Surnames and Their Origin

WARREN.

Variations—Warrnett, Wareing, War-ling, Werison, Wasson, Fitzwarin, Fitzwarren, Warner.
Racial Origin—Norman-French.
Source—A given name; also an occupation.

Here is a group of family names, all of which come from either of two sources; but from which it is impossible to state in the case of Warren, except where the individual is fortunate enough to be able to trace back the genealogy of his particular family to its origin.

Most of the family names in this group are the outgrowths of a given name which was quite widespread in medieval England, having been introduced by the Normans, but which has become obsolete to-day as a given name. There are, of course, to be found many men who bear Warren as their first names, but in virtually every case this is the result of the purely modern custom of using a family name as a given name.

The old name, in its Norman form, was originally "Guarin" or "Guerin," but under the Saxon influence it rapidly became softened into "Warin," in which form it fairly crowds the old records. Warrnett comes from "Wari-not's-son," the "ot" being a diminutive ending. Wareing, Wareing, Wareing and Wasson all come from "Warin'sson," the "son" being dropped, for the most part, in the course of time. The "Fitz" variations are explained in the meaning of "Fitz" as "son of."

Warren, however, often comes from the same source as Warner, which is the medieval word "Warren," "Warner" or "Warner," from "Waren," a game preserve. The warren was the officer who had charge of these forest wilds and naturally came to be known as "Jackie le Warner," "Richard de Warren," etc. Sons often followed the same calling as their father.

ers, and so such names in many cases lost their original meaning descriptive of occupation and became simply family "tags."

O'LEARY.

Variations—Leary.
Racial Origin—Irish.
Source—A given name.

O'Leary is a good old royal name.
Even Shakespeare recognized it as such when he wrote his "King Lear." But the ancient Irish kings who bore this name, and from one of whom the modern family name is derived, did not spell it that way. The nearest we can come to the old spelling in using the English alphabet is "Laeg-haire." The Irish pronunciation varies of course, in the different sections of Ireland, and there have also been changes in pronunciation due to the lapse of time, but you can make a pretty good attempt if you say it "lay-airy," without emphasizing the "airy" too sharply; and if you can inject a faint "h" or guttural sound between the two sections, so much the better.

The most famous Laeghaire of Irish history was the Ard-Righ, or High-King, who held his court at Tara, in Meath (which was a sort of "federal" province, bearing the same relation to all Ireland that the District of Columbia does to the United States), and there received St. Patrick, about 432 A.D. At that first meeting the saint converted Laeghaire's daughters and half his court from paganism in open debate, and also won the king's friendship and help in the campaign which spread Christianity over the land like wildfire. But though he aided Christianity, Laeghaire himself never professed faith, and died a pagan.

Of course, the orthodox form of the family name is O'Leary, or Hul Laeghaire, the "O" being a contraction of "Hy" or "Hul," meaning "descendant of." But many families have in modern times dropped this prefix.

Mark.

Each day by Jared's carriage shop Mark passed,
Calling a greeting through the wide swung door,
In the same wagon made forty years before
And guaranteed by Jared to wear and last.
On Mark's return from town, his team made fast,
The two old friends would chat of days no more,
And tell old jests, rehearse the fragrant lore
Of youth, recall the years with memories massed.

Their friendship was a golden thing, the village said,
That brighter grew with every year of use.
It did until the day Mark said in heat:
"My wagon's busted on the hill, and,
Ed,
You guaranteed it! And it hasn't had no abuse!"
Then Jared, mad, hurled Mark into the street!

TORTURES OF SCIATICA

Relieved by Enriching and Purifying the Blood.

Sciatica is neuralgia of the sciatic nerve and the treatment should be the same as for other forms of neuralgia.
Sciatica is stubborn in resisting treatment and the patient frequently suffers for years.

So many cases of sciatica have been helped by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that every sufferer is justified in giving this treatment a thorough trial.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not simply relieve pain—they correct diseases caused by weak, watery blood. Thus they are beneficial in the treatment of even the most severe disorders. Their value in cases of this kind is shown by the experience of Miss Lizzie Freeman, Nogies Creek, Ont., who says:
"I was confined to bed for seven weeks with sciatica. What I suffered is almost impossible to realize. The doctor did all he could for me, and yet I was not getting any better, and he told me the trouble was likely to leave me crippled. A neighbor who was in to see me, strongly advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to do so and after taking them for a while found they were helping me. I continued taking the pills until I had taken nine boxes, when I was able to walk as well as ever, and felt that I was fully restored. In view of what these pills have done for me I strongly recommend them to all sufferers."

If you are suffering from any condition due to poor, watery blood or weak nerves, begin taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now and note how your strength and health will improve.
The new sales tax will not increase the price of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as the company pays the tax. You can still obtain the pills through any medicine dealer at 50 cents a box, or by mail, post paid, at this price, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Buy An Island.

The Canadian Government invites people who are in search of a summer home to buy an island in Georgian Bay. There are some thirty thousand islands along the shores of that part of Lake Huron, and the islands vary in size from tiny eyots to islands many acres in extent. They are rocky and bear no great amount of vegetation, but many are ideal for summer camps.
The price of an unoccupied island is twenty-five dollars plus ten dollars an acre.

Remember that, for any profession, it takes a long course of study before any real and substantial success can be looked for. Don't take the advice of admiring friends alone, who will be sure to tell you that you can do anything and do it well without a preliminary course of preparation. It is not what comes to you, but what you come to, that determines whether you are to be a winner in the great race of life.

The Silence of the Snow.

A Russian said: "You do not know, as we,
The beauty of the silence of the snow—
How every ugly noise drowned out can be As in some clean, white river's blessed flow.
The steppes and lonely izba know its peace;
But our great cities, too, have their release."

These words, in memory long sunken, rose,
When, after night on night of tapping sleet
And ghostly snow o'rahring other snows,
The Morning looked upon the trackless street.
And then, for me, from many a vanished year, Fair pictures of a dreaming farm came near.

Behold another world with its new face!
The countryside in city held strange sway (Or, so to me it was): for Time and Space
Within a cirque of artful Magic lay.
The soul withdrew to some lost, early mood, Rapt far away in boundless quietude.

But now, The City, struggling as from swoon, Turned her uneasily—stretched out an arm;
And helpless lifted up her outcry, soon—
But softened all within the dim snow charm!
With this, the horn of some stalled, venturous car—
The chime of church clock—all from very far.

At last the plough a clean cut furrow heaves—
A marble way through new created land!
Outflatter hungry sparrows from the eaves; Outflatter, too, the children, sleds in hand,
Their tinkling laughter, in the magic morn, Seems from some elfin underworld up-borne.

A Ready Answer.

Everyone is malicious enough to enjoy the discomfiture of a cross-examining lawyer by the witness he is badgering. The American Legion Weekly reports such a case.

"Tell the court exactly where you were on the twentieth day of said month at five-thirty in the afternoon," sharply demanded the lawyer of an opposing witness.

"I was on the corner of Second and Main streets, asking a man a question," replied the witness.

"Ah-ha! But how do you know it was exactly five-thirty?"

"Ah-ha yourself!" said the witness.
"The question I was asking him was what time it was."

Going, Going, Gone!

In the midst of the auction a man came forward and whispered at some length to the auctioneer. Then he went back and mingled with the crowd. The auctioneer rapped on the table and announced:

"A pocketbook containing two thousand dollars in bills has been lost. If it is returned to me, the owner will pay fifty dollars reward and no questions asked."

There was a moment's silence, and then a voice toward the back of the crowd was heard:

"Fifty-one!"

To Make Rich Red Blood

Revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves and increase your strength and endurance take Organic Iron; not metallic iron which people usually take, but pure organic iron—Nuxated Iron—which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. One dose of Nuxated Iron is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating one-half quart of spinach, one quart of green vegetables or half a dozen apples. It is like taking extract of liver instead of eating pounds of meat.
Nuxated Iron is partially predigested and ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron filings.

Over 4,000,000 people annually are using Nuxated Iron. It will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. A few doses will often commence to enrich your blood. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results.

Beware of substitutes. Always insist on having genuine organic iron—Nuxated Iron. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet. Sold by all druggists.

The Cause of

PUTS HEALTH AND VIM INTO WOMEN

So Says Mrs. MacPherson of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brantford, Ontario.—"I was always tired and the least exertion would put me out for a day or two. I had a pressing pain on the top of my head, pain in the nape of my neck, and when I stooped over I could not get up without help, because of pain in my back.
I did not sleep well and was nervous at the least noise. I kept house, but I was such a wreck that I could not sweep the floor nor wash the dishes without lying down afterwards. A friend living near me told me what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for her so I began to take it. With the first bottle I felt brighter and got so I could wash dishes and sweep without having to lie down. Later I became regular again in my monthly terms. I have taken ten bottles all told and am now all better. I can truly say that your wonderful medicine cannot be beaten for putting health and vim into a woman."—Mrs. JAMES H. MACPHERSON,
