My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as eyer.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt. I suffered for a year with inflamma-tion in my left eye. Three ulcers forme-on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilia, and, By Taking Providentially there was a good stout basket in the house. Paul's friends fasten a rope to the baskets. Paul steps into it. The basket is lifted to the edge of the balcony on the wall, and then while Paul holds on to the rope with both hands his triends lower away, carefully and cautiously, slowly but surely, further down and further down until the basket strikes the assit and the apostle steps out and afoot, and alone starts on that famous missionary tour, the story of which has stonished earth and heaven.

That example of heroic and triumphant endurance at Philippi, in the Mediterranean Euroclydon, under flagellation and at his beheading would not have kindled the courage of ten thousand martyrdoms. But that rope holding that basket, how much depended on it! So, again and again great results have hung on what seemed slender circumstances.

Did ever ship of many thousand tons crossing the sea have such important passenger as had once a boat of leaves from taffrail to stern only three to four feet, the vessel made water-proof by a coat of bitumen, and floating on the Nile with the infant lawgiver of the Jows on board? What if some crocodile should crunch it? What if some of the cattle wading in for a drink should sink it? Vessels of war sometimes carry 40 guns looking through the port-holes, ready to open battle. But that thy craft on the Nile seems to be armed with all the guns of thunder that bombarded Sinai at the law-giving. On how fragle craft saied how much of historical importance:

An English ship stopped at Pitcairn Island, and right in the midst of surrounding cannibalism and squalor, the passengers discovered a Christian colony of churches and schools and beautiful homes and highest style of religion and civillastion. For fifty years no mission ary and no Christian influence had land ed there. Why this casis of light amind a desert of heathendom? Sixty years beed there. Why this casis of light amid a desert of heathendom? Sixty years before a ship had met disaster, and one of the sailors, tinable to save anything else, went to his trunk and took out a bible which his mother had placed there and swam ashore, the Bible held in his teeth. The book was read on all sides, until the rough and vicious population were evangelized, and a church was started and an gelized, and a church was started and an Observe first on what a slender tenure great results hang. The ropemaker who twisted that cord fastened to that lowering basket never knew how much would depend upon the strength of it. How if it had been broken and the Apostlos it had been dashed out? What would have become of the Christian church? All that magnificent missionary work in Pamphilia, Cappadocis, Galatia, Macedonia, would never have been accomplished.
