Mems of the Merry War.

The Free Press this morning has room for something about the late Kang Yi; about the national home reading union; about alcohol in illness; about beet sugar; about layer cake fillings; information that "quick boiling and careless skimming are the causes of cloudy soup"; that "baked cauliflower is an agreeable change in serving this vegetable." Room for all this, but not room for one line about the encounter between Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Hon. John Haggart!

The Ottawa mayor is the seventh som of a seventh son and he is confident that the Government will be sustained on the 7th of November. But you do not require to be the seventh son of a seventh son to reach that conclusion. Get the shrewd business man to talk. He is confident that there will be no change this time, and he is sure it would be a bad thing for the public if there were. Unnecessary disturbance in business is to be avoided.

And now the F. P. is running a little ocal race war of its own, by trying to set English, Irish and Scotch by the ears. But its game is transparent. Even the F. P.'s President is Scotch. But surely that is no crime.

An old campaigner is E. King Dodds. He has taken part in many a political fray, and has done his best for the Conservative party of the past. But he is disheartened with the present leaders, and candidly declares that he sees no chance of success under them. Said he on a recent occasion:

"So long as the Conservative party is officered by Foster, Haggart, Montague & Co., it will remain where it is now, and even though I have the highest respect for the pluck and indefatigable energy of Sir Charles Tupper, not even with all his ability has he a ghost of a chance to succeed as long as his lieutenants are the men who knifed their former leader, and whose base treachery has as much to do with the Conservative defeat at the general elections as the Manitoba school bill

Mrs. Sarah MacVicar who died recently at her home in the township of Caradoc, Middlesex county, was the widow of the late Donald MacVicar. She came to this county from South Knapdale, Argyleshire, Scotland, in 1852, and was married a few months afterwards, settling in the home where she died on Oct. 14 inst. Her maiden name was MacCorkindule. Her husband died in 1876. The family consisted of four sons and two daughters. The two daughters are now dead, viz., Mary, who died in infancy, and Sarah Catherine, who died in 1887. The four sons are still living. They are: John, who is teaching in Alberta, N. W. T.; Allen, who is on the old homestead; Donald, who is pastor of Victoria Presbyterian Church, Montreal, Que., and Archie, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Huntsville, Ont. She shared with her husband the hardships incidental to the lot of the early pioneers, the majority of whom are now gone. She was a faithful wife and intensely devoted to the interests of her family, all of whom acknowledge their indebtedness to the principles which she inculcated during their early years. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hosie, of Lobo and North Caradoc Presbyterian Church, of which congregation she was a member. She was 78 years of age.

With the Enemy-British Losses Were Heavy.

Three Boers Court-Martialed and Condemned to Die-Lord Roberts Ap. proves the Bentence.

London, Oct. 27.-A dispatch received at the war office from Lord Roberts, dated Pretoria, Oct. 26, referring to the fighting of Gen. Barton's column with Gen. Dewet's forces Oct. 25, says:

"The British losses were heavier than at first reported. An additional officer and it is supposed that while repairing and twelve men were killed, and three officers and twenty-five men were wounded. The Boers left twenty-four dead and nineteen wounded on the field, and twenty-six Boers were made and brought to the Waterloo street

"Three Boers who held up their hands in token of surrender, and then fired on the British were court-martialed and convicted, and sentenced to death. I have confirmed the sentence.

The dispatch also refers to minor affairs in which the troops of Gen. Kitchener and Gen. Methuen were engaged, and to a serious incident between Springfontein and Philippolis, Orange River Colony, where fifty cavalrymen were ambushed and captured by the Boers, only seven of the party escap-
