DOWN FROM DUNCAN

IN DISPUTE Former Store Manager on Mayo Arrives Yestdrday

> J. C. Shaw, formerly in charge o the store of the Stewart River Transportation & Trading Company at a point near the Duncan' creek diggings on the Mayo river, arrived in the city last night and is a guest at the Regina. He brings no news from Duncan other than that already published, but confirms the statement that it is destined to prove a onder as a gold producer.

Mr. Shaw came down from Stewart on the Yukon river and declares the trip one of the hardest he has ever taken in the country. At several places he was forced to wade in the ice cold water flowing over the ice on the river when it came up al-Geo. De Lion accompanied by Deputy most to his waist. It is not known whether Mr. Shaw intends returning to Duncan or not.
