

Rev. James P. Stone of Lower Cabot, Vt., formerly of Dutton, N. H.

A Faithful Pastor

Is held in high esteem by his people, and his opinion upon temporal as well as spiritual matters is valued greatly. The following is from a clergyman long industrial in New England, now spending well earned rest in Cabot, Vt.: "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"We have used Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family for many years past, with great benefit. We have, with confidence, recommended it to others for their various ailments, almost all of whom have certified to great benefit by its use. We can Honestly and Cheerfully recommend it as the best blood purifier we have ever tried. We have used others, but none with the beneficial effect of Hood's. Also, we deem Hood's Pills and Olive Oil most invaluable. Mrs. Stone says she cannot do without them." REV. J. P. STONE.

Better than Cold

Mr. Geo. T. Clapp, of Easton, Mass., says: "I am 82 years of age, and for 30 years have suffered with running sores on one of my legs. A few years ago I had two toes amputated, physicians saying I was suffering from gangrene and had but

A Short Time to Live. Eight months ago a neighbor urged me, I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. The whole lower part of my leg and foot was a running sore, but it has almost completely healed and I can truthfully say that I am in better health than I have been for many years. I have taken no other medicine and consider that I owe all my improvement to

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It is better than gold. I cheerfully verify the above statement. Mr. Clapp, who I have known 30 years." J. M. HOWARD, Druggist, Easton, Mass.

Hood's PILLS are purely vegetable.

THE PRICE AND HIS PEERS.

Michael, Lizzie and Mrs. Ayres Will Be Tried Next Month.

DETROIT, April 27.—At the May term of the Recorder's Court, which begins May 4, Prince Michael, Lizzie Court and Mrs. Ayres will be tried. Michael will be arraigned on the four serious charges against him. Lizzie will be asked to plead to two charges. Mrs. Ayres will be asked to plead to the charge of murdering her husband, Chas. N. Ayres, on the afternoon of March 4 last, being at liberty on $5,000 bail to answer that charge. The prosecuting attorney says he will bring the "flying roll" cases up as soon as possible.

FIRE DEPARTMENT SUPPLIES.

Tenders Received by No. 3 Committee—Street Watering Inspector's Report.

No. 3 Committee received tenders for supplies for the three fire stations at a meeting last evening. The contract for supplying 500 feet of three-ply Baker hose was awarded the Gutta Percha and Rubber Manufacturing Company, of Toronto, at 90 cents per foot. All the other tenders opened were laid over until next Wednesday's meeting of the committee.

An extra pile of boards will be laid in the halls where the horses tramp.

It was also decided to purchase a lawn mower for use at the fire stations.

John Cameron et al., applied to have Richmond street from Oxford to Grosvenor watered. Granted.

H. W. Babcock applied for permission to take out an auctioneer's license by paying in advance $5 a month. Granted.

W. J. G. Berry communicated regarding the position of chimney sweep. There was also a memo from the Council regarding the same matter. Mr. Berry's appointment will be recommended.

The engineer reported that 96,615 feet of street were watered in 1891 at a cost of $5 cents a foot. This did not include the Market Square, Victoria Park, or frontage of King and Talbot streets on Market. The total cost was $5,407. Repairs to the wagons in the spring cost $1,100.

The street watering inspector reported that the watering had been fairly well done, "more credit to the cold weather than to the horses." Referred to the engineer.

The engineer submitted two plans for closets in the market. One plan if carried out would incur a cost of $275, the other $400. The cost of sewer connections would be extra. The matter was laid over until next meeting.

A communication from the market clerk recommending that the huckster bylaw be not repealed was laid over for future consideration.

There were present: Ald. Fitzgerald (chairman), Parnell, Moule, John Heaman, Wm. Heaman, and Hannah, Secretary Bell, City Engineer Graydon and Chief Roe.

By their fruits shall ye know them. This is an indisputable truth; its application has a wide range. The 10-cent Norma cigar is the product of H. McKay & Co.'s cigar factory. They speak volumes for that establishment in a particular line of business. In these delicate cigars, not only the finest of materials are used, but a connoisseur is indispensable.

To keep off flies, paint walls or rub over picture frames with laurel oil.

If boots squeak, drive a peg in the center of the sole.

Use whitening moistened with kerosene to scour tin.

A Bath truckman, who owns two horses, has named one McGinty and the other Annie Rooney, both being chestnuts.

HARRY LENOX

MERCHANT TAILOR.

Corner Richmond and Carling Streets.

has received four cases of

New Spring Goods,

which will be sold at lowest prices. Call and see them.

PITCHER IS DEAD.

Lamented Demise of a Noted Fox Terrier.

Brooklyn Horses Afflicted with Influenza—Baseball Scores and Various Sporting Events.

THE KENNEL.

A New York dispatch says: News has just been received that the well-known fox terrier, Pitcher, died last week. His owner was John E. Thayer, of the Hillside Kennels, Lancaster, Mass. Pitcher made his name in England, John A. Logan, jun., son of the late Gen. Logan, bought him from T. W. Twiford, of Huddersfield, England, a week before the New York show of 1891, for $500. He was a son of Erin, who had "footed it all the way from San Francisco and intended to do 800 miles more" the same way before reaching his destination.

Special meetings of the Blenheim town and township councils were held last week, at which Dr. King appeared, and after considerable discussion by each it was agreed to submit bylaws in aid of the Walker Railway to grant $5,000 in the town and $7,500 in the township to be voted on the 21st of May.

Martin Donohue, of Rodney, was committed to jail Saturday by Squires S. B. Morris and E. McGregor, on the charge of having in his possession a dirk knife and threatening to kill Annie Evans, of Aldborough.

With reference to the commission appointed by the Bishop of Huron to examine into the fact of Rev. N. H. Martin having left his charge without permission, and also into other charges made against him, it may be stated that the inquiry has terminated. The witnesses having been examined and the report having been forwarded to the diocesan. The tips of the commission are sealed, pending the lordship's verdict, but if the current report be true—and it is hoped it is—the inquiry has resulted in the pastor's vindication.

Jeremiah Stonefish and Martha Doleen, of Moravia town, were committed to jail some weeks ago by Squire Beattie, of Highgate, on a charge of unlawfully living together as man and wife for the past 35 years. They were sentenced to a fine and imprisonment. On Monday the sheriff received an order from the Secretary of State to release both prisoners, the fine and imprisonment having been remitted by order-in-council.

At Blenheim on Tuesday, while being carried, one of Williston's livery horses was thrown back against the edge of a beam so violently as to cause death within twenty minutes.

The West Kent license commissioners met in the inspector's office on Saturday afternoon and dealt with the applications for tavern and shop licenses for the coming license year. The list of successful applicants is as follows: Town of Chatham—Tavern, Garner House, Rankin House, Grand Central, Royal Exchange, Idlewild Hotel, Collett's C. P. R. Hotel, Rutley House, Station Hotel, Martin's, Miles', Shop, O. S. Sheldon, James McMorris, Wallaceburg—Tavern, S. Somers, Ch. Rielly, J. H. Sharp, Henning & Dillon, Wm. O'Meara, Shop, Jas. Morphy, Tilbury Center—Tavern, John B. Marchand, Geo. McKay, Pierre Tremblay, Dover—Tavern, A. Cheff, Pincourt—C. W. Raymond, Mitchell's Bay, Raleigh—Tavern, J. H. Ballah, Chatham Township—Tavern, S. M. Dezelia, Tupperville—The houses licensed last year and now cut off are: McNaughton House, Courtney's in North Chatham; Hatton's and McIntyre's on the market, G. T. R. Restaurant and Hayward's shop license. In Wallaceburg—Hill's and Hayes'. There was no change Dover, and one house in Raleigh and one in Chatham township did not seek renewals.

The great lung healer is found in the excellent medicine sold as Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness of the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

Emperor William has signified his approval of Princess Frederick Charles assuming the patronage of the German female department of the Chicago Columbian Exhibition.

Charles Little Liver Pills must not be confused with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills, as they are extremely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

Professor Ihne, who was the late Duke of Clarence's tutor at Heidelberg, says his pupil forgot a great deal in his long voyage around the world.

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto, to send us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Constipation, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Digestive. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband; but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they say, and their husbands say so, too.

A loving wife doesn't need to be told that her husband's stockings need darning. A kind husband never needs to be asked for the price of a bonnet.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

CHATHAM.

Latest News Items from the County Town of Kent.

CHATHAM, Ont., April 27.—Mr. J. T. Merritt has been appointed to represent the local branch of the Royal Arcanum at the Grand Lodge meeting at Barrie on the 11th of May.

It was learned this morning that the condition of the little boy Striker, injured while playing with his brother, was improved, and that possibly he may recover. Last night representatives of Christ Church had a final interview with Rev. Robert McCosh, of Petrolia, agent of the incumbency of this parish. Everything was definitely and satisfactorily arranged, and the new incumbent will conduct the services on Sunday next.

A weary and foot-sore traveler asked and got a meal at the Roman Catholic parsonage yesterday. He was a son of Erin, who had "footed it all the way from San Francisco and intended to do 800 miles more" the same way before reaching his destination.

Special meetings of the Blenheim town and township councils were held last week, at which Dr. King appeared, and after considerable discussion by each it was agreed to submit bylaws in aid of the Walker Railway to grant $5,000 in the town and $7,500 in the township to be voted on the 21st of May.

Martin Donohue, of Rodney, was committed to jail Saturday by Squires S. B. Morris and E. McGregor, on the charge of having in his possession a dirk knife and threatening to kill Annie Evans, of Aldborough.

With reference to the commission appointed by the Bishop of Huron to examine into the fact of Rev. N. H. Martin having left his charge without permission, and also into other charges made against him, it may be stated that the inquiry has terminated. The witnesses having been examined and the report having been forwarded to the diocesan. The tips of the commission are sealed, pending the lordship's verdict, but if the current report be true—and it is hoped it is—the inquiry has resulted in the pastor's vindication.

Jeremiah Stonefish and Martha Doleen, of Moravia town, were committed to jail some weeks ago by Squire Beattie, of Highgate, on a charge of unlawfully living together as man and wife for the past 35 years. They were sentenced to a fine and imprisonment. On Monday the sheriff received an order from the Secretary of State to release both prisoners, the fine and imprisonment having been remitted by order-in-council.

At Blenheim on Tuesday, while being carried, one of Williston's livery horses was thrown back against the edge of a beam so violently as to cause death within twenty minutes.

The West Kent license commissioners met in the inspector's office on Saturday afternoon and dealt with the applications for tavern and shop licenses for the coming license year. The list of successful applicants is as follows: Town of Chatham—Tavern, Garner House, Rankin House, Grand Central, Royal Exchange, Idlewild Hotel, Collett's C. P. R. Hotel, Rutley House, Station Hotel, Martin's, Miles', Shop, O. S. Sheldon, James McMorris, Wallaceburg—Tavern, S. Somers, Ch. Rielly, J. H. Sharp, Henning & Dillon, Wm. O'Meara, Shop, Jas. Morphy, Tilbury Center—Tavern, John B. Marchand, Geo. McKay, Pierre Tremblay, Dover—Tavern, A. Cheff, Pincourt—C. W. Raymond, Mitchell's Bay, Raleigh—Tavern, J. H. Ballah, Chatham Township—Tavern, S. M. Dezelia, Tupperville—The houses licensed last year and now cut off are: McNaughton House, Courtney's in North Chatham; Hatton's and McIntyre's on the market, G. T. R. Restaurant and Hayward's shop license. In Wallaceburg—Hill's and Hayes'. There was no change Dover, and one house in Raleigh and one in Chatham township did not seek renewals.

The great lung healer is found in the excellent medicine sold as Bickel's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness of the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

Emperor William has signified his approval of Princess Frederick Charles assuming the patronage of the German female department of the Chicago Columbian Exhibition.

Charles Little Liver Pills must not be confused with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills, as they are extremely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

Professor Ihne, who was the late Duke of Clarence's tutor at Heidelberg, says his pupil forgot a great deal in his long voyage around the world.

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto, to send us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Constipation, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Digestive. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband; but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they say, and their husbands say so, too.

A loving wife doesn't need to be told that her husband's stockings need darning. A kind husband never needs to be asked for the price of a bonnet.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the family home. John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about 6 months old. Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton will receive fully as much as the other daughters.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—The longest term of imprisonment ever imposed in the Philadelphia courts was conferred upon Charles S. Elliott, alias Johnson, alias Parnell, the colored burglar who was sentenced by Judge Finletter to 40 years in the Eastern Penitentiary. Parnell, as he was known, confessed to having committed ten burglaries. He was apparently unmoved, and while being driven to the prison whistled "Good-bye, My Honey, I've a Gwine." He is 27 years old, and is a native of Salisbury, Md.

ASTOR'S WILL.

NEW YORK, April 28.—The will of William Astor leaves the bulk of his fortune to his son, John Jacob, whose wife was Miss Willing, of Philadelphia. Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000. When other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob. The widow will receive an annual income while she lives of $500,000. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made. Provision has been made in the will for providing the mansion which at Mrs. Astor's death will become the property of her son as the