What is Going on in Baseball and Other Athletic Games.

In the 2.25 pace and 2.21 trot in London, Texas, owned by Lewis Wigle, of Lexington, got fourth place, coming in fifth, second, third and fourth in the respective heats.

IT WAS A GOOD GAME.

Chatham went down to defeat again in baseball yesterday, but has nothing to be ashamed of in the exhibition given. The Reds played with snap and ginger and only the hard hitting of the Hamiltons earned them the victory. Manager Black has evidently got renewed life in the players and patrons can look for an early and immediate rally. Sanders and Klock were both back in the game and both made their presence felt on the scoring board. Grimshaw and O'Connell did magnificent batting, the former especially starring with three two-baggers and a single. It was a game that the patrons enjoyed.
