The birth of a litter of lion cubs recently occurred at the Scottish Zoological Park, Edinburgh. The father of the cubs is "Brutus," the finest of the east-bred lion presented to the Zoological Society two years ago, and their mother also forest-bred and a later gift from the same donor. The cubs, of course, are not on view at present, but if all goes well with them visitors to the park will be able to see them, when they are six weeks old. So far a glimpse of one of the cubs has been obtained, and it appears to be a lively little animal. It is not known how many cubs are in the litter. The usual number is two to three. The record is believed to be

CONCERT HELD AT SYDENHAM CHURCH

Patriotic Affair Held Under Auspices of the Sunday School.

The patriotic concert given in Sydenham St. church last evening under the auspices of the Sunday school was quite successful. There was a good attendance and an excellent programme was presented. Rev. Mr. Smythe acted as chairman.

The programme was as follows: selection, Echo Place orchestra; chairman's address, solo, "My Canada" Miss Alma Batty; patriotic duet, the Misses Williams; selection orchestra; reading, Master Gaudette; duet, the Misses Williams; piano duet, Misses Alma Batty and Florence Gowman; vocal duet, Misses Marjorie Hammond and Ariel Savage; orchestra; vocal solo, Mrs. Savage; flag drill, introducing, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall," twelve girls; reading, Pie H. Easterbrook; duet, Misses A. and H. Huffman; selection, orchestra; address, Sheriff Westbrook.

Every number was heartily received and scores were quite frequent. The little Misses Williams as usual made a hit with their numbers, and the other two little ladies, Ariel Savage and Marjorie Hammond also scored a success. The Echo Place orchestra of ten pieces came in for many congratulatory remarks on the part of the audience. In fact each and every performer merited the hearty applause accorded them. The flag drill by twelve girls was splendidly executed.

The accompanists were Miss Doris Arnold, Miss Whitney, Miss Gowman and Mrs. Savage.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the performers and the National anthem brought to a conclusion a most delightful programme.

MRS. HAMILTON GAVE ADDRESS ON THE WAR

Eloquent Speech Yesterday in Victoria Hall Much Appreciated.

The Brantford Women's Emergency Corps had the pleasure yesterday afternoon of listening to an address by Mrs. L. A. Hamilton of Toronto, on the most interesting branch of the work of women in aiding the Empire's cause, in a meeting at Victoria Hall. Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, a well-known and a real inspiration to the women, an appreciation for the work done and an arousing of the interest in those who have not yet come. Many useful and practical hints were given of the various ways in which women may aid, both during and after the war. The necessity of economizing of time in the duties of the household so as to give greater opportunity of assisting in the strenuous work of these stirring times, was emphasized.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

Potash and Perlmutter. The above play is very much out of the ordinary. It depicts the marvellous creation of Shylock depicted the Jew as the embodiment of revenge and of avarice over-reaching himself. Potash and Perlmutter are two Jews, keen in their business relationships, but both with an underlying touch of humanity which is very appealing. In fact they go so far in the Hill that they even actual ruin for their firm and themselves, in their effort to save a Russian refugee who has no other claim on them than that he has been a trustee clerk in their employ. The pair criticize each other continually, but stand shoulder to shoulder in most loyal fashion on real issues, and each under the strictly business exterior possesses the milk of human kindness in large measure. The lines are full of witty quips, such as for instance as when Potash, reading a bill of expenses from one of their travellers comes across the item of $22 for sleeping car accommodation and makes the remark, "and we took him on as a vide avske man."

Shamrocks to the Soldiers
