Attempted Burglary.

Mr. Elijah Milley, of C. F. Bennett's employ, received a letter from his brother, Alexander, at Western Bay, yesterday, who carries on business there, saying that an attempt had been made to burglarize his shop last Sunday night. Mr. Milley was in bed, and hearing a noise of falling glass got up and went out to the store. He saw at a glance that a pane of glass had been taken out by removing the putty. The miscreant did not finish the job well and before he had all the putty removed the pane fell and broke. He, no doubt, heard the proprietor coming and took to his heels.
The local constable, Mr. Green, is now investigating.

The S. S. Portia, Capt. T. Fitzpatfrom the westward after a voyage which was noted principally for fog.

In all his experience of the coast, Capt. Fitzpatrick never had it so thick. She left here on the 24th ult., and owing to fog was at Cape Broyle until 1 a.m. Sunday the 25th. It cleared at 8 a.m. that day and was fine until the following Tuesday evening when the ship left Hermitage Bay and again dense fog was the experience until after leaving Port aux Basques. In turning Cape Ray she ran out of the fog zone and had it very fine until she reached Bonne Bay at noon Friday. She left at 6 p.m. that day and Saturday at 11 a.m. again turned Cape Ray and once again encountered the same fog bank and this continued to 1 p.m. yesterday. The ship brought a lot of whale oil, cod

TRAP FISHING.—Fishing with traps at Torbay, Pouch Cove and Outer Cove the past three days has been very good.

Ocean Liners' Narrow Escape.

By the Portia we learn that on Friday last in the dense fog which prevailed in that section no less than three large ocean liners narrowly escaped going ashore in Trepassy Bay.
Two of them were less than three lengths of themselves from the land, and another, a very large boat, loaded with passengers was almost ashore in the Dook. Had she struck the cliff not a soul on board would have been saved as she would be dashed to pieces against a "straight up and down cliff." In fact she would have gone ashore where the S. S. George Washington some 30 years was lost with all on board.

A fleet of local schooners and vessels off the Banks got in there also, and but for a momentary lift in the fog there would have been awful loss of life. Had there been a horror of this kind the cause, our informant says, could be directly traced to negligence on the part of the powers that be. For two months past a fog alarm under the supervision of the Canadian Government has been going at Cape Freels. This has received very little notice as far as can be ascertained and few local or foreign seamen know of its existence. Consequently, after hearing the first whistle a steamer coming east would conclude the sound was Cape Race. Navigators were thus mystified, and one of the ocean boats came in as near as possible and Marooned Cape Race when she was off that point asking for a solution of two fog alarms blowing to the westward of the Cape. If our Government had no information to give of this alarm they could have obtained it from the Canadian Marine authorities. It would be too late to do so when a number of valuable lives were destroyed.

The express arrived here from Port aux Basques at 12.00 p.m. to-day bringing 50 passengers including Sir R. Bond who detained at Whitbourne, Joseph Curran, A. Hickman and Mrs.
Hickman.
