Pittsburg, Sept. 28.—The Pittsburgh baseball club today clinched the 1909 pennant of the National League. Although the local team was defeated by New York by a score of 13 to 9, Philadelphia's victory over Chicago assured the pennant for the Pittsburgh club.

Should Chicago win every game from now on until the close of the season, and Pittsburgh lose every game, it plays the local team would still be in the lead at the close of the season by half a game.

Big Time at Forbes Field.
A wild demonstration was enacted on Forbes Field today at the close of the game with New York, when the Philadelphia-Chicago score was posted on the bulletin board. The crowd made a rush for the bench of the local players, but they had retired to the dressing room.

Before the game today Manager Fred Clarke, of the Pittsburgh team, was presented with a purse of gold amounting to a little over $600, the gift of local baseball enthusiasts. Mayor William A. McGehe, of this city, made the presentation speech, and lauded the work of Manager Clarke and the members of the Pittsburgh team.

Game a Swatfest.
Today's game was a swatfest, pure and simple, with the visitors having the better of the argument. The locals used four pitchers, but all were hit freely. Boston was hit hard in the ninth inning, when two singles, two doubles and a triple netted the home club five runs. New York scored early in the game, securing a commanding lead that could not be overcome.

Pittsburg won the National League pennant in 1901, 1902 and 1903, this being the fourth time and giving Manager Clarke the distinction of being the only man in the National League today with such a record. Only three other managers of major league teams ever had a better record, they being Messrs. Anson, Scales and Hanlon, whose teams won pennants five times.

Bunches of Records.
Five players on the Pittsburgh team at present hold the record of being the only ones ever members of a club that won the pennant four times. They are Manager Clarke, Shortstop Wagner, Centre Fielder Leach and Pitchers Leever and Phillippe.

Pittsburg is the best hitting team in either league, having 1,232 bingles to their credit, including 291 doubles, 88 triples and 24 home runs, and is second in fielding, Chicago being first.

WRESTLER'S ARM DISABLED
And World's Championship Cornish Match Has Been Called Off.

Calumet, Mich., Sept. 28.—The world's championship Cornish wrestling match between Joe Ziehr, of Calumet, and Tim Harrington, of Butte, Mont., scheduled for October 9 at Calumet, is off. Ziehr today tore a ligament of his right arm while working with his trainer and probably never will wrestle again. Ziehr has never been defeated and claims the heavyweight championship. John Rowett, of Bessemer, Mich., will be matched with Harrington for Oct. 9, and the championship will be awarded to the winner. Should Rowett win he will meet Jack King, ex-champion, at Duluth, Oct. 15, for a $1,000 side bet.
