It Pays to Drink Ceylon Tea, because it is incomparably the best and purest. Try a sample packet. Lead Packets only. Black, Mixed or Green. By all Grocers.

Highest Award, St. Louis, 1904. long cloak upon the sofa, and took off him.

CHAPTER XIII.

"Florrie," said Stella, in a terrified experiences in the great world of Parwhisper, "has anything happened? six society. She was looking very "Florrie," said Stella, in a terrified What is the matter? For Heaven's well, but seemed almost too excited for so long? Why did you not let us "What a lot of questions all at coming up the steps: You once!" laughed Florrie, merrily. "Poor true that there was no fly at Stella, you look frightened out of your wits! Here, take hold of me-pinch me! You see I'm not a ghost, don't I really am my very own self in the flesh! Why, you don't look a bit glad to see me, and I thought you planations which Florrie chose 'Of course I did! but, for pity's sake

Now, please don't ask all those be wildering questions over again-I an going to answer them. I thought world take you by surprise, you se besides, I was not quite sure if should come today or tomorrow; an there was no fly at the station, so have walked-

"Walked! why, it is two miles!" and Stella involuntarily glanced down a Florrie's boots. They were dainty little boots, and were scarcely soiled; they certainly did not look as if they had tramped along two miles of country lanes, that must be very muddy after the rain of the afternoon. "And how on earth did you find your way?"
"Oh, one of the aborigines directed me, and carried my bag—you see have a dressing-bag—as far as the park gates.'

"But your box, Florrie-what has be come of your box?"
"Oh, Madame Halevy was to sen that on; it will arrive tomorrow, have no doubt." "Madame Halevy!" repeated Stella "Have you not, then, come from Paris Why, where have you been?" For the first time Florrie seemed little disconcerted, and her eyes los something of the merry assurance wi which she had been giving her rathe incredible explanations; shook a little too, although she evidently tried to pass it off lightly.

"Oh, dear, how silly I am not to have told you before! Yes, of course I have come from Paris, only I spen the last two days with some other friends-Monsieur Halevy's gister, fact-a charming woman, who wa there, of course,' Stella felt that this explanation wa rather unsatisfactory, but she did no know how to express her uneasines so she said nothing. Florrie sat down, and flung off he SUFFERING WOMEN

Find Health and Strengh in Di

Williams' Pink Pills. "I consider Dr., Williams' Pinl Pills a most marvelous medicine, says Mr. Louis Turcott, 665 Papineau street, Montreal. "They restored me to health and strength when I was in a most hopeless con dition, and almost despaired of re-My trouble began a few years ago, when I passed through severe illness, from which I did regain my accustomed health and strength, though I had the very of care and treatment. I seemed t grow weaker every day. I was pale and emaciated, had no appetite could hardly go about, and found my life almost a burden. It seemed as though my blood had turned to was ter and my nerves seemed completely shattered. All the time I was unde medical treatment, but with no parent benefit. One day a friend brought m who called to see me brought m some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, an asked me to take them. I did so, and after a couple of weeks I found my appetite improving, and took this as a sign that the pills were helping me, and I got another supply In a few weeks more the change in my appearance and condition was marvelous, and friends who dropped in to see me, hardly thought I was the same person. It was not much longer until I was completely cured; in fact, felt better than I nave don for years before. I am, therefore very happy to make known to all ailing women the fact that they ca find new health through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Mrs. Turcett's experience with this medicine is the same as thousands of others. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills an the greatest cure for the ailments due to poor blood. All the weak-ness of anaemia; all the distress of indigestion: all the pains and ache of neuralgia, sciatica and rheuma-tism; all the misery and ill-health Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure these troubles, because they actually make new, rich, health-giving blood. don't act upon the bowels, they don't bother with mere symptoms; they go right to the root of the trouble and cure it through the blood. But you must get the genuine-substitutes and initations never cured anyone. See that the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is printed on the wrapper around the box. Sold by medicine dealers everywhere. by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2 50 by writing the Dr. Williams Medicine Company Brock-ville, Ont.

her bonnet. Stella could not help remarking that she was very handsome ly dressed—almost too much so for a girl whose allowance was of the slen derest; however, she quickly recollected that her sister's dress was probably a present form Mme. Halevy. Florrie was altered too; there was a certain self-confidence and womanliness in her manner which was new to her, and which Stella set down to her to sit still.

wondering how on earth I should effect my entrance into this veritable dragon's castle. I really had not the courage to ring at the front door; the fortress might have too, was several shades darker than her sister's, and though it certainly might be called fair, it lacked the solden gleam that crowned Stella's wednesday last.

Baldwin, held her post-nuptual reception at their residence in Mount Royal divides the solden gleam that crowned Stella's wednesday last.

"But what has brought you like this?" stammered Stella, in a bewildered way. "Why have you not written for so long? Why aid will they think of your not having the formula of the servants—what will they think of your not having the formula of the Florrie laughed. "Oh, you can easily say that you know you were coming? and what have you done with your luggage? How did you get from the gation?"

"What were coming? and what went to the door yourself to look out at the wather, and found me just coming up the stope. You coming up the steps. You can say true that there was no fly at the sta-

However little Stella cared about However little Stella cared about falling in with these ingenious and plausible inventions, she was bound in some measure to countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the chose to the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance that the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance that the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance that the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance that the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance that the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance that the countenance that the countenance the extra planations which Florrie chose to the countenance that the countenance arrival at Wrexham. She was, however, a good deal disturbed and dis-uieted in her own mind. "I must get you something to eat," he said, perplexedly; and she won-dered whether she had better attack Mrs. Finch boldly upon the subject, or whether a private interview with the putter might not, under the circumstances, be a more politic proceeding. "Oh! I don't want anything to eat at all," cried Florrie, settling the difficulty for her. "I have had a very good dinner, and I am not in the least hunger."

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Borden have

Stella, in amazement, "Why, where on Ottawa for the winter months and will

"Oh! I got some dinner in London," interrupted Florrie hurriedly—"at the Miss Munro, of England, who has the tea at the Kennels on Monday After some further discussion, Stella Priddis. ettled that it would be better for Florrie to share her room that night. and that she would account to her received in town for the marriage of he morning in the best way that she and the sisters retired to bed.

The difficulty of Florrie's arrival was got over more easily than Stella anti-Stella sought her grand. Meredith), who spent the summer at dather's presence early the next morn-the See House, Mr. Justice Meredith's "Arrived last night, did she? Why ould devise.

"It was too late to disturb you, apartments. grandpapa," replied Stella, evasively.
"Umph! Well, I am glad she has me at last. Send her to me." is remaining in bed for break-next Tuesday. "Then she can come into my study ecount satisfactorily for the mysterfor the appearance of her box, which remedy at hand. Never be without Polson's Nerviline—then you're safe. came duly to hand at about noon the It cures earache, toothache, neuralgia same day, by having recourse to that and all nerve pains. wise principle which tells us that, in any bad business, "least said is soon-that Mrs. Finch had known, and Mrs. beardless. Finch supposed the same of Mr. King, and neither of them, fortunately, hought the subject of sufficient importance to cross-question the servants about it. Only Stella had that uncomfortable and unsatisfied feeling about her sister which comes to us when we know, by an unerring in-stinct, that we are being tricked and cheated into believing things that are

Mr. King was at heart delighted at Florrie's arrival, and he was very impatient to see her; for, after all, it was upon the younger sister that were now centered all his hopes for the fulfillment of his pet scheme.

But when he did see Florrie, he did ot take a fancy to her

She looked timed and nervous, and inswered his somewhat rough crossquestioning with trembling monosyl ables-not at all in the dauntless maner in which Stella had so happity taken his fancy. "So you've come at last, miss?" were his first words to her; "and high time, too. What have you been doing with ourself, pray? "Nothing, Mr. King," said Plerrie, remulously. She was genuinely frightened by the all the misery and mineral women suffer from time to come from bad blood. And I'm your grandfather, I suppose you know?"

"Very well, then, call me so. And what do you mean by 'nothing?' I suppose you have had some reason for stopping at Paris with a parcel of foreigners, instead of coming nore, like a good girl, with your sister, as you ought to have done, eh?"

He looked at her sharply; but Flor-rie made no answer, she kept her eyes cast down, and her color came and went rapidly. went rapidly.

"She's a fool," reflected Mr. King, disdainfully: "not a quarter or pretty or so clever as the other. I don't like her much. What a stupid missage of The Williams Piano Co., 171 Dundas St.

"Yes, grandpapa. "Oh! you know it, do you? Well, I book-cases and brown leather chairs, is what you like."

into the comparative freedom of Meanwhile, Florrie was exclaiming, Stella's little canctum. Mr. King was very cross; he loved "Oh! no. Florrie, he really is kind

He chuckled a little to himself, grandpapa!" as he drew his writing-case toward "Fancy the other saying those milk detestable, and water 'Yes, grandpapa's!' I should Norman to have taken a dislike to like to see her face if I had told her Stella! she is worth two of this one, to marry her cousin!—little spitfire! I However, I won't grumble if he marries her—after all, it is all I have ask—this child is like a doll stuffed with contain world. d him to do."

"Do you know," he said, aloud, "that have plans for your future, Miss Norman didn't fancy Stella!" And then he began to write to his grandson: "Come back as soon as you get this;

hope you will make no difficuties, and do what I wish."

"Yes, grandpapa."

"Come back as goon as you set the other sister has arrived. I am sure I don't know f you will like her; but as she is very different from Stellar "There, go away now-I've acthing you probably wifl. At any rate, she is "There, go away now—I ve herring you probably will. At any rate, she is more to say to you."

He turned from her impatiently; and florit suppose she ever said an angry word or lost her placed little equanfrom the room, with its oppressive imity in her life; and that, I believe

"Oh! Stella, what a horrible old man! trying to strike awe, but he hated to at heart; it is only his manner. Do see people really terrified in his pres- you know, I am getting quite fond of "Are you?" cried Florrie, opening her eyes, "Well, I think he is quite

[To be Continued.]

A very pleaisant event of the week London, under the management of Stella was white as a sheet, and trembled in every limb; Florrie, on the contrary, looked full of spirits and life, her cheeks were flushed, her eyes sparkled, she seemed to be beaming over with excitement. As she stepped into the little room she gave one rapid glance around it, then, seeing that her sister was alone, she uttered a little laugh of contentment.

"What good luck to have found you alone!" she cried, holding out her scheek for her sister to kiss, "I was wondering how on earth I should effect my entrance into this veritable.

The engagement is announced of Miss ington House, as hostess. Five tables were called in requisition for the play-long and thouse, as hostess. Five tables were called in requisition for the play-long and thouse, as hostess. Five tables of the earlier than Stella, and was certainly a pretty girl, alterior was rather taller than Stella, and was certainly a pretty girl, alterior was rather taller than Stella, and was certainly and the charming expression which made Stella's face so singularly fascinating.

She kept jumping up and down, examining everything in the room, and chattered incessantly.

Florrie was rather taller than Stella, and was certainly and the charming expression where features lacked the regularity and the charming expression which made Stella's face so singularly fascinating.

She kept jumping up and down, examining everything in the room, and interesting the requisition for the play-drow were called in requisition for the play-drow was the matinee euchre on Tuesday, Charles Kean.

courage to ring at the front door; the guardian of the fortress might have turned the dogs loose upon me. When I saw the light of your lamp, and your face looking out of the window, I could have imped for joy!"

lovely head as with a diadem.

"What am I to do about explaining your arrival?" said Stella, perplexedly.

"Why, say of course, that I arrived unexpectedly."

"Rut there are the servants—what Kenzie, of London, England, Miss perplexed to the proposed daughter of the proposed daughter MacPherson is the second daugnter of B. Kingsmill. the late T. H. MacPherson, of Ham-

> Miss Madge Smith is expected home early next week from a delightful visit turn in Goderich, the guest of Mrs. Lewis. | waineth.

Miss Tabby Moore is taking the rest cure at St. Joseph's Hospital.

marriag; of Miss Mollie Waldie, youngest daughter of Mr. John Waldie, to Mr. Robert Hamilton Cassels, eldest son of Mr. Walker Cassels, K. C., to enjoyable take place in Westminster Church on Wednesday, Oct. 25, at 3 o'clock, and repeated taken Mrs. Thomas White's house at Ridout, of Toronto. remove to it shortly.

station hotel. I had an hour to wait been spending a visit with Mr. and next, there, you know, so I thought I had Mrs. S. Munro, in Ridout street south, spent last week with Miss Harriet Miss Claris, St. Thomas, to Mr. John could devise.

Florrie made no objection to this, place in Trinity Church, St. Thomas, and the sistery policy of the sistery policy on Wednesday, Oct. 25. Dr. and Mrs. George A. Peters (ne and in a few words announced country residence, in Ridout street the fact of her sister's presence in the south, have returned home to College street, Toronto. was I not told?" was Mr. King's re- Mr. and Mrs. John Meredith (nee

Hellmuth), are at the Alexandria Mrs. George C. King (nee Thompson,

"Florrie was so tired this morning, tial reception from Tuesday last until as soon as she is up. I suppose Mrs. Finch has looked after her properly? Stella murmured an unintelligible researches before the footlights took pearances before the footlights took She found Mrs. Finch in the din- place in the same year-1856. Sir Henng-room making the tea, and dashed ry did not go upon the stage till he coldly into the subject upon her mind, had almost attained manhood, being 18 "My sister arrived, ast night, Mrs. when he made his debut as the Duc d'Orleans in "Richelieu" at the Lyceum Mr. Lawrence vs. Miss Gibbe and Mr. Kortright, of Oil Springs, was Mr. Lawrence vs. Miss Gibbe and Mr. Kortright, of Oil Springs, was Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence William Mr. Cibbons and Cibbons and Mr. Springs and Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Mr. Springs was Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence William Mr. Cibbons and Mr. Springs was Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence William Mr. Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Mr. Kortright, of Oil Springs was Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence William Mr. Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Cibbons and Mr. Kortright, of Oil Springs was Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence William Mr. Cibbons and Cibbons and Mr. Kortright, of Oil Springs was Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence William Mr. Cibbons and Mr. Kortright, of Oil Springs was Mr. F. P. Betts: Miss Lawrence William Mr. Cibbons and Mr. Cibbons "Your sister! Does Mr. King know?" Theater, Sunderland; while Miss Terry

Think of it-earache at night and no

As soon as a young man discovers that he can't raise a beard he begins Mr. King was under the impression to tell you about great men who were every detail of the New Scale Williams Piano. Note the marvellous new scale—the perfect mechanical construction - the elegant appearance.

New Scale WILLIAMS Pianos

proves its faultless workmanship - by its pure, rich, singing tone and masterful touch.

"The tone is most satisfying and of beautiful quality."—P. WATEIN MILLS.

She kept jumping up and down, ex- which claimed Mrs. Anderson, Walm- The engagement is announced of Miss

Mrs. George Pelton will receive next Friday for the first time at her new home, corner of Central avenue and Wellington street.

Mrs. Puddicombe, the Beeches, gave a very smart dinner party last even-ing in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter

Miss Gladys Michie is spending the week-end in Clinton, the guest of her uncle, Mr. Rowland, and upon her reto London will visit at Tre

Mrs. (Col.) MacDougall, after a brief visit in Toronto, returned on Thurs-Invitations have been issued for the drove from Hamilton to London enjoyable Miss Morgan, of Douglas Leigh, Car- evening. constie, Scotland, arrived in the city ast evening to visit Miss Eleanor Smallman, Waverley.

Miss Edna Kent. Fairlawn, enter-

Miss Dora Labatt and Miss Geral- afternoons. line Beddome will be the hostesses of more than sorry that the Buffalo team were unable to accept their invitation A number of invitations have been for Thursday last. Mrs. Marshall and the Misses Allie and Helen Marshall returned from Toronto at the beginning of the wood, South London. week.

Thursday evening from a very delightful trip to Quebec. Mrs. C. B. Hunt and Miss Nita foursomes in Pinafore Park, St. Hunt, Merriville, left for New York on Thomas, today. Thursday.

Old-time friends in London were grieved to learn of the death at Guelph on Wednesday last of Dr. Stephen Lett, son of the late Rev. Stephen Lett, of Collingwood.

Mrs. (Col.) Peters entertained delightfully at the tea hour at the Kennels today, and was also to preent prizes in the mixed foursomes ments for today, the members playing son will be delighted that they have as follows: Miss Belton and Mr. Geo. been resumed. Brown vs. Miss Geraldine Beddome "Your sister! Does Mr. King know?" Theater, Sunderland; while Miss Terry was a small child when she made her appearance as the boy Mamilius in "A Winter's Tale" at the Princess Theater, Sunderland; while Miss Terry and Mr. Herbert Gates vs. Mrs. Ernest Smith and Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons: Miss Allie Hyman and Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons: Miss Allie Hyman and Mr. Geo. Gunn; Miss Nora Niven and Mr. Geo. Gunn; Miss Nora Niven and Mr. Coulson vs. Miss Ada Ginner at the Toronto Club, during the Somerville and Mr. W. Pope: Miss Course of which he was presented with son; Miss Heien Gibbons and Anderson vs. Miss Edna Kent and Dr. Becher; Miss Hunt and Mr. Frank Reid

Worry Habit Kills the Nerves

You Can Get Well If You Will Stop Worrying and Use DR. CHASE'S authority on diseases of the nerves, at ributes the usual cause of such ailments to "the worry habit" which he has been spending a visit with his enounces as an "unmitigated evil." sor, Mr. Dunc Headache at top or back of head, in Strathroy. loises in the ears, sudden starting or witching, tenderness of the scalp or spine, sleeplessners, dyspepsia, pains Ladies' Golf Club played the Paris guest of a most enjoyable supper party and cramps, timidity, irritability, melancholy, are some of the symptoms of from the St. Catharines Ladies' Goff Talbot street. exhausted nerves. Pure air, wholesome food, rest and the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to rebuild and revitalize the wasted nerve hostess of a very jolly walking party Mr. Hartley Millman, who on Thurscells is the ideal treatment for dis- to the Kennels yesterday afternoon. eases of the nerves. Assert your will power and deterine that you will not worry or let little things irritate you, and keep us- day.

and it will not be long until you will Miss Emily Belton played the feel the thrill as a spent in Chicago, Washington, New York and the Bermudas.

Mr. McKinley Milman, of this city, officiated as mest man at the marriage feel the thrill as a spent in Chicago, Washington, New York and the Bermudas. feel the thrill of new life and energy rounds for the championship of soming back to your wasted and worn-out nerves.

There is no doubt about the ability of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to cure gentlemen's championship over the championship of the season of the London Hunt Ladies' bhen's Church, Winnipeg.

Golf Club. Colonel Peters and Mr.
Holden also played the finals in the home from attending the horse show the colone of the championship over the home from attending the horse show the colone of the championship o you, for its extraordinary restorative power has been established in hundreds and thousands of cases.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents, at all dealers, or Edmanson Bates & Co., Toronto.

Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

gentlemen's championship over the Glenmore links.

Miss Elsie Gordon, of Winnipeg, was the honor guest of a very enjoyable little drawing-room tea on Tuesday afternoon at the Kennels on Tuesday afternoon last. The luncheon table was exquisitely dainty with a process of the control of the wortley road, was the hostess.

ARMOUR LIMITED SAVOY CONDENSED SOUPS, 12 Varieties Delicious, wholesome and appetizing. One tin will make six portions. Sold by all grocers.

EXTRACT OF BEEF, hot water and seasoning—say bouillon in cups, a you do with ARMOUR'S EXTRACT OF BEEF; though if you do use a soup bone add just a little of ARMOUR'S EXTRACT OF BEEF and see wholesome beef, retaining the rich beefy flavor of the meat. It is as useful in the sickroom as in the kitchen. It brings appetite and strength to the delicate.

Sold by all druggists or grocers in 1, 2, 4, 8 and 16 oz. Jars.

The use of ARMOUR'S EXTRACT OF BEEF reduces the fuel bill because it requires no cooking. Just add hot water, seasoning, and it is ready. A soup bone requires hours to cook and you cannot get the color, flavor and body

ARMOUR'S EXTRACT OF BEEF is the concentrated essence of good.

Just Common Sense

ARMOUR'S

Extract of Beef

will solve the difficulties of many housekeepers-cut down the fuel bill

THE REASON WHY is that it offers a means of using up cold roasts, meat, game and vegetables by replacing juices lost in the first cooking, and restoring the tempting flavor as when first served. It also makes it possible to add one or two dishes to your menu on short notice, simply by the use of a small quantity of ARMOUR'S and keep the cook in good humor.

Complin, Miss Helen Richardson, Miss Miss Dora Ridout of Toronto, Mr. Kortright's and Mr. Watson's England, Miss McCallum and others.

Elsie Gordon, Winnipeg, Miss Hill, of Helen Richardson, Miss Elsie Gordon, Miss Dorothy Betts, Miss Helen Gunn, week-end visits to London occasioned a couple of smart little supper parties. Major Laybourne has the sincere Miss Marjorie Gibbons, Miss guest, Miss Dora to all who have had the pleasure of of Mrs. S. D. Woodruff, St. Catharines. Mrs. R. G. Fisher returned on Thurston.

Mrs. R. G. Fisher returned on Thurston. Thurston. Mrs. R. G. Fisher returned on Thurston. dence, Wolseley Barracks on Friday bourn had but a few weeks ago come afternoons.

Toronto. Friends of Mr. Burnside Robinson, spending the summer with Mrs. Layin the home of Mr. John F. Scatcherd, soup or a scace, etc.

Just the thing for school children.

The London Hunt Golf Club were don early this week. Mrs. (Lieut.) Stewart and Miss Petin New York.

Club have arranged to play mixed

Little Miss Marian Beck is the guest her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Miss Katharine Ardagh, of Brooklyn, New York, is the guest of Mr.

street. The House of Nordheimer have iswhich were arranged for members of Recital Hall on Tuesday evening next. the London Hunt Golf Club. Much interest has surrounded the arrangements for today the day of the surrounded the arrangements for today the surrounded the surroun

Mr. Kortright, of Oil Springs, was

Allie Hyman and Mr. Gerrard vg. Miss Elliot and Mr. Geo. Gunn; Miss Nora Niven and Mr. Coulson vs. Miss Ada Somerville and Mr. W. Pope; Miss Marjorie Gibbons and Mr. Lambe vs. Mrs. Frank Reid and Mr. C. Becher; Miss Edith Scatcherd and Mr. Zim-Miss Edith Scatcherd and Mr. Zimmenu cards bearing a crown and merman vs. Miss Hale and Mr. Harri- windmill, suggesting the name of the honor guest.

> Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Kingsmill, ho teturned from the Pacific coast on Sunday last, will remain guests of gault gave a delightful little drawing-Mr. and Mrs. Puddicombe, the Beaches, from tea in honor of her guest, Miss Correspondence strictly private. until the alterations in their new home Madeline Craig (daughter of Canon n St. Thomas are completed.

Dr. A. T. Schofield, a great English others.

Club on the latter's links. Miss Marjorie Gibbons was the bright

Mr. Charles and Mr. Gordon Hunt ter of Mr. Achibald Wright, of Winnileft on a shooting expedition on Thurs-peg. Mr. and Mrs. Millman's lune de

Miss Dorothy Betts and Mr. W. Meredith against Miss Zimmerman and Mr. Among the merry coterie were noted Mrs Norman Alexander. Mrs. John Tilley. A club dinner was also Mrs. (Dr.) Seaborn, Miss Ada Somer-Smallman, Miss Eleanor Smallman, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt. Miss Isabel Miss Laura Hyman, Miss Edna Kent, arranged for the players for this ville, Miss Nita Hunt.

of Toronto, were delighted to meet bourn's aunt, Mrs. Woodruff, St. Cath-him again during a brief visit to Lon-arines. Mr. Algernon Laybourne, of Hamilton, is also a son of the deceased.

ers are enjoying a most delightful visit Mrs. (Justice) Magee left for her General. His successor is Major Robin Halifax. Before returning about new home in Rosedale, Toronto, on inson Lyndhurst Wadmore, whom the middle of November, they will visit Thursday morning. Miss Mabel Magee many will remember as having been left for Toronto last week, and was the commandant at Wolseley Barracks. guest of her sister, Mrs. MacDonald, Several members of the London Golf Cona Ledge.

day was one of the most enjoyable yet given. Mrs. Frank Reid and Mrs. F. Mrs. Drake, of Windsor, is now the F. Harper were the bright hostesses. Mrs. (Col.) Peters returned home guest of Mrs. (Col.) Gartshore, Beech-Summer still lingered in the atmosphere, and the view from the club Headley. house veranda was most beautiful. Among those to enjoy the afternoon of her son, Dr. Drake, in Wellington Smith, Lambe, Becher, Hale, Gartshore, Drake (Windsor), Drake, Smallman, Gibbons, C. B. Hunt, and the Misses Lee (of Toronto), Kent, Ridout and Mrs. T. G. Dockstader, in Craig (Teronto), Laura Hyman, Lorna and Helen Gibbons, Jessie Hale, Helen Richardson, Elsie Gordon (Winnipeg), sued invitations for a musicale in their Eleanor Smallman, Nita Hunt and Messrs. Fred Harper, Frank Reid

> The many friends of Mrs. Charles Hyman, Idlewyld, are glad that she about again after her recent illness. Mrs. Ethelwolf Scatcherd's improved local agricultural shows has discover-

Miss Nora Niven entertained at the many friends.

Mr. Kortright, manager of the Bank of Toronto at Oil Springs, was a welome week-end visiter in London.

Craig, of Petrolea), a tall brunette, who appeared most attractive in The London Hunt Club have been beautiful gown of white hand embroidtaking advantage of the splendid ered muslin. Miss Nancy Manigault weather and enjoying many runs with and Miss Margery Pennington were the hounds. The turf not yet spoiled brightest and kindest of aides in diswith autumnal rains is coft and pensing tea dainties. Among those springy, and last Saturday afternoon whose pleasure it was to meet Miss the riders (who enjoyed the delightful Craig were Miss Edna Lechard, Miss hospitality of Mr. Breen and the Misses Breen for luncheon during the course of the run) started from Wolzeley Barracks. They included Hon, and Mrs. Adam Beck, Miss Gibbons, Mr. George Gibbons, Dr. Hogg, Mr. John Hunt. Mr Gerrard and several John Hunt, Mr. Gerrard and several Cex, the Misses Louise and Lines, Geary. Miss Marian MacCallum and Miss Elliot.

After the address given in the Colhas been spending a visit with his son, Mr. Duncan Ross, and Mrs. Ross by Mr. J. S. Larke, the Canadian comercial agent to Australia and New

> His many old-time friends extend orgratulations and good wishes to day of last week was married to Miss Margaret Rutherford Wright, daughmiel will be spent in Chicago, ceremony, which took place in St. Ste-

Miss Meredith and Miss Hale; bright and charming manner, poured tions and feathery ferns. Among the Miss Edna Leonard, Miss Nora Niven miss Edna Kent. Fairlawn, enter-tained most delightfully at an informal bridge on Wednesday evening, compli-mentary to her guest Miss Dorrelling to London is a source of delight! Laybourne, which occurred at the home

TORONTO.

Colonel Buchan, C. M. G., has received the apointment of Honorary A. D. C. to His Excellency the Governor-

Miss Norah Dann spent a few days this week the guest of Mrs Arthur The golf tea at the Kennels on Mon- Smith in St. James street. Miss Violet Crerar returned home to Hamilton on Monday after a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. Adam Beck,

Mrs. Drake, of Windsor, is the guest

MINARD'S LINIMENT USED BY PHYSICIANS.

health is a source of pleasure to her ed that by "watering" his melons with milk they will grow to twice

A farmer living near Marseilles who carries off all the melon prizes at the

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Mani- have used our home treatment for car STOTT & JURY, BOWMANVILLE, Great Britain supplies her soldiers with the anti-cholera woollen belt.

The Ceetee Woollen belt is a positive preventative for Lumbago, Dysentery, La Grippe and Rheumatism, as well as Cholera-particularly good for weak back. Thousands have proven the truth of Ceetee underwear is made in all styles for men, women and children and fashioned to fit the body-no rough seams.

> place any Ceetee Garment that shrinks

Your Dealer will re-

Made at Galt, Canada, by The C. TURNBULL CO., Limited and sold by all reliable dealers.