disan important statement explaining the SACKVILLE, N. B., Nov. 25 .- So far Expressing regret that he could not support the resolution, Lord Rosebery resumed his seat, having spoken for anticipated. Nothing has been learned as to what the Minister's decision at glowing eloquence produced a tremendadus effect, leaving his hearers some call a party meeting.

COMING OF DEATH DESCRIBED

HOPE OF SEEING SON ALIVE

Mr. Read About to Return

FIVE DAYS SEARCH

Many Clues Followed Up, but All Prove to Be False Ones

(Special to The Sun.) MONTREAL, Nov. 24 .- Five days of endless worry and search leave the same complete mystery around the disappearance of Robert Read which preailed last Friday, when H. C. Read Stonehaven, N. B., first arrived in

HERBERT READ

It has now been established that the Mr. Read seen by Customs Officer Colter near Fredericton, on the C. P. R. train which left here November 12, was not the missing Herbert Read, but a son of Frank Read of Sackville, a different family altogether. Early this forenoon C. P. R. officials hought they had discovered a significant clue when a result of the records showed that a Mr. Read had enraged a berth for November 12 and ater returned 10 cancel it. The subsequent discovery that it was the Mr. Read of the Sackville family, however, lisposed of this as a clue. Another fruitless clue was disposed f today when the father of the missing young man returned from Nominngue to Montreal, after discovering that a man who was said to answer young Read's description was not his son but a young French-Canadian engineer at Nominingue. There the worried father is left without the slightest clue of the whereabouts of his son.

clined to return home to Stonehaven tomorrow practically abandoning the hope of seeing his son alive again The clue which took his father to Nominingue on a fruitless search was furnished by a man who had been saw a young man answering Read's description in every way. When shown a photograph of the missing youth, the man said he had not the slightest doubt that it was the same man he had seen there. So Mr. Read, senior, left last night believing that he would find his son at last. But it transpired that the young man was an engineer engaged by the Perley Company, and who had been working around Nomin-

SMOKE HOUSE BURNED

Early Discovery of the Fire Frevented a Much More Serious 1633.

SUSSEX, Nov. 25 .- The smoke house the contract to erect the bridge. Last f the Sussex Packing Co.was destroyed by fire about ten o'clock last night. who worked all winter, then work was The Sussex fire brigade was on hand suspended. A few weeks ago Mr. Me-The Sussex fire brigade was on hand at short notice and in a very short time the flames that threatened to destroy the main building were quickly brought under subjection. Had the fire not been noticed before 4t gained much headway it is quite probable that a mass of blackened ruins would today mark the site, as the fire plugs are a suspended. A few weeks aro Mr. Mcdarde accompanied a second crew of men from that city, and it was hoped that the work would be completed in January next.

Mr. McArdle was trying to place a sleeper in position with a nevy, when the lost his balance, and in his descentance with the strength of the work would be completed in January next. mark the site, as the fire plugs are a the bridge pier and falling on his head long distance from the factory and not and one shoulder on a lile of boards more than one line of hose could be and shingles on the ground. stretched. The fire last night was con-trolled by the packing company's was Tuesday, and had daysloped menea-

"Our Lives are Going," Wrote Samuel D. Howard, Victor of St. Paul Disaster-

NO 48

found in the clothing of Samuel D. Howard, 21 years old, whose body was found in a pocket of the mine yesterday. The diary was begun on Nov. 13, the day the fire started, and covers a period of two days, describing the struggle for life until black damp ended the weird tale. It is written with a pencil on loose leaves of an account ook. The diary follows:

"Alive at 10.30 o'clock yet. By Sam D. Howard. Brother Alfred is with me yet. A good many dead mules and men. Tried to save some, but came almost losing myself. If I am dead. give my diamond ring to Mamie Robinson. The ring is coming at the post office. Henry can have the ring I have in my good clothes.

"The only thing I regret is that m brother could help my mother out after I am gone. I tried my best to get him out, but could not. I saw Jim Davidson and Steve Timke lying along the road and could not stand it any

SAW MEN AND MULES LYING ABOUT.

'It is five minutes past 11 o'clock and the air is fine, but sometimes it light out. It is something fierce to see men and mules lying down all over like that. To keep from thinking I thought I would write these few lines. "There is rock falling all over. We have our buckets full of water, pump water, and we drink it and bathe our heads with it. "Ten to 12 o'clock, 7 after 1 o'clock, o'clock, 3 o'clock, and poor air black damp.

"4.15 o'clock, change of place. Num er of men tried to get out and could not get back. 7.50 o'clock, tired, hungry and sleepy, but could stand quite a bit of this if I could get out of this

"7.50 o'clock in the morning. This is Sunday. There is no air. We fanned ourselves with the lids of our buckets. 9.25, and black damp coming "25 after 10. We gave up all hope. We have done all we could. The fan had better start above soon. We are still alive. The only hope is the fan. I think I won't have strength to write

MAKE FANS TO GET AIR.

"15 after 12 p. m. Sunday. If they an't give us air we will make fans ourselves. We take our turn at the fan. We have three of them going. "27 to 3 p. m., and the black damp is coming in on us. Only for the fans we would be dead. "11 to 4 p. m. Dying for the want of

We have six fans moving. One fan after a other 15 feet apart. 25 after 10 p. m., Sunday evening. We all had to come back. We can't move, front or backwards. We can stand it without fans until Monday morning. Am still alive. We are cold. nungry, weak, sick and everything else. Alfred Howard is still alive. 9.15 a. m., Monday morning. Still reathing. Something better turn up or we will soon be gone. 11.15 a. m. Still alive at this time. 16 to 1 p. m., Monday. The lives are going out. I think this is our last. We are getting weak. Alfred Howard as black damp late Monday afternoon

The men evidently were all killed by

FALL FROM BRIDGE

(Woodstock Dispatch.) What may prove to be a fatal accident occurred Sunday morning in connection with necessary work on the C. P. R. new bridge at Upper Wood-

Albert McArdle, one of a crew o men, while at work, fell from a girder head foremost to the ground below, a distance of 35 feet, fracturing his skull, puncturing his kindeys, and sustaining other injuries. He was taken immediately to the hospital.

Mr. McArdle is a native of Hamilton Unt., and is 28 years of age. He has a wife and are chief in that city. The Hamilton Bridge Company has

VOL. 33.

and Canadian Northern the Main Issue—Not Expected

TORONTO, Nov. 25 -A World spec-al from Victoria, B. c., says: "In the provincial elections tomorrow the business element will plump for the gov ernment and the Liberal candidates will profit by the increased labor sentiment and socialist activity. The stand-

PREMIER MeBRIDE

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 24- The most interesting and exciting political cam-bia closed today. Temorrow the electors of the province will vote approval disapproval of the deal made with sion of its line to the Pacific Coast.

erals are running for four seats. There are forty-two candidates to be elected

The McBride railway policy is the chief issue. Premier McBride has outlined his policy in the following statement: "We have entered into a contract with the Canadian Northern

River; from Kamloops to Westminster and Vancouver, and from a point near Vancouver to English Bluffs to make a first-class connection with Victoria, both for passengers and freight, and to build a railway from Victoria to be completed and in operation within four years. To assist the company in the construction of this road, which the Government will ask the legislature to guarantee interest at four per the province will hold a first mortgage on the line of railway in British Columbia, and will have a covenant from the Canadian Northern Railway Com-that migh possibly occur."

pany indemnifying it against any loss

John Oliver, the Coposition leader, proposes a plan which would insure the construction of nearly 1,000 miles of new railways in the province. He proposes that the provincial govern-

Midway and Vernon, from Carmen to Nicola via Penticton; Vancouver W.

and Y., from Vancouver to Fort

George, with a bridge across Burrard

Inlet, French Creek to Campbell River,

Vancouver Island and Eastern Camp-hell River towards Fore George. In a general way Mr. Oliver proposes to "cash in" on the extensive system of nearly 1,000 miles of railway through-

Under Mass of Ear h-Dynamile Used.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Nov. 25. -

One of the worst land slides in many months tied up the gorge railway yes-tracks. Dynamiting had to be resorted sway. No one was injured, out British Columbia.

SERIOUS LAND SLIDE

aid, would insure the construction of awaits him too.

AT NIAGARA FALLS

cent, upon $35,000 a mile. For security ill cost at least about 350,000 a mile,

Railway for the construction of a road from the Yellowhead Pass to Kainloops by way of the North Thompson subsidies already guaranteed by the the lives of so many persons every Dominion Government, subsidies year. Not only will fame be the por-which, if supplemented by provincial tion of the discoverer but a fortune ikameen. In a good many pected be materially changed."

of a Change

Between McBride HON, W. S. FIELDING

ing Congratulations

OTTAWA, Nov. 25-Hon. W. S Fielding, Canada's Finance Minister, is today receiving felicitations of friends on reaching his sixty-first hirthday anniversary. Foremost among those to wish him many more years of active life was his chief, Sir Wil-frid Laurier, who was himself the re-

Hon Mr. Fielding is of English descent and was born at Halifax, N. S., W. S. FIELDING

stages of journalistic work till he be-

Fielding was appointed Minister of University the Gustodian-Few

Restrictions Imposed.

who discovers a cure of tuberculosis giving the prize is to encourage the medical profession all over the world to seek a cure, be it an antitoxine, serum

When Explosion Occurred.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Nov. 25.-Au-

OVEN TO THAW OUT

or drug for the disease which takes

PUT DYNAMITE IN

was wrecked.

lipient of similar congratulations few days ago.

ALWAYS

BIRTHS. -On November 11th, to the ckwood, Charles A. Burrel'

MISCELLANEOUS. OU UNEMPLOYED?

than any other method. A ommercial boom is coming.

HOLESALE LIQUORS

the Canadian Northern Railway Company by Premier McBride for the ex-Members of the legislature are to be elected in all except two ridings, Kaslo WILLIAMS, Successor to Wholesale and Retail Spirit Merchant, 110 and William St. Established seats ther are three-cornered contests Cwing to the presence of Socialist can didates. In Vancouver, where five members are elcted, there are three full tickets. In Victoria only three Lib-

Saint John in the City and in and to all that certain being in Kings Ward in the this fourteenth day of Octo-

UST WENT JUST

YORK, Nov. 17.—Corporations

ring to the advance of prices, re not gone as far as we out it is not safe to go any