Fashion's Fancies.

The innocent and youthful greens, so popular for last season's fashion, will be again the pretty shades worn with bridesmaid's dresses of white gauze or fabric.

The blouse waist or Garibaldi is a fashion for young ladies which is pretty and picturesque for house wear either in silks or bright colored cashmere.

A Parisian idea is to have the warp to match the costume invariably, particularly calling costumes, or those for dress occasions. They are short, with long tailed ends.

The fashions in furnishings are as yet chiefly from France, and white and gold frames with brocaded upholstery will be the leading style in parlor furnishings.

A High Valuation. "If there was only one bottle of Hays' Yellow Oil in Manitoba I would give one hundred dollars for it," writes Philip H. Grant, of Montclair, Manitoba, after having used it for a severe wound and for frozen fingers, with, as he says, "astounding good results."

The prettiest fashions for bridesmaids at early fall weddings is to wear a broad brimmed hat of either lace or shirred mull. This English habit is a pretty fashion as well.

There is no prettier head covering than the open jettied frames over which may be interwoven any sort of appropriate fall blossom on fruit in the counterfeits.

A Frequent Annoyance. Who is there that is not frequently annoyed by distressing headaches? Sufferers from sick or nervous headache will find a perfect cure in Burdock Blood Bitters. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

The striped cashmores are an article novelty, and will be generally used this season instead of light woolsens of rough texture. The gray colors are pretty and lend a piquancy to the costume.

The manner in which the skirt is hung in these days of simple drapery is of great importance. The tournure is not excessive in these days, but it should be made so as to stay in place easily.

A Quarter of a Century. For more than twenty-five years has Hays' Yellow Oil been sold by druggists, and it has never yet failed to give satisfaction as a household remedy for pain, lameness and soreness of the flesh, for external and internal use in all painful complaints.

"The fore and aft," of English shooting caps, will still be worn by young girls for school hats and other purposes. They are to be found in chemists and in plain cloths as well.

The colors in vogue for the coming season have no more character than the now tones so fashionable in the recent past, and they have much less rest to the eyes.

On the Platform. Public speakers and singers are often troubled with sore throat and hoarseness and are liable to severe bronchial attacks which might be prevented and cured by the use of Hays' Pectoral Balsam—the best throat and lung remedy in use.

A Boy on a Farm. It is my impression that a farm without a boy would very soon come to grief. What a boy does is the life of a farm. He is the factotum, always in demand, and always expected to do the thousand and one things that nobody else will do.

Upon him falls the odds and ends, the most difficult things. After everybody else is through he is to finish up. His work is like a woman's—perpetually waiting on others. Everybody knows how much easier it is to cook a good dinner than to wash the dishes afterwards.

Consider what a boy on a farm is required to do—things that must be done, or life would actually stop. It is under-standable, in the first place, that he is to do all the errands, to go to the store, to the postoffice, and to carry all sorts of messages. If he had as many legs as the centipede, they would tire before night. He is the one who spreads the grass as the men cut it; he stows it away in the barn; he rides the horse to cultivate the corn up and down the hot, weedy rows; he picks up the potatoes when they are dug; he brings wood and water, and splits kindling; he gets up the horse and turns out the horse. Whether he is in the house or out of the house, there is always something to do. Just before school in the winter he shovels paths; in the summer he turns the griststone. And yet, with his mind full of schemes of what he would like to do, and his hands full of occupation, he is an idle boy who has nothing to busy himself with but schools and chores. He would gladly do all the work if somebody else would do all the chores. He thinks; and yet, I doubt if any boy ever amounted to anything in the world, or was of much use as a man who did not enjoy the advantages of a liberal education in the way of chores.—Charles Dudley Warner.

Hay fever is a type of catarrh having peculiar symptoms. It is attended by an inflamed condition of the lining membranes of the nostrils, tear ducts and throat, affecting the lungs. An acrimonious secretion, the discharge is accompanied with a burning sensation. There are severe spasms of sneezing, frequent attacks of headache, watery and inflamed eyes. Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy that can be depended upon. Sold at druggists; by mail, registered, 60-cent bottles; by mail, registered, 60-cent bottles.

A clear head is indicative of good health and regular habits. When the body is languid, and the mind works sluggishly, Ayer's Cathartic Pills will assist in the recovery of physical buoyancy and mental vigor.

Foot Rot in Sheep. Foot rot in sheep is an exceedingly troublesome disease, as it robs the animal of its value, and decreases its value, though not always, by any means, fatal. The general impression is that foot rot is contagious. The editor of the Massachusetts Ploughman says on the subject: "Perhaps the ordinary foot rot is not contagious, but the 'epizootic foot rot,' or murrain, is eminently so. The foot rot is found only on low or moist grounds, and probably arises from the hoof not wearing down, as it does on stony ground, but growing to an unusual length because of the warmth and moisture of the soil. In Massachusetts the sheep are kept upon dry, rocky pastures, which are best for the sheep; so that cases of the foot rot are very rare, if any exist."

A Crying Evil.—Children are often fretful and ill when worms are the cause. Dr. Lee's Worm Syrup safely expels and Worms.

There are lots of editors like minded with that one out West, who, having heard that persons in drowning instantaneously recollect all the transactions of all their lives, wished that some of his subscribers would take to bathing in deep water.

Be on Your Guard. Don't allow a cold in the head to slowly and surely run into Catarrh, when you can be cured for 25c. by using Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure. A few applications cure incipient catarrh; 1 to 2 boxes cures ordinary catarrh; 2 to 5 boxes is guaranteed to cure chronic catarrh. Try it. Only 25c and sure cure. Sold by all Druggists.

Sweet cream butter, though better flavored, does not keep as well as that from slightly acid cream.

Home Rule. In Great Britain the question of Home Rule is commanding attention. To the man with a cold in the head or chest the safest way to ensure Home Rule or over a cold is to have on hand a bottle of Dr. Harvey's Red Pine Gum. For sale at J. Wilson's Prescription drug store. If

The treatment of many thousands of cases of these chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Laval Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the result of the experience of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended "cure-all," but as a most perfect specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing and restorative tonic.

As a powerful and strengthening invigorant, it is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhoea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, uterine suppurations, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaries, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects upon those disorders and conditions incident to that later and most critical period, known as the Change of Life.

"Favorite Prescription" is when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also cures blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.

Lessons in Natural Philosophy.

"Yes, Tommy," said the teacher of the infant class, "that is right; vegetables come from the ground; and now can Willie Waile tell us where meat comes from?"

"Yesum," responded Willie, with the air of one familiar with the subject, "meat comes from the butcher's."
