

Lien in Favor of Mechanics.

The laborer is worthy of his hire, is a maxim acknowledged by every community. To defraud a mechanic is looked upon as a great moral wrong, and we trust that the day is not far distant when it will be next to an impossibility for unprincipled persons to do so.

Considerable chuckling has been noticed for some time among the Government opponents in Toronto, at the grand prospects in store for "showing up" Commissioner Scott in connection with the Canada Grand Railways.

It appears that Mr. M. C. Cameron is unable to marshal the forces of the Opposition, for yesterday Mr. Richards rebelled against his leader, disowning him.

It is all likelihood the Government Municipal Loan Scheme will be introduced during the early part of next week.

It is understood that Hon. Mr. Langevin, during the ensuing session, is to be considered Sir. Geo. E. Cartier's right hand man, whose duty it will be to fight the battles in the House.

The London Times cannot see the object of Russia's encroachment in Asia, as she must know the moment she passes certain bounds a rupture with Great Britain is inevitable.
