

8576--A SMART PRINCESS MODEL LADIES' DRESS.

Hellotrope cloth combined with cream white satin for trimming will develop this model effectively. The design shows the long waistline of the "Moyen Age," and has the plaited skirt portions now so fashionable The pattern is cut in 6 sizes—32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 inches bust measure. It requires 6% yards of 44-inch material for the 36-inch size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in address on receipt of 10 cents in

ADVERTISER.

Please send above mentioned pattern, as per directions given below, to Measurement-Bust...... Waist.....

Age (if child's or misses' pattern)...... CAUTION .- Be careful to inclose above CAUTION.—Be careful to inclose above glustration and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure, you need only mark it 32, 34 or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 42, 26 or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When misses' or child's pattern, write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than the week from the date of order. one week from the date of order. The price of each pattern is 10 cents in cash or in postage stamps,

PATIERN DEPARTMENT. LONDON ADVERTISER.

CYNTHIA GREY'S CORRESPONDENTS

Cure for a Sty.

Dear Miss Grey: What is a good hair grower? Is vaseline all right? clease tell me something to take the eline on the scalp? What will cure A READER.

A .- Vaseline is a very good tonic for the hair. If you are careful about applying it, the haid need not be made noticeably greasy. If possible have someone to rub it into the scalp for you. Have her part the hair into to the scalp with the tips of the Sties are an indication of a rundown system or weak eyes. Some-times they are cured by bathing them a solution of boracic acid and water, but frequently it is necessary for the patient to consult a physician or an oculist.

Marks Left by Pimples. Dear Miss Grey: Will you please tell me what is good to remove marks left by pimples? MAY Z. A .- The marks in time will disappear, but to hasten their departure ask your druggist for a mixture of boric acid and witch hazel. This solution may be applied to the spots daily

A Lotion for Brown Spots. Dear Miss Grey: Kindly tell me if a lotion made of half water and half peroxide of hydrogen is good for re-moving the dark brown spots which have been left by pimples. If so, state how it is to be used?

A CONSTANT READER. -Yes, the lotion to which you refer is very good for removing brown spots. It should be applied to the marks with absorbent cotton or piece of soft linen.

Number of Dances.

Dear Miss Grey: 1. If a young wo-man should sprain her ankle while on a picnic, would it be proper for a young man to carry her home? 2. How many dances should a young lady give her escort? 3. I am 16 years old and have a fair share of good looks, but I suffer terribly from bashfulness, and though I desire to be pleasant and at-tractive to all, yet I am ever at a loss what to say or do when in the presence of those whom I most care to please. How can I possibly overcome PERPLEXED.

A.—1. It would be better for the young man to hire a conveyance, but f it is inconvenient or impossible to do so it is proper for him to be of istance to the young woman. 2. The arst and last, and any two between. You should acquire self-confidence nd try to forget yourself. If you are not able to converse well be a good istener. By reading and paying careful attention to correct speakers, you will become able to discuss the subcts which are constantly being

Courtesy to a Stranger.

Dear Miss Grey: When a stranger comes into my church would it be proper to offer her a hymn or prayer took?

.-Yes, it is your duty to do so.

being read or sung.

DAILY MENU

Sliced pineapple, cereal and eream, pacon, muffins, toast, tea and coffee. LUNCHEON

Yesterday's stew, muffins, split and toasted; fried tomatoes, cookies and marmalade, tea.

DINNER.

Tapioca soup. Sunday's beef warmed over a la Milanaise, with raisins and nuts; spinach souffle (a left-over), fried carrots, tipsy pudding, black DOMESTIC HINTS

Promises to Children. The promise you make to a child is just as sacred as the one you make to the most important of grown-ups. Nothing should allow you to break it: and it should be considered really matter of honor to keep to your word here as elsewhere.

There is a story of a little boy whose parents had promised three separate times to take him out driv ing "the next time," and each time had lightly repudiated the promise. they drove away on the third occasion, the youngster stood at the window and sobbed, "There go the two darndest liars in the country!' And it is true. A broken promise is nothing but a lie, and the lie is o less an offence because it was told

About the House.

When putting away the silver tea or coffee pot which is not used every day, lay a little stick across the top under the cover. This will allow the fresh air to get in, and prevent musti-

Clean oilcloth with a wet towel, pinned over a stiff broom, and rub varnished wood looking fresh and bright rub it thoroughly

To straighten out paper that been rolled, open it with inner curve away from PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE run it over the sharp-not the curved or bevelled-edge of a table. It is flat immediately.

The sharp edge is good, too, for tearing paper; better than a paper cutter, in fact. Draw the paper to be cut straight and quickly across the edge, and there will be a clean tear, produced equally well in tissue or wrapping paper.

It is not generally known that bread crumbs are the finest of cleansers for white paper. Rub an old crust of stale bread over the paper, and every sort of stain, finger marks, dust, water stains, will disappear like magic. It is safer to use on fine books and pictures than the softest of rubbers. Blow, do not rub, the crumbs off

For Bitter Medicine. Nauseous medicine has been ere now disguised in fruit and jelly, covered with sugar, drowned in wine and coffee; but it remained for a western woman to discover the as an alleviation of the bitter taste. She says a spoonful of cream in the mouth, before and after taking, makes the worst medicine harmless. Certainly it is worth trying, though whether effect will wear away for the habitual taker, deponent sayeth not.

ALL AROUND THE HOME

Whip together the cuffs from wornout shirts for stove-holders. These are already thick, and when whipped together and a brass ring sewed into grease out of hair after rubbing vas- one corner, they make excellent holders that are easily washed.

> Should you forget to add flavoring to the cake batter, try sprinkling the required amount of flavoring over the cake as it stands in the pan before baking.

trands and then apply the vaseline bright polish use denatured alcohol. one cloth with the alcohol Moisten and polish immediately with a dry one. Windows can be cleaned in half the time with a fraction of the labor, and the glass is brilliant, never cloudy or smudgy, It also keeps the windows free from frost in cold weather. One pint will do twenty windows inside

> Classes in the faculties of arts and science in Edinburgh University were reopened Oct. 11.

After La Grippe

"I had suffered several weeks with LaGrippe. Had pains in my head and eyes. It felt as though there was a heavy weight on the top of my head, until it seemed that my brain would burst. I was so nervous that I could not rest or sleep. When I dozed off I would awake with a sudden jerking of my whole body. Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Remedy and Nerve and Liver Pills cured me. A number of friends have since realized the same benefits."

MRS. ALVIN H. LOCKS.

Seabrook, N. H. The after effects of LaGrippe are often more serious than the disease, as it leaves the system in a weakened condition that invites more serious troubles. such as pneumonia, etc.

Dr. Miles'

Restorative Nervine should be taken for some time to thoroughly restore nerve strength.

Price $1.00 at your drugglet. He should supply you. If he does not, send price to us, we forward prepaid. DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Toronto.

BY LOUIS TRACY. Author of "The Stowaway," "The Message," "The Wings of the Morning," Etc.

"Oh, they did, your Majesty," protested Sobieski. "Your Majesty's own father brought me into the hall and kept me there nearly five minutes. He did not believe a word I said, and was very angry with me for bringing such an alarming story to the palace. At last, by good fortune, Monsieur Nesimir appeared; but even then I should have geen taken away in custody if Monsieur Poluski had not caused me to be released."

Despite its sinister significance, Alectould not chose but credit this amazing could not chose but credit this amazing statement. He wondered why Felix had not told him the facts in detail after ward; but he knew that the hunchback; mind worked in strange grooves, and it was probable that his silence was dic-tated by some powerful motive. In any event, the incident was an unpleasant re minder of certain nebulous doubts tha minder of certain nebulous doubts that he had striven to crush, and it was bet ter that this scared rabbit of a man should not remain in Delgratz and be-come the victim of some vendetta which might bring the whole odd story into "You want to leave the city, I take it?" aid he, after a thoughtful pause, in which he took a slow turn up and down the room."

"I dare not remain here any longer, your Majesty. I came here tonight to ask Monsieur Poluski to be good enough to give me money to take me to Warsaw."

"I think," said Alec, smiling, "that he premised you, in my name, the wherewithal to buy a cafe."

"I fear I did not earn my reward, your Majesty," stuttered the other.

"Are cafes dear in Warsaw?" said the King, unlocking a drawer and producing roubles to the equivalent of five hundred dollars. "Here, this sum should give you a fresh start in life. All I ask in return is that you shall peep a still tongue a fresh start in life. All I ask in return is that you shall peep a still tongue about your recent share in local events."

Poor Sobleski's gratitude grew incoherent, especially when the King handed him over to the care of the attendant who had brought him to the bureau, with instructions that he was to be taken to the railway station and softwarded. to the railway station and safeguarded there till the departure of the next train that crossed the frontier.

By that time the dinner hour was long a glass of red wine.

Coming downstairs about an hour later, he passed the smoking-room. The door was open, and he saw that the men had already ended dinner. He was about to enter the music room, to which his mother and Joan usually retired with the President's wife and daughter, when he mother and Joan usually retired with the President's wife and daughter, when he met Pauline for the second time, and the Frenchwoman now approached him with the same marked nervousness in her detailed. the same marked nervousness in her de-meanor that he had noticed when he saw

I am going from Deigratz, and I shall never see you again. I cannot marry you—but oh, my dear, my dear, I shall love you all my life! Try and forget me. I am acting for the best. Do not write to Paris or endeavor to find me. If it is God's will we shall never meet again. I can secreely see what I am writing for God's will we shall never meet again. I can scarcely see what I am writing for my tears. So good-by, my Alec! Be brave! Forgive me, and, in the years to come, try to forget our few days of hap-piness together. Yours ever, JOAN." He stood there stricken almost paralyzed with the suddenness of the blow, wondering dumbly why Joan's hand should have inflicted it. The frightened should have inflicted it. The frightened Frenchwoman dared not speak or move. She watched him with that impersonal fear so readily aroused in one of her class by the terrifying spectacle of a strong man in his agony. At last he moved listlessly, as though his limbs had just been released from the rack. He held the letter under the lamp again and read it a second time, word for word. He seemed to be forcing himself to accept it as truth. This young King, so valiant, so resourceful, so prompt in action and judgment, could devise ne plan, no means of rescue from the abyss. After an interval that neither the man nor the woman could measure, he turned nor the woman could measure, he turned his strained, staring eyes on the shrink-

"Have I ever done you any harm?" he said, in the low voice of utmost despair. "Me, monsieur" she gasped. "You harm me? No, indeed, I was only too proud to think my dear mistress should have won such a husband."

have won such a husband."

"Then you will answer my questions truly," he went on, his eyes devouring the woman's homely features as though he would fain seek comfort therein.

"Oh, yes, indeed, monsieur. Ask me anything. It is not that I have much to tell. Mademoiselle said, 'Give this letter to the King himself. Let it touch no other hand.' That is all, monsieur. She was weeping when she wrote it Manglay." was weeping when she wrote it. Monsieur giving the police the hardest work Poluski told me what to do tomorrow about my own journey. See, here are my nection with the strike.

tickets."
"Poluski!" said Alec, and the words came dully. "Has he too betrayed me?"
"He has gone with my mistress," sobbed Pauline. "It is not that they have betrayed you, monsieur; for mademoiselle looked like to die, and I have never seen apyone more disturbed than Monsieur. seen anyone more disturbed than Mon-sieur Poluski. He raved like a maniac when I asked him for one word of ex-

"But what does it mean, woman? Do you understand what has happened? My promised wife has fled, bidding me not to dream of seeing her again, and with her has gone one of the few men alive in whom I had confidence. What is that but betrayal?"

"I do not profess to understand the "I do not profess to understand the ways of courts, monsieur," said Pauline, gathering a little courage, since the King appealed to her as a fellow-mortal. "But in your case I do not think I should blame Mademoiselle Joan. She did not go because she had ceased to love you, monsieur. Sometimes a woman can love a man so well that she will leave him if she thinks it is for his good." she thinks it is for his good."

A light broke in on the darkness. Was Joan the victim of some deadly intrigue such as had sullied too often the records of the Kosnovian monarchy? How strange it was that he should come from that eventful meeting of the cabinet and receive within the hour Joan's pathetic message of farewell. He stood and thought deeply again for many minutes, striying message of farewell. He stood and thought deeply again for many minutes, striving to conquer his laboring heart and throbbing brain, exerting manfully all his splendid resources of mind and body. Then he turned to the trembling French woman and said with almost uneanny woman and said with almost uncanny gentleness:

"You have done what your mistress "You have done what your mistress asked, Pauline. Come to me tomorrow before you go, and I will reward you for your faithful service. Leave me now, but tell no one what has happened. I must have time to think, and it would help me if no other person in this house but you shares with me the knowledge of mademoiselle's departure."

Pauline went out, glad of her dismissal, yet sobbing with sympathy. Alec began

Had Severe Pains In His Back.

Could Hardly Work.

Mr. Alfred E. Davis, Gorrie, Ont.; writes:—"For some years I suffered from severe pains in my back and could hardly work at all, and when I stooped down to pick up anything felt as if my back must break. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after taking two boxes I was entirely cured, and feel that I cannot speak too highly in their "This was nearly four years ago and I still remain cured. Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo.

Weak, lame or aching back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They help the kidneys to flush off the acrid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and urinary passages. Price 50c per box or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, bidding farewell to her dream of happiness, deliberately torturing herself with a burden of memories. Even their parting kiss must have given her a twinge of direst agony; for the one thing he would never believe of Joan was that she had sacrificed him to some feminine whim, made him the sport of a woman's caprice. She had been driven from him! She had been driven from him! By whom? He must discover that, and he gloated with almost insensate rage at the thought of strangling with his hands the wretch who had done this callous deed. Physical passion mastered him again, and it was not until he realized. again, and it was not until he realized the folly of merely dreaming of vengeance that he forced himself anew into a semblance of calm. He knew that a past. Alec was disinclined for a neavy meal, so he went to his private suite, where he changed his clothes, contenting himself with some sandwiches, which he ate in a hurry and washed down with a glass of red wine.

Toronto, Ont. If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

geance that a semblance of calm. He knew that a semblance of calm and the same binded with rage could not deal sanely with this problem of love and statecraft. At first he thought of questioning individually each person who, by the remotest chance, might be responsible the remotest chance, might be responsible for Joan's flight. But not only did his impatient heart spurn that slower method of inquisition, but he realized that he was ering instantly in one room all those per that was not to be quelled.

He summoned an attendant. "Ask Prince and Princess Delgrado to come here," he said. "Send to General Stampoff and tell him that the King urgently her standing in the lobby.

"May I have a word with your Majesty in private?" he asked.

He was surprised; but again he believed she was probably bringing a message from Joan. He threw open the door of his office. "Come in here," he said.

"Nesimir. Ask those three gentlemen also to ioin me."

"What is it?"
She held out a letter, and he saw that her hand shook. "Mademoiselle asked me to give you this, your Majesty," she said. "I was to take care that you were alone when you received it."
"Something important, then," he said with a laugh.
Crossing the room to the table on which stood the lamp by whose light he with a laugh.

Crossing the room to the table on which stood the lamp by whose light he had scribbled "Alexis R." on the papers intrusted to Bosko, he opened the envelope, which bore in Joan's handwriting the simple superscription "Alec," and began to read:

"My Dear One, When Pauline gives to reveal the hollowness of life, its mock tragedies, its real agony of tears. All at once the impulse seized bim to look at the bright steel. With a savage laugh he sprang across the room and took down.

Sword given min by make Boissiere, It evoked bitter memories, and he swung on his heel with a curse, going to the window and staring out into the night. His brain seethed with strange the simple superscription "Alec," and began to read:

"My Dear One, When Pauline gives the hollowness of life, its mock tragedies, its real agony of tears. All at once the impulse seized bim to look at the bright steel. With a savage laugh he sprang across the room and took down phone and Telegraph Company, is not to compline. sprang across the room and took down-the sword. The blade leaped forth at his

TRAGIC SHOOTING

Rejected Young Lover Kills Himself and Telegraph Company, made a trip Before His Sweetheart.

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—Entering the

STRIKERS TOOK GOODS

VALUED AT $50,000 Held Up Van in New York, But Were

New York, Nov. 12 .- A bold theft of an express van containing merchandise worth $50,000, and several attacks by mobs on drivers of express and delivery wagons occurred this afternoon.

Captured.

Four strike-breakers were arrested charged with the theft of the van, which belonged to the Adams Express Company.

It is charged that they transferred the goods on the street to two smaller vans, and then drove to a storage warehouse, where they were appre-hended at the point of revolvers as they were starting to put the goods in

CABLE REDUCTION

Attempt To Combine English Companies Is Being Made.

[Associated Press.] York, Nov. 12.-George Clapperton, vice-president of the Commercial Cable Company, being asked in regard to the interview with Colonel Clowry, president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, relative to the announcement of the Commercial Cable Company of reduced cable rates on plain letter messages, said:

"Our five letter cable reduction plan is entirely new and entirely different from the old plan mentioned by Col-Clowry, and his insinuation as onel to the Commercial Cable Company's attitude is incorrect. The whole history of the Commercial Cable Company is to the contrary. We are the Pauline went out, glad of her dismissal, yet sobbing with sympathy. Alec began to pace the length of the long, dimly-lighted room. Back and forth he went, thinking, knitting his brows in flerce effort to sudue his stunned faculties. By degrees the sad significance of Joan's words and actions during their visit that morning to the New Konak began to establish itself. He saw now that she was all over the wo Mrs. Winslow's Soothirg Syrup has been used for over THIRTY YEARS by MILLIONS OF MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEPTHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS, IT SOOTHES THE CHILD, SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALLAYS ALL PAIN, CURES TAID COLIC and is the best remedy for Throes. Sold all over the word.

THE MILL END SALE IN

As the time grows shorter the bargains grow bigger. Since the opening of this great sale we've made other immense purchases. These we have kept in reserve in order that we may have as enthusiastic crowds the last week of the sale as we had at first. Remember, these mill end offerings are thoroughly dependable and desirable and are priced to you at about what we would have to pay for them in the ordinary course of buying. Make the most of these last days of the sale.

Big Underwear Savings

Here is a partial list of the prices at which these necessary and seasonable articles will be sold for the remainder of

Ladies' Extra Heavy Vests and Drawers

Ladies' Heavyweight Vests and Drawers. regular 25c, for 19¢ Ladies' Extra Heavy Vests and Drawers. Gray Union Vests and Drawers, regular 50c, for39¢ Cream Vests and Drawers, extra fine wool Red Vests and Drawers regular 75c, for 59¢ Gray Union Vests, regular 75c, for...59¢

Ladies' Pure All-Wool Vests, regular $1 for 69¢ Children's Combination Suits, worth up to $1.00, for 29¢ Children's Toques, white only, regular 25c,

Ladies' Black Llama Hose

All sizes, regular price 50c, sale price, three pairs for $1.00 SEE OUR TABLE LINEN ENDS.

Unusual Dress Goods Values

To add to the interest of the Mill End Sale we have made special purchases of new and stylish dress materials. Here

Newest Suitings Worth 85c for 57c Yard

Diagonal and Shark's Back Suitings, all this season's goods, shades are wine, king's blue, brown, navy and green; worth to 85c, for, per yard 57c

New Coatings Worth $1.75 for 97c

This lot comprises coatings in all this season's popular weaves, in light and heavy weight tweeds, blanket cloths and diagonals, in shades of gray, light and dark red, light and dark blue, black and white diagonal; worth to $1.75, for97¢

Embroidered Linons

Manufacturer's immense job line of Teacloths, Dresser Scarfs, Tray Cloths, etc., bought at unusual reductions. Acceptable Christmas gifts.

Sideboard and Dresser Scarfs, worth to 60c, for39¢ Tray Cloths, worth to 40c, for.....29¢ Teacloths, worth to 75c, for......49¢

DUNDAS AND CARLING STREETS

WINTER QUARTERLY STYLE BOOK AND DECEMBER PATTERNS NOW READY.

GRAY & PARKER

Western Union in opposition to the Commercial Cable Company, and he might have added that Mr. Vail, the president of the American Telephone to London last summer for the same

BOLD ROBBERY.

Great Barrington, Mass., Nov. 12 .-

Paymaster Hines, of a trolley construction company, was held up today by three armed men and robbed of between $4,000 and $5,000 in cash, the

Terrible Suffering

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism.

years from rheumatism. Doctors gave me up. Friends told me to try this medicine and the other until I abandoned all medicines and felt very despondent. At last a friend came to troubled she told me to try Hood's Sar-see me and after I told her how I was saparilla. After taking one bottle I began to feel better and I am now completely cured and I return many thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am never without it." C. Macauley, 64 Richmond St., Montreal, Que.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all.

Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good., Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Gripe. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The gen-uine tablet stamped C C C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.

ONWARD

and Straining.

Sliding

Furniture

Saves floors-saves carpets-saves Furniture. Far superior in every way to old-fashioned Casters. Always in place-makes moving and sweeping easy.

Just as suitable for Heavy Purniture—the Piano and Sideboard—and saves tugging

When buying new Furniture, insist on having Onward Sliding Shoes instead of easters. They cost no more.

ONWARD MFG. CO.,

Factories at Berlin, Ont. and Menush

George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

Piano

Shoes

by all druggists everywhere.

"I suffered terribly for about five company's payroll.

WORK WITHOUT FATIGUE the question of rates, but to combine all the English companies with the

You won't feel exhausted when you take EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST!

It will sustain you as nothing else will—there is strength in every particle of it. As a supper beverage it is perfect.

Two Minute Talks About ANDORA Two Minute Talks About RANGE

THE Pandora is the range of many conveniences. It has a special Flue Construction-which enables you to cook over every pot hole and bake in the oven at the same time. It has a Steel Oven which reaches baking heat faster than a cast iron oven. It has an absolutely Level Oven Bottom which prevents pies from running over. It has a tested, reliable Thermometer

for Goal or Wood

with easy-to-read figures. The Pandora also has an Interchangeable Gooking Top. You can set a boiler lengthwise or crosswise on the stove. You can remove the Fire Box Linings instantly with your hands. You can change the Grates from coal to wood in a few seconds. You can sharpen your knives on the Emery Section of the Patented Towel

Still other conveniences are the Larger Ash Pan---the easily-cleaned Enamelled Steel Reservoir---the smooth as glass Burnished Surface which only requires polishing once a week--the Perfect Spring High Closet Door which provides room for fourteen more dinner or dessert plates in the Polished Steel Warming Closet. Several other conveniences described in our Pandora Booklet. Send for a copy.

M^cClary's

Stands for Guaranteed Quality

Toronte, Montreal, Winnipeg

Vancouver, St. John, N.B., Hamilton, Calgary

J. Maker, 256 Dundas street; J. A. Brownlee, 385 Talbot street; J. A. Page, 807 Dundas street.

