THE FOX STABLE NOW AT LEWISTON

Veteran New England Reinsman Making Earliest Start for Down East.

Frank P. Fox, the veteran New England reinsman, who has been making annual Down East excursions with a big stable of race horses each year for many years, has already moved into Maine for his 1924 campaign. It is the earliest start that the veteran horseman has yet made.

COVEY ARRANGES BOXING TRIALS

St. John, N. B., April 29.—The final Olympic boxing trials in the Maritime Provinces will be held in St. John on or about June 5 and 6, says A. W. Covey, president of the Maritime Branch of the A. A. U. of C., announced today.

With regard to the dispute which arose in the final of the 126 pound class in the New Brunswick championship, which were held here recently, he said he would have the matter settled at once and a decision rendered.

Asked as to his action regarding the boxers who had entered the New Brunswick championships and then failed to appear, he said he was asking for an official list of all boxers who failed to appear. When he received this, he said he would take action.

Mobile, Ala., April 30.—Milton Stock, third baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, whose home is in this city, where he has been a holdout all spring, has been traded by Manager Branch Rickey of the St. Louis National League Club to the Brooklyn Nationals.

The Big Leagues

[The Canadian Press.] New York, April 30.—After the season's record of eight consecutive victories which began when they occupied seventh place, the New York Yankees, champions of the baseball universe, were passed into a tie for first place in the American League yesterday by the weather man.

The champions' contest at Philadelphia was one of four postponed by rain. Detroit, after holding the third lead of one-half game against the Yankees for several days, succumbed, 6 to 4, to the steady fire of Fitcher Thurston of the White Sox.

Fights Last Night

New York, April 29.—Young Strickling, Georgia's sensational contribution to the ring, gave Mike Burke, pride of Greenwich Village, a scientific boxing lesson in the six-round fight at Madison Square Garden last night.

Berlenbach won by a technical knockout over Harold Abbott, in the fourth round.

"Cannonball" Eddie Martin got a ten-round draw with Charlie Fall Rosenberg.

"LEFTY" STRECKER FANNED 10 BATTERS

"Lefty" Strecker, who pitched last year for the St. Peter's Club of St. John, is back again with the Mill-streams of Chelsea in the Greater Boston Twilight League, and pitched for them when they beat the Malden team of the same league last Sunday, his team winning by 9 to 2.

The Boston Globe says of the game: "Strecker and Redford shared the mound honors on the winning team, allowing but three hits between them. The former twirled the first four innings and ten of the twelve batters who faced him struck out."

A GREB-DELANEY BOUT IS ARRANGED

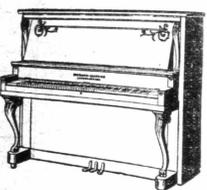

New York, April 30.—Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion, and Jack Delaney, Bridgeport, Conn., middleweight, have signed contracts for a 16 round title match to be held the latter part of June at the main attraction of the annual Milk Fund card.

No indication as to where the bout will be held was made, nor was the exact date settled, but it was thought likely the Yankee stadium or Boyce's Thirty Acres would be chosen as the site.
