

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Mr. Winnett's early days at St. John's, then plain John Macdonald, was a frequent guest who stopped at what has since become the "Red Parlor."

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

times a row of small oil lamps were the only sign of greeting. Blinking and spluttering spasmodically, they lined up across the counter and each arriving guest signed the register, picked out his own room and key and pitter-pattered down the heavily carpeted corridors to his bed guided by the yellow light.

In the summer time the night clerk religiously closed the green shutters at 11 o'clock and put out the lights. In the winter ice boat parties stopped immediately in front of the hotel and sought warmth and refreshment inside. To-day a handsome but unused railway station stands where the boats dropped sail.

When the partnership of Winnett and McGaw was in full swing, Mr. Winnett looked after the back section of the hotel such as the kitchen and dining room, while his partner cared for other requirements of the guests, and no more expert carver or judge of meat ever sliced a roast of beef than Henry Winnett—beef he always carved himself both at noon and evening meals, while Christmas and New Year's time saw him in the kitchen to look after the turkey.

During the great Toronto fire Mr. Winnett personally supervised the work that saved the Queens from destruction. Blankets from every room were soaked in the bath tubs, tied together and hung down the east wall, covering it entirely. These blankets were kept wet by hose throughout the fury of the fire and undoubtedly saved the building.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

In the Realms of Sport

ST. BON'S DEFEAT TERRAS—30 MINUTES OVERTIME TO DECIDE.

ST. BON'S 3—TERRAS NOVAS 7.

In one of the fastest games of the series, the St. Bon's last night defeated the Terras Novas by 3 goals to 7.

First Period. As soon as the puck was put in play the St. Bon's took the lead, when Furlong opened up the scoring. Just after the puck was again put in play Furlong again took control, and after some tricky play, passed to W. Skinner, who beat Field for the second counter. On the puck being re-centered, Canaling took control, and with a very pretty shot from mid-ice, opened up the scoring for the Terras Novas. The St. Bon's came back strong and shortly after Furlong and W. Skinner again combined, when the latter again beat Field for the Terras third tally. As an exhibition of hockey the first period was "not"; the players did not play their positions and very little team play was in evidence. The period ended with the score standing St. Bon's 3; Terras Novas 1.

Second Period. The second period opened up with some good lively work, and the players seemed to have found their feet. Play was very fast with some good individual work as well as good combination play in evidence. Gillis, who was playing a good game, found the net twice for the Terras and just before the period ended, Dunne sent in the Terras fourth counter. The score at the end of this period was Terras 4; St. Bon's 3.

Third Period. Right at the start the Terras got away and Field sent in No. 5. The St. Bon's now took a hand in and Skinner scored No. 4 for the Bon's, followed shortly after by Phelan, who notched up the equalizer. With only a few minutes left in the final period, both teams tried hard to score, but without avail. The game ended St. Bon's 5; Terras Novas 5.

When the teams changed over the excitement was at fever heat. The St. Bon's secured a goal after 3 minutes of play. On changing over the Terras took the lead, and Field sent in the equalizer. St. Bon's 6; Terras Novas 6.

St. Bon's 7; Terras 7.

Quite a lot of individual play was seen in this period, and the excitement was intense. There was no score until just before the gong sounded when Cahill broke away and scored the winning goal for the St. Bon's. St. Bon's 8; Terras Novas 7.

Mr. Gus Herder refereed the game. The line-ups were as follows: ST. BON'S TERRAS NOVAS Goal. G. Field Defence. J. Tobin M. Power Centre. J. Canning Forward. J. Field J. G. Dunne Sub. (St. Bon's)—G. Edens. R. Kent. J. Furlong. Sub. (Terras Novas)—W. Peters. G. Gillis.

STANDING OF TEAMS. P. W. L. F. A. Pts. St. Bon's 2 0 0 12 7 4 Fieldians 2 1 1 9 12 2 Guards 2 1 1 15 11 2 Terras Novas 2 0 2 10 13 0

OYEZ! OYEZ! OYEZ! We would remind the powers that

Manlaughter Trial Concludes

PRISONER ACQUITTED. The trial of R. Charles Tuff, accused of manslaughter, in connection with the death of Mollie Humphries, on July last, concluded last evening at 6 o'clock, when the jury brought in a verdict of "Not Guilty."

Child Welfare Association. ANNUAL MEETING. Yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of the Child Welfare Association, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President—Miss Southcott. 1st Vice-Pres.—Lady Crosbie. 2nd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. McKeen. 3rd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Bradshaw. Secretary—Miss Parker. Asst. Secretary—Miss Daley. Treasurer—Mrs. L. Outerbridge. Assn. Treasurer—Mrs. Eric Ayre. Lady Alford, the Hon. President, was present at the meeting and delivered an interesting address to the gathering.

he that the gong used to denote the end of periods is not loud enough and cannot be heard above the cheering. As far as we can see there are two alternatives: Stop the cheering—Get a louder gong.

REFEREE OF NOTIOUS BOUT BADLY SHOT.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24—David (Davey) Miller, restaurateur and wrestling and boxing referee, was shot, and probably fatally wounded, last night, as he left a theatre with his three brothers, one of whom, Max, was shot and slightly wounded. Their assailant was not identified. He escaped as the theatre crowd milled about the men as they lay on the sidewalk. "Davey" Miller was rushed to a hospital where an operation was ordered immediately. He was shot in the abdomen.

"Well, they got the referee" exclaimed Max Miller at the hospital to which he was taken with a bullet wound in his side.

"Davey" refereed the Benny Leonard-Phinley Mitchell contest at Dexter Pavilion here last May 30, giving the decision to Leonard near the end of the bout when he knocked Mitchell down, the decision precipitating a riot which sounded the death knell for Chicago boxing.

DUNDEE'S EYE-SIGHT GIVING OUT SOEWEAR.

New York, Jan. 19—Johnny Dundee, who has withstood the punching of the hardest battlers of his weight for the last fifteen years, appeared in the cauliflower garden yesterday wearing rubber-tired spectacles, evidence that the fumping about his head had at last damaged his vision.

Dundee said his eyes were suffering from a slight strain.

However, that is the way blindness began to creep on several other well-known battlers who have been forced to retire from the business during the last few years.

Dundee said he really needed his glasses only when reading. A germ of news was concealed in this statement, too, for it was the first intimation that boxers were taking to the receiving end of literature, although many of them have flourished as authors in the past.

Dundee fights Pat Moran in the Garden February 1, at 135 pounds. Thus Dundee's featherweight championship will not be involved.

The Passing Hour

The hobo had asked the hard-faced woman for something to eat. "Yes," she replied. "If you'll see me split some wood, sweep off the walk, fix the hole in the fence, fix up the barnyard and burn that rubbish piled up at the cellar door."

"Lady," said the hobo as he started away. "I'm only a hobo; I ain't your husband!"

Angry Customer: "Look here waitress, I have just found this blouse button in my soup." Waitress (beaming): "Thank you so much, sir—I have been looking everywhere for it."

Girl (to boatman)—Why are all the vessels spoken off as "she"? It's because they glide so gracefully, I suppose. Boatman—No, miss; it isn't. It's because their riggin' cost so much.

The Englishman looked up at his native clerk entered the room. "What is this I hear about you wanting a transfer, Babu?" he asked. "Why do you want to leave here?"

The man saluted and answered: "Because I am homesick, sir."

"Ah, so you are homesick, are you? Where is your home?" "Here is my home, sahib; and I am sick of it!" answered the man deponently.

Shortly before 5 o'clock Mr. Emerson began his address to the jury. Mr. Gibbs, K.C., for the Crown followed, and at 5:15 Mr. Justice Kent began his summing up. The jury retired at 5:35 and after twenty minutes deliberation they filed back into the courtroom, and through the foreman, Mr. Joseph Peters, announced a verdict of "Not Guilty." The prisoner on motion of Mr. Emerson was discharged.

Child Welfare Association

ANNUAL MEETING. Yesterday afternoon at the annual meeting of the Child Welfare Association, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President—Miss Southcott. 1st Vice-Pres.—Lady Crosbie. 2nd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. McKeen. 3rd Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Bradshaw. Secretary—Miss Parker. Asst. Secretary—Miss Daley. Treasurer—Mrs. L. Outerbridge. Assn. Treasurer—Mrs. Eric Ayre. Lady Alford, the Hon. President, was present at the meeting and delivered an interesting address to the gathering.

At the Star Movie Wednesday & Thursday

Complete Change of Programme, including Larry Semon in "The Barn Yard" Lawrence and Wallace

Lawrence and Wallace

in an entire change of Vaudeville numbers

Also a film showing The Manufacture of Gossage's Soaps

a free sample to every patron.

FRIDAY—PEARL WHITE, in the first chapter of "PLUNDER," and the opening engagement of CHARLES FOSTER Saxonist and Bass Singer. CHESTER HAWKES Pianist and Second Tenor. A COLORED TRIO. PETER ZABRISKIE Banjoist and Baritone.

Express Passengers. The following passengers arrived at Port aux Basques by S.S. Kyle and left this morning:—R. Fudge, A. Caines, J. Shears, A. Robson, Miss B. McGrath, Mrs. P. O. Bagnell, V. G. Bagnell, A. Repout, M. E. Boland, Mrs. H. Brown, J. Bankham; A. S. Kesner.

St. Mary's Debating Club

RESOLVED, "THAT THE MOVIES ARE DESTROYING HOME LIFE"

The above club met at 8 p.m. last night to discuss the long argued question whether or not the Movies are Destroying Home Life. The Affirmative side was led by Mr. Harvey Skirving, with Mr. Aubrey Blackmore as supporter, who both brought out some very fine points on the movies as a destroyer of home life. Mr. Graham Skirving, leader of the Negative side, gave an excellent view on the subject in a very jovial manner. He was ably supported by Mr. H. B. Chafe, who spoke on the Movies from an Educational standpoint. Several others in the audience joined in the general discussion which then took place, and after the summing-up by the leaders; the vote being taken showed a win for the Negative side by a small majority. The class had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. Collahan of the St. Patrick's Debating Club, who, when asked to give his views on the subject, did so in a very forcible manner. These Debates are held every Monday in the rooms of the Young Men's Bible Class, under whose management they are conducted. Visitors are extended a hearty welcome.

"CASCARETS" 10c. BEST LAXATIVE FOR BOWELS

"They Work While You Sleep" If you feel sick, dizzy, upset, if your head is dull or aching, or your stomach is sour or gassy, just take one or two pleasant "Cascarets" to relieve constipation and biliousness. No griping—nicest cathartic-laxative on earth for Men, Women and Children. 10c. boxes, also 25 and 50c. sizes—any drug store.

From Cape Race

CAPE RACE, to-day. Wind west, blowing strong with snow squalls. S.S. Walker passed in at 1.40 p.m. yesterday; nothing sighted to-day. Bar. 30.10; Therm. 32.

Cathedral Class Debating Club

At their rooms last night the above club had an interesting debate on the subject "That Newfoundland has ample facilities to raise sufficient vegetables for home consumption." The leader of the affirmative was Rev. J. Brimston, who, in his usual lucid way, presented to the gathering the points of his argument, which were many and well considered. He was ably supported by Mr. Robert Morgan, Mr. L. Cullen led the negative and was supported by Mr. Herbert Smith. In true debaters' style the speakers observed the four cardinal rules, viz: they stated their case, they cleared their case, they proved their case, and sat down. Other speakers from the floor contributed to a most excellent debate. When the question was put, it was shown that the affirmative had won by two votes. Mr. Albert Bailey, Supt. of Agriculture and Mines, who was present as visitor, honored the members with a brief and helpful address on the subject under discussion and all felt grateful for his display of interest in and friendship for the club.

Men's Wool GLOVES

Real Aberdeen Knit. Closed wrist, in mid and dark heather shades. SPECIAL: 68c pair

STEER BROS.

Insure with the Good, Old, Reliable "QUEEN"

Which has stood "the test" for the last 80 years, particularly in the Big Fires of 1846 and 1892.

Losses settled promptly and without the least hitch. Largest number of policy holders in Newfoundland.

GEO. H. HALLEY, LIMITED, Agents. P.O. Box 782. Phone 658. ADRAM BUILDING. 145 WATER STREET.

McMurdo's Store News.

MERITOR TOOTH BRUSHES. Inquisitiveness may be a great nuisance in a friend or relation. In a tooth brush it is a virtue which will add years to the life of your teeth. The inquisitiveness of the Meritor Tooth Brush, its anxiety to get to the crevices of the teeth as well as the front, means untold blessing to the life and looks of your teeth. And its beautiful bristles are fixed for ever and a day. Made in four sizes: Men's, Ladies', Children's and Babies'. Price 60c. and 35c.

Holiday Hours Wednesday. 8.30 am. to 11 am. 6 pm. to 7 pm. 10.30 pm. to 11 pm.

Don't forget that the Big Game, ending the series of St. Joseph's Card Games, will take place on Tuesday, January 29th. The prizes are big and plenty; so don't fail to come. Tickets 30c. Jan 28, 29.

Bowling Brothers, Limited, FIRE INSURANCE DEPT.

Start the New Year right by giving us a share of your fire insurance.

Our Policies represent Gold Bonds in event of Loss. Are you SAFELY insured?

If not, insure with one of the best Insurance Companies in the World.

G. KNOWLING, Ltd

WINDARD'S LINIMENT FOR ACRES

Company

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive use, to and from a private stall in the building, now used for private parties.

Amongst those of distinction to stop at the Queens are the present King and Queen, then Duke and Duchess of York, practically every governor-general of Canada, all the great Canadian statesmen, Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, Madame Patti, Princess Louise, ex-President Taft and lesser notables from every country in the world.

There are very few professional hosts still in harness after 60 years service.

Winnett Celebrating 60 Year With the Queen's

EDITOR OF FAMOUS HOS- SCORER THESE THREE SCORE YEARS AGO.

(Star, January 17th). Years ago to-day an over-looked train at a station, now forgotten, had his carpet bag to Queen's Front Street.

It was Henry Winnett, now 60, proprietor of the famous "Red Parlor," older than himself, older than a country, where Sir John Macdonald, first premier of the Dominion, framed his famous policy.

Following the return to power of Sir James Whitney in 1907, Ontario Conservatives held a monstrous celebration and banquet at the Queens at which politicians from all the Dominion attended.

Mr. Jacob Cohen, now police magistrate, was anxious on this occasion to meet the victorious premier and confided his ambition to the proprietor.

One remarkable thing about Mr. Winnett's sixty years at the Queens is the fact that never once in that time has the establishment been robbed.

Royalty has frequently been entertained at the Queens and a special stairway built originally for their exclusive