IT'S DRESS GOODS turn on Tuesday. Promptly at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, Four Big Bargain Tables of Dress Goods will be placed on sale at prices, lower than you'd ever think possible — Just to advertise our Dress Goods Department, We can't now stop to praise the goods, they're here for those who have learned what Chapman's means by bargains.

Elegant Shot Lustres adorn the first table-Lustres that are cheap when we sell them at 45c and 5oc. They're 42 inches wide. They are specially fine goods-in green mixtures, blue mixtures and brown mixtures. Once before we sold them on Bargain Day for 37½c. 25C

Table No. 2: 2 It's hard to keep up the pace set by the first table; but where only a few cents have stood in the way we have sacrificed our profit -just for the satisfaction of selling you Drygoods cheaper than you ever saw them before. These Tweeds were all 50c a yard. They are principally checks-shepherd's, small and fancy. 25C

Just to show our leader-4 ship in really fine goods we have set out a table of elegant, hot weather Black Lace Dress Goods. You know what Yack Laces are like? Well, we have Dress Goods just like that-and Grenadines and Lace Goods, too. Most of them we have sold all season at 85c. Some of them are just in single dress lengths. You'd better come early and get first choice. 50C

} Men's Summer Shirts:

They're in all the latest shades. Ever color you ever saw on a shirt front is here, They're eleganty made and carefully laundered. Some of them are made of French Cambric, some of Madras, some of Percale. Some ofthem have open fronts, and some have not; some of them have deached cuffs, and some have not. We bought 100 dozen of them-that's how we can sell them for just half their ordinary price, $150. No retailer could buy them in the regular way and sell the for a copper less than $1 25. But Chapmardoes not buy in the regular way. Your choice

Men's Summer Clothins:

There's just one way we awer all prejudiced objections to Readyto-Wear Clothing and thas, "Your money back if you want it." If you ask for a better guantee than that we say you can't get it. It's all-sufficing, all-embring. But the man that once sees our All-wool Halifax Tweed immer Suits at $3 95 will never again talk against ready-to-werlothing. We sold them up till now for $5 50. We got in four ses of elegant new goods the other day to sell at the same price3 95. The maker never intended them to go for a cent less th $6 oo, and they'd be dirt cheap at that.
