IN LUCK.

First Manager—Then you had a satisfactory season?
Second Manager—Very! Two of our most antagonistic critics died.

Not a Pro-German.

Leonard W. Ripton, who was interned for a year in Fort Henry as a suspected German spy, has been killed in action on April 7th. He was released by proving he was an American citizen, and went overseas with a Watertown New York Artillery force. He declared on leaving Kingston that he would some day prove he was not pro-German. His father lives at Johnstown, N.Y.

A Parliament of Mayors.

Rev. Salem P. Bland, of Winnipeg, is assisting in editing a Calgary newspaper. He was the author of the suggestion that the war-time management of Canada's affairs be entrusted to a Parliament to be composed of the mayors of all towns and cities in the Dominion of more than 10,000 population.

Good Growers.

My radishes are doing well
And make a fine display.
I'll soon have early peas to sell
And some to give away.

You almost see the lettuce grow,
And other garden truck.
My vegetables all seem to know
They're helping Jack Canuck.

Parker to Retire.

Sir Gilbert Parker, the novelist, will retire from the British Parliament at the next election. He has represented Gravesend, Kent, since 1900 as a Conservative. Sir Gilbert was born in Canada in 1862, a son of the late Capt. J. Parker, and was educated at Trinity College, Toronto.

CONSERVATION CALENDAR.

Monday—we'll say is our "Heatless day."
One cinder, one flicker, one coal.
Tuesday—well—this is our "Meatless Day."
One oyster, one herring, one sole.
Wednesday—oh, this is our "Wheatless Day."
One corn cake, one dodger, one scone.
Thursday—we must have a "Sweetless Day."
One pickle, one lemon, one bone.
Friday—will make a good "Eatless Day."
One cheerful and glorious fast.
Saturday—call it a "Treatless Day."
For all reciprocities past.
But Sunday—may Thompson forgive us, we pray.
If we should all happen to feel
A little more hungry than usual to-day,
And once again eat a square meal.

CANADIAN KHAKI COLLEGE.

Men Show Themselves Eager for Course of Study.

The Khaki College for Canadian soldiers in England and France though decidedly unique receives little publicity.

The physical, spiritual and recreational side of a soldier's life had always received much attention, but many of them had felt the need of mental action and so this college was built and it supplies that need.

Quoting from an article by John L. Love, in the Christian Guardian: "A close observer of Canadian camp life in England has attributed to the vanguardic campaigns organized by the Y.M.C.A., much of the success and vitality of the khaki university. And if this be correct, it is not the first time that renaissance of learning has followed a revival of religion.

"The men have seized upon their studies with extraordinary avidity. Examination results have been most astounding and have demonstrated that men with physically fit bodies can house marvellously alert brains. Students in the Khaki College have covered in six weeks three months' university work. Five men completed in three months, what in the ordinary run of events would have been an eighteen months' course in wireless telegraphy. They sat for the British Admiralty examination and every one of them passed. This record is typical of the new Canadian Army University.

Canada's sons in France and Flanders have placed the beloved homeland on the map. They intend to keep it there. In the Khaki University they recognize a means, more potent even than the sword, whereby they can achieve their aim. When the men come home they will be more than conquerors."
