A strong wind was blowing, and the balloon had just risen to a level with the tops of the surrounding houses when a squall seized and dashed it against a chimney. The balloon was torn open, and Gauthier, a professional aeronaut, and an amateur accompanying him were seriously injured. Fortunately the balloon had lost so much gas that it sank slowly toward the ground and was pulled down by the spectators.

St. John, *N. B., June 23.—At Saturday's meeting of the Dominion W. C. T. U. a lengthy report on the use of unfermented wine for communion use was read by Miss Jessie Archibald, of Truro. Miss Archibald reported having learned from good authority from the House of Commons that the resolution for prohibition, excepting for sacramental as well as medical, scientific and mechanical purposes, could never be carried, owing to the large number of members who would insist on the exclusion of sacramental wine from the scheme. They could not forbid by law a practice which is countenanced by so many churches, Protestant as well as Catholic; therefore she presumed the church courts have fallen into line in framing their resolutions.

Five Thousand Peach Trees Prostrated, CARO, Ill., June 23.—The great storm of Sunday struck the fruit belt at Villa Ridge with disastrous effect. Five thousand peach and 1,000 apple trees loaded with fruit were blown down. Wheat was blown all over the country, while grape vines are badly injured. The tall timber on the Kentucky shore opposite here went down in great quantities.

The marriage of Miss Alberta Ponsonby, goddaughter of the Queen, and daughter of Sir Henry and the Hon. Lady Ponsonby, to Major and Lieut. Col. W. E. Montgomery, of the Scotz Fusilier Guards, took place yesterday afternoon at the Wellingson Barrack's Chapel on Bird Cage Walk, opposite St. James Park. The Queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and hearly 700 guests were present. The Queen's presence at this ceremony was not so much from the fact that Miss Ponsonby was her goddaughter, but it was in worder to publicly demonstrate the high esteem in which her Majesty holds General, the Right Hon. Sir Frederick Ponsonby, G. C. B., K. C. B., the bride's father, who has filled the positions of keeper of her Majesty's privy purse and private secretary to her Majesty. Sir Henry Ponsonby is also greatly endeared to the Queen from the fact that he was equerry to the late Prince Albert from 1856 to 1861, the vera of the, Prince Con. the other two, all three dying, tightly clasping each other in their vain attempt to get ashore.

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's V egetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

He explained that the large increase in excise was due to the withdrawal of aged spirits, the two-year period having expired, which affected the revenue favorably to the extent of $400,000 or $500,000. Otherwise that amount would have come into the current year. In subhave come into the current year. In sub-mitting the following list of articles from which we have received increased customs duties in the year under review, 1889-90, Mr. Foster said the large increase on wines and spirits was probably in anticipation of the high duties levied last year:

Ale, beer and porter..... Animals living...... Arrowroot biscuits, etc... Grain of all kinds..... Coal and coke Copper and manufactures of Drugs, dyes, chemicals and Embroideries, N.E.S.

The expenditure from the 20th June to the 30th June would be $5,619,425, and the probable extraordinary expenditure over this ten-day period $335,000, making the total probable expenditure for 1890-91 about $36,000,000. The surplus will probably be about $2,100,000. The capital expenditure was as follows:

Public works... $500,000 Railways and canals. $39,000 Dominion lands. 1,300,000 Railway subsidies $1,300,000 Totals....$39,200,000 $36,602,357 $38,350,000

Suffice it to say that the revenue for next year, on the basis of what I am estimating it at present, will be in the neighborhood of $37,500,000. (Loud applause.) I venture to say that never in the history of this country has a Government come to the House with such a reduction of taxation. Sir Richard Cartwright—Let us hear your conditions.

The first of these is that we shall exercise greater economy in the public expenditure. (Opposition hear, hears.) I am glad to know I shall have the help of honorable gentlemen opposite. I promise the House that this economy will not be practiced in an inigardly spirit, but with due regard to the public service.

Sir Richard Cartwright—It's a pity you did not begin that practice earlier.

Mr. Foster—The other condition is that there shall be compensation duties to a certain extent. (Oh, ch.)
