REMOVED THE LOCK

Alderman Edmondson has been investigating the difficulty in connection with the placing of a lock upon the gate across Elizabeth St., north of the second concession road leading to the city dumping ground for cans, paper, and other refuse of an offensive character. Some persons have been depositing offensive matter (such as decayed fish and meats, etc.) on these grounds, much to the annoyance of people living in the locality and one of the parties owning property immediately adjoining and living upon it had taken the law into his own hands and put a lock upon the gate. Ald. Edmondson went out yesterday and inspected the locality and made arrangements to have the lock removed and states that some of the merchants have been abusing the privilege granted them by the city of dumping cans and paper upon this property by taking out and depositing on these grounds decaying and offensive matter for which a separate and special dumping ground is provided by the city, and the difficulty has been brought about in this way, and says that if there are any new grounds of complaint some one will be prosecuted to the limit of the law.

Girl Victim of a Trolley.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—At noon hour yesterday Beryl Edna Gordon, aged 8, living at 1604 West King street, was killed by a Belt Line car opposite the Princess Theatre. Her mother works during the day and the girl stays with her aunt. She had gone to buy a loaf of bread, and in crossing the street waited for an eastbound car to pass and stepped in front of a westbound. She went beneath the fender and was instantly killed, her body being almost cut in two.

Fell Under Binder.

MacGregor, Man., Aug. 24.—The only son of E. W. Green of Rose Hill, was instantly killed Monday. He was holding a team of horses which was hitched to a binder when the horse broke and the horses ran away. The wheel of the binder passed over the boy's chest and head.

THAT THY DAYS MAY BE LONG.

Attend to the following rules and maxims: Rise early, retire early, and fill your day with work and well-chosen recreation. Pure air and sunshine are indispensable to health. Frugality and sobriety form the best elixir of longevity. Cleanliness prevents rust. The best care for man's health is the longest. Enough sleep repairs waste and strengthens. Too much sleep softens and enfeebles. To be sensibly dressed is to give freedom to one's movements and enough warmth to be protected from sudden changes of temperature. A clean and cheerful house makes a happy home. The mind is refreshed and invigorated by distractions and amusement, but abuse of them leads to dissipation and dissipation to vice, says "Home Chat." Cheerfulness makes love of life, and love of life is half of health. On the contrary, sadness and discouragement hasten old age. Do you gain your living by your intellect? Then do not allow your arms and legs to grow stiff. Do you earn your bread by your pick-axe? Do not forget to cultivate your mind, and to enlarge your thoughts.—Exchange.

The susceptible swain who falls dead in love will eventually come to life again.

GOOD SOCIAL

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church at Merlin held a very successful social last evening upon the lawn of Mr. J. Powell.

It was to have been a peach social, but peaches are so scarce that the ladies were unable to secure any for the tables. They were not missed, however, the tables being loaded with other tempting things; and besides, anyone who looked at the assembly of pretty girls didn't care if there were no other peaches.

Dr. Bell proved such a success at the table that he was selected chairman and performed his duties there with equal ability. A good program of music was presented, which helped to hold the gathering to hear the speeches of Dr. Hall, H. S. Clements and S. B. Arnold, of Chatham. George Stephens sent his regrets.

PRETTY WEDDING

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. David Watson, Prince St., to-day at noon, when their eldest daughter, Miss Bernice, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Clarence Merritt, son of Geo. B. Merritt.

It was a very quiet home wedding and the happy young couple left right after the ceremony, on their honeymoon trip. Miss Viva Watson, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Graham Smith supported the groom. The popular young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, including a gift to the bride from the employees of the Northway store.

Both of the young people are very popular and they have a very large circle of friends. Mr. Merritt is a prosperous and clever young druggist. They will reside in the Maple City.
