CALGARY GETS CHANCE TO PURCHASE SLIGHTLY DAMAGED ZOO FOR $150

CALGARY has a first-class chance to start a zoological garden at reduced rates. The matter will be brought before the city council at its next regular meeting by Mayor Sinnott. Since the days when Cappy Smart's trained bear roamed the fire house and died an untimely death, right down to the present, the full extent of algary's claim as a zoological center is been based on the gophers which habit the adjacent praries.

But here is a chance to build a few ges, buy a few pounds of fresh meat casionally and get a regular zoological collection. True, one of the coyes is damaged goods, having lost his it hind foot in 2 trap, but aside from its the collection is in god health and arranted safe and sane.

Mayor Sinnott is in receipt of a letrefrom the Bank of Montreal's Hoster.

How to take a long trip, wants to see that his private zoo has a god lome before he starts.

"The animals are all healthy and in good condition." reads the letter. "Here is the inventory." "One female bear, 3 years old, black, fairly tame.

"Two bear cubs, black; one male, the other female, one year old, fairly tame and juit aching to be more tame.

Many Witnesses Will Be Called.

There will be a large number of witnesses called in the Pelkey case. Medical evidence will form a great part called to testify as to the facts of the case. Among these will be Burns himself, Ed. Smith, of Chicago, the referee of the bout, and Billy McCarney, the manager for the deceased McCarty. There will probably be others who were spectators summoned to tell of what they saw in the ring. The doctors will, however, bring in the interesting features, and Dr. H. H. Moshier, who performed the autopsy of McCarty, will take first place, while the defence will also summon witnesses of expert medical standing to disprove the defence will also summon witnesses of expert medical standing to disprove the contention that McCarty's neck was dislocated at the bout on May 24. One of these will come from Philadelphila, and but for the fact that he has such a long journey to make, the trial would have been held sooner. Great interest will be taken in the trial, as the event which led up to it freated quite a stirt the whole world over. A large attendance is expected during the two days or so which the case will last, and there will be some difficulty in selecting the jury, as there are likely to be many proposed members of the panel challenged on either side. lenged on either side Dionne Will Be Tried.

There will also be another case of interest before the court, and the trial of Joseph Dionne for the murder of the little German girl. Justine Friek, will be held on June 23. This case will also be followed with interest. In the meantime Dionne is still at the barracks, and appears to be quite unconcerned about the matter. He eats and sleeps well, and also reads a good deal, having a good knowledge of English, though he will have the use of an interpreter at the trial, as he claims in court not to understand English at all. The case will be a very long one, as the evidence will have to be translated into German will be a very long one, as the evidence the judgment of Mr. Justice Simmons was sustained. ALBERTA WILL STRING 2,400 MILES OF PHONE WIRE, THIS YEAR

The whole afternoon was taken up yesterday of the supreme court en banc with the argument in the appeal in the case of Lazier vs. MacCullough against the judgment of Mr. Justice Walsh. The action was brought by the plaintiff asking for the sum of $15,000 for 150,000 shares of the capital stock of the Three Hills Coal & Development Co., Limited. The trial judge found that the shares were the property of three persons, Morgan, Vermilyes and Lazier. Judgment was given only against MacCullough. MrcCullough appealed against this judgment taiming that there should have been three defendants entered in the case. T. M. Tweedie appeared for Lazier and H. L. O. Sayary for MacCullough Edmonton, June 12.—Twenty-four hundred miles of telephone wire will be strung by the department of telephones on rural lines this year, in addition to a large amount of long distance line construction and new exchange work in the growing towns and cities of the province. Over $2,000,000 will be expended by the government. At the beginning of the year there were in wire miles, 9,671 miles of rural lines and 6,689 miles of long distance telephone in Alberts.

The trial of Arthur Pelkey will open in Calgary on Thursday next before Chief Justice Harvey with a jury. The charge is that of manslaughter in connection with the death of Luther McCarty in the boxing bout at the Burns Manchester arena on May 24. James Short, K. C., will prosecute, and A. L. Smith will defend. The similar charge against Tommy Burns will be held over till the fall session of the criminal assizes.

This was arranged yesterday afternoon after James Short, K. C., had made application to the supreme court en banc for leave to hold the trial now. The application was made at the morning session, but was left over till the afternoon so that the counsel for the defence, A. L. Smith, should be present. Mr. Smith was present at 2 o'clock, and the application of Mr. Short was granted. His Lordship Chief Justice Harvey asked if the trials of both Pelkey and Burns could not be taken at the same time conjointly. Both Mr. Short and Mr. Smith replied that it could not, as neither was prepared for the case. Burns will therefore not be tried till October.

SECOND DAY OFF

Retail storekeepers in Calgary are couple of days auring exhibition week

restordey morning at a treeting of the letall section of the board of trade a resulution was presed that only one holiday should be held that week, and that on Citizens' Day the stores should be allowed to remain open. The resolution will be forwarded to the mayor, and reads as follows:

"Resolved, that the retail section of the board of trade considers it inadvisable to close their doors to the public on any other day during fair week except Dominion Day."

The feeling was that with such a large number of visitors in the city who came to see the fair in the first instance and to make purchases in the city in the second, it would bew rong both to them and to the dealers of Calgary to close the stores for two days during the week. The mayor will be asked to take the matter up and make a settlement in the interests of so many of the people of Calgary.

make a settlement in the interests of so many of the people of Calgary.

Dominion Day, as everybody knows, falls on July 1, and that wift be one of the days of the fair and is a regular holiday. Citizens' Day has always been declared a civic holiday to allow the people of Calgary to visit the fair. It is thought the two days are quite unnecessary to have off, and one holiday will be all that is needed during such a busy season in the city as the fair time.
