

FAIRBANK WILL REDEEM RIDING

The Liberal Candidate in East Lambton Making Fine Fight.

ARMSTRONG'S NICE FIX

Anti-Reciprocity Candidate Favored That Policy Eight Months Ago.

[By Our Own Men.]
Potoula, Aug. 21.—With J. B. Armstrong, M.P., tangled in a web of his own words that welcomed reciprocity as a boon before the Forest Grange at Christmas time, and that now haunts his waking hours, Dr. C. O. Fairbank, his Liberal opponent, is waging a campaign in East Lambton that promises to duplicate the memorable one of 1880, when his venerable father, J. S. Fairbank, wrested the riding from the Conservatives.

A Tell-Tale Document.
The manner in which "Joe" Armstrong snared himself and set his supporters of last election, thinking is best set forth in the following signed document, handed to a representative of The Advertiser today:

Forest, Aug. 7, 1911.
"This is to certify that Joseph E. Armstrong, M.P. for East Lambton, addressing the members of the Forest Grange during the Christmas holidays while the reciprocity negotiations were being discussed, made use of the following statement: 'that he did not see how any person could reasonably object to reciprocity in natural products.' (Signed) 'DUNCAN WHITE, Master of Forest Grange, 'D. A. TAYLOR, 'W. RAWLINGS.'"

Since that time, as might be expected, there has been an order to 'change the record,' and Mr. Armstrong has since been singing in chorus.

Mr. Armstrong questioned.
At the same time, Mr. Armstrong has not eaten his words. When interviewed yesterday in the Conservative committee rooms as to the truth of the declaration of the chief of the grange, he wanted to know if any attempt was being made to trap him, stating that he knew much things were done at election time. Assured that only a reply to a straightforward question was desired, he read the statement.

The Advertiser reporter asked him if it were true, and Mr. Armstrong's reply took the form of a question: 'How could it be true when my party was taken to stand in the matter at that time?'

Another direct question was given a second and no more direct response. Mr. Armstrong chatted agreeably of the campaign, incidentally observing that the grange matter was 'very much of a side issue,' but he did not deny it.

An Interesting Report.
The fight carried to the remotest corners of the riding by Dr. Fairbank is not the only menace to Mr. Armstrong's chances of retaining the seat. In this connection it might be remarked that the township of Enniskillen is the strongest Conservative section of the riding. It mustered 308 votes in the last contest, and Mr. Armstrong took 521 of these. Among all these strong party men, the leader is generally conceded to be W. A. Brock, warden of Lambton County. The latest development of the campaign is to enter the fight as a representative of that large section of Conservatives, many of them doubtless men of Enniskillen, that mean to realize on the hopes its old chieftains fought for.

Declines a Statement.
Mr. Brock was communicated with by The Advertiser. He was asked whether he intended to run, and replied that he could not make a statement at that time. In the event that he decided to enter the contest in opposition to Mr. Armstrong and Dr. Fairbank he said it would be made known.

His views on the reciprocity agreement were solicited also, and he made answer that he did not desire to go on record at the present time.

Mr. Brock's entire fight would make for a contest of peculiar possibilities to the other candidates. The greater part of the Conservative vote, it is prophesied, would be cast to him. But whether or not he makes the decision there is evidence on all sides that all are not Liberals who work with the 'give-it-a-trial' forces.

Dr. Fairbank's Campaign.
The disadvantages under which the 'stand-pat' element of the Conservatives is working, are by no means the greater advantages of the Liberal's worthy representative. In a series of gatherings in all parts of the riding, Dr. Fairbank will drive home the telling doctrines that today's Liberalism provides. He goes into the conflict with little to fear from those exclusive claimants to loyalty who would have the voter shudder at thoughts of bloodless conquests and the striking of the flag.

His Military Service.
Few candidates of other side have done so much in the military service of their country as he. A major in the reserve of officers, a former commander of the Sixth Field Battery, and a graduate of the Royal Military College, he has devoted years of his life to the work of training men for the field.

A soldier, he finds no smirch on the badge of his paid avocation, when he aids Continued on Page Eight.

PAINTED A MAN

Chatham Youth Roughly Handled While Driving Through Country.

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 21.—The barn, shed, implements, and this year's crops on the farm of Wm. Sturges, on the fourth concession of Dover, were totally destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon. A threshing machine belonging to J. Glover, which was in the barn at the time, was also burned. The fire was caused by a spark from the threshing machine.

A well-known young man, Chatham was set upon recently while returning from visiting a girl down this river. He eluded his pursuers from him and he was painted from head to foot with red ochre paint used for coloring brick. No information has yet been held against the men who attacked him, and an effort is being made to hush the affair up.

MR. J. M. MEVOY IN SOUTH LONDON

Liberal Candidate Was Given a Most Enthusiastic Welcome Last Night.

MR. ELLIOTT'S DEPARTURE

Keen Regret Expressed at the Leaving of the Late President For the Canadian West-Organization Work.

At a meeting of the South London Liberals, held last night in the club-rooms, the resignation of Mr. Angus Elliott, who for some years had held the presidency of the club, and is now in the west, was received, and regretfully accepted.

Mr. Elliott had been a moving spirit in the organization, and the members were sorry to lose him. Mr. James McCormick, who has acted as vice-president, was unanimously selected to fill the position of Mr. Elliott, and expressed regret at the removal of Mr. Elliott, but wished him success in his new field.

A resolution expressing deep regret at the departure of Mr. Elliott was then passed unanimously.

Mr. Jared Vining was named vice-president, to succeed Mr. McCormick. His selection was unanimous also.

The large attendance of Liberals proceeded at once to organize for the coming campaign. Chairmen for the several divisions were selected, and the committees named to look after the voters.

Liberals Enthusiastic.
Short addresses were delivered by Mr. J. M. McEvoy, Mr. Jared Vining, Dr. H. A. Stevenson, J. H. Fowler, ex-Ald. William Gerry and others.

"I have been around several ridings lately," declared Dr. Stevenson, "and never saw anything so encouraging as the enthusiasm displayed by most of the Liberals. There is no doubt whatever of the outcome. Mr. William Laurier will make a sweep of the country."

Mr. Jared Vining gave the workers some valuable hints on organization work. He was, however, of the opinion that the Liberal cause was not in a very bright position, and he was confident that the assistance of the Liberals of London would be returned to them.

A Popular Candidate.
Mr. McEvoy was given a splendid reception. He introduced the popularity of that day before each individual member of the club, the night was his fight alone, but that of the whole Liberal party, and every individual Liberal should feel a certain responsibility in connection with the campaign. So were very bright, and he was confident that the assistance of the Liberals of London would be returned to them.

It was predicted that Mr. McEvoy, if elected, would be made a cabinet minister. There will be an organization meeting in Hyman Hall tonight, when the various divisions will be organized for the campaign.

ROYAL MESSAGE TO LLOYD GEORGE

King Congratulates Chancellor for Settling Strike.

SOME MEN ARE STILL OUT

Strife in English Industrial World is Gradually Abating.

London, Aug. 21.—The strife in the industrial world of the United Kingdom is gradually abating. With a truce in effect on all the railway lines except the London and North-Western, the board of trade was occupied all of today in an endeavor to reach an agreement between the employees of this line and the managers, and also in trying to settle the strike of men still out. It was announced that both these controversies are now in line for early adjustment.

There was still much friction today on some of the railroads over the impatience of strikers returning to work to be accorded full reinstatement in their old positions, which have been given to men who remained loyal to the companies when the walk-out was declared. As a result there were several instances of disorder in various parts of the United Kingdom, and decisions by small bodies of men to remain on strike.

Complaint of Men.
The representatives of the railway employees today complained that the companies were not carrying out the terms of the agreement under which the strike was called off, referring particularly to clause 2, which provided for the reinstatement of strikers without prejudice. As a consequence a long conference was held at the board of trade and the protest of the men investigated. At its conclusion an announcement was made that a satisfactory solution of the difficulty had been reached.

Work on the London docks was in full swing today for the first time in three weeks, but it will be some time before the congestion of the port, due to the dock and transfer men's strike, is relieved.

King George telegraphed his congratulations to Premier Asquith, Mr. Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, and Mr. Sydney Buxton, president of the board of trade, on the settlement of the railway strike. The King's message to Mr. Lloyd George said:

"I am very glad to hear that it was largely due to your energy and skill that the settlement was brought about. I heartily congratulate you, and feel that the whole country will be most grateful to you for averting a most disastrous calamity. It has caused me the greatest possible anxiety."

TAKEN BACK TO CHICAGO

Indicted Oleomargarine Men Was Working at Toronto.

[Canadian Press.]
Chicago, Aug. 21.—Hugh D. Cameron, former head of the Chicago oleomargarine industry, was indicted by the federal grand jury six weeks ago, along with 25 others, including three internal revenue officers, for alleged violation of the oleomargarine laws.

He was arrested in Toronto, Ont., and brought back to Chicago today by an investigator of the department of justice. Shortly before the indictment against him was returned, Cameron fled from the city and no trace of him was found until several days ago. He was found working at a branch office of a Chicago packing company in Toronto.

ONLY ONE MAN FOR N. WATERLOO

Great Convention at Berlin Solid for Mr. King.

NO CHANGES IN TARIFF

Minister Ridicules Insinuations of the Opposition Speakers.

Waterloo, Aug. 21.—There is only one man for North Waterloo, and that man is the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. He was nominated this afternoon by a town hall, and the number in which the four hundred delegates gave vent to their enthusiasm promised a great Liberal victory on Sept. 22.

The spirit that permeated the convention was in striking contrast to that of the Conservative convention a few days ago, when, after the nomination of Mr. King, the delegates were so divided that they had to adjourn for a week and a half.

The large German vote in Berlin and Waterloo and the surrounding town-hills is strongly behind Mr. Mackenzie King. The farmers here resented the convention for themselves, and they are not easily moved by side issues. The flag-waving campaign that the Conservatives are carrying on is well up in the air.

Absurd Contentions.
The Minister of Labor was in a fighting mood, and his speech was a masterpiece of logic and common sense. He pointed out the absurdity of the Government's policy of making tariff changes, and declared that the Government's policy was to make the tariff changes, and that the Government's policy was to make the tariff changes.

Bluevale, which was a tie at the last election will give Mr. Hislop this time a majority of about twenty, and Turnberry, which went Conservative last election, will swing into the Liberal column. However, East Huron is good fighting ground for both parties, with the chances in Mr. Hislop's favor.
