SANAGAN-DALTON

Miss Alice M. Dalton, formerly of this city, was married on the 27th ult. at London to Mr. Claude R. Sanagan. The wedding was quietly solemnized at the manse of St. Mary's church, the rectory, Rev. Father McKeon, officiating. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. James Hand, and was attended by Miss Loretta McLaughlin. Mr. and Mrs. Sanagan went to Buffalo for a few days, returning to London and leaving then for the west. Mr. Sanagan resigning the city editorship of the London Free Press to become editorial writer on the Telegram of Winnipeg, where they are now residing at 172 Kennedy street. Both bride and groom had resided for the past few years in London, where they had many friends. Speaking of the marriage, the London Echo said:

"The marriage took place at St. Mary's manse last Sunday afternoon, of Miss Alice M. Dalton and Mr. Claude R. Sanagan, of this city. Mr. Sanagan is a well known and popular newspaper man. He was first on the staff of the Advertiser, later edited the Echo, and since last June has most successfully filled the position of city editor of the Free Press. He has just received a splendid appointment as associate editor of the Winnipeg Telegram, and will leave with Mrs. Sanagan for the west next Sunday. They will be followed to their new home by the good wishes of a host of friends in London."

SULLIVAN--COATSWORTH

A very pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Coatsworth, Delaware avenue, last evening, when their second eldest daughter, Miss Verna Louise Coatsworth, was united in marriage to Mr. Duncan Sullivan, also of this city. Rev. F. E. Malott officiated.

The Coatsworth home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, p. e. with flowers, in a pink and white color scheme. The happy event took place in the parlor, the bride entering leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Ida Simpson.

The bride was attired in white chantilly lace over taffeta, and she carried white roses. Miss Emily Coatsworth, the bridesmaid, wore a costume of white silk organde, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, and carried pink roses. Little Miss Clara Shepherd acted as flower girl. Mr. Parnell Welsh assisted the groom.

The many beautiful gifts received testified to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their many friends.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold bracelet set with pearls, to the bridesmaid a gold bracelet, to the flower girl a pearl ring, to Miss Ida Simpson a pearl ring, and to the best man a gold stick pin.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the bride party and the guests sat down to a tasty wedding dinner in the dining room. The bride and groom left on the 11.19 Wabash for St. Thomas, Buffalo and Toronto. On their return they will be at home to their friends at their residence on the corner of Head and Hillyard streets.

Are You A Chilly Subject

BILEANS WILL BENEFIT YOU.

Do you shiver when the slightest breeze blows? Are your feet always cold? Do you find your hands clammy? Do you catch cold if you sit or even a few minutes in a draught?

If so, you have liver-chill, and need Bileans to put your liver and blood, and through your whole system, into condition again. Liver-chill often brings on very serious symptoms. Mrs. Kelly, of Garbally, says: "I had liver-chill and became very sick. I had violent headaches, indigestion, nausea, and was subject to sickness and frequent vomiting. The doctor attended me for three months."

"I was much affected with giddiness, and often fainted away. At times I have fainted nearly a dozen times a day."

"One night my daughter Mary read about Bileans, and of a woman who had been cured of ailments similar to mine, so I decided to take a course of this remedy. The result is I am now healthy and strong, and able to do all the housework as well as ever. I never have fainting fits, my appetite has returned, and I eat my food with keen enjoyment. In fact, I am quite cured of all my ailments."

Bileans are also a sure cure for indigestion, debility, liver and kidney ailments, constipation, piles, female ailments, headaches, loss of ambition, blood impurities, etc. All druggists sell at 50c a box, or post paid from the Bilean Co., Toronto, six boxes for $2.50.

One of the best ways to judge a man's character is to find out the kind of fun he likes best.
