-ACTION OF WOMAN'S CANADIAN CLUB

Many Letters of Approval Are *Received From Local Citizens of Both Sexes

Great and wide has been the discussion over the decision of the Women's Canadian club and the general feeling seems to be satisfaction that foreign born women are at last eligible for membership in the club. Beside various 'phone messages to the office and many hold-ups of the writer on the public thoroughfares, the following let-

The American club was reganized to promote patriotism, but as a factor in making Calgary fairmand better for those of us who live There are at least a few broad-minded noble women in the Canadian club, and I believe I voice the sentiment of every member of the American club when I say there is not one who would not do what a Canadian club woman would if it were for Calgary's good. To that extent at least we are loyal to our adopted country.

Letter Sent to Officers of Women's Canadian Club.

MUST say I wead the proceedings of the Woman's Camadan club with much interestiand also say your club has at last taken the right and sensible stand in the matter of admission of foreign-born women.

I think too much stress has been put on the admission of American women. I am sure the Americans do not wish to be a class by themselves, neither rated above nor below other new citi-zens.

it should be the aim of all good citinems to Canadianize all citizens. What you have just done will do more to gain that end than anything I know. I read every word with much appreciation. My sister (Misss—) desires to join your club.

A MALE AMERICAN.

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Mrs. Kerby, in her address yesterday, stated that no three women in the hall knew the third verse of the National Anthem. On speaking to two of my friends I find that they do, and as I also know it, we make up three. For the benefit of those who don't know this verse I quote it:

this verse I quote it:
"Our Lord, our God arise,
Seatter his enemies and make them fall.
Confound their politics,
Frustrate their knovish tricks,

On him our hope we fix,
God save the King!"

I used to know this but in spite of patriotic Scottish ancestry I made up my mind to forget it. It is a disgrace to any civilized or Christian country, and the sooner this verse is forgotten CONSTANCE ERROL.

What a Canadian Club Should Be

The Canadian Club, though it has done well in breaking down some of the prejudice which has surrounded it too long must not yet sit back content with its efforts in that direction. Certainly it in right to let foreign born women into the club, but as one woman wisely asked; "What is to be the benefit of beionging if we have no voice in it?" Mrs. Mc-ported to say what we should do in our homes whether they are guests or have come to stop, and should receive some consideration on that score if on no ither. It may be that the Canadian Club is meant for Britishers, but if the constitution is not wide enough as it stands, the constitution which we have no vice in the constitution of the country and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the scountry, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country, and not we can be a suit to the country and not the country made narrow to suit the requirements of the country when we come here in full possession of our senses (not like Canadians themselves and s
